Sittel, Mrs. Vail Charles Tetherow, Otto Rummel, Fred Sittel and O. Rummel, Sr.

Mrs. M. E. Virden who is making her home with her granddaughter, Mrs. Roy Chandler, 323 Misner street, Montavilla, was the honor guest at a surprise dinner given Wednesday evening in honor of her 4th birthday. Covers were laid for 11. Present were Mrs. H. Dollahan of Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. A. Chandler and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larrey, Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler and son William. A very pleasant evening was spent and many presents were received.

The Young Ladies' Guild of St. James Lutheran Church, West Park and Jefferson, has resumed its regular monthly business and social meetings after a vacation of two months. The first meeting was held, Thursday evening, September 10, at the home of its president, Miss Paula Schmalz, 206 Taylor street. As the occasion was also Miss Schmalz's birthday a very pleasant social evening was spent after an unusually interesting business session.

Mrs. A. J. Dufur and Mrs. H. May, entertained the young girls of their neighborhood, Thursday evening, September 17, at their residence, 635 East Ankeny street. The evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was had. The guests were: Misses Lola Foster, Vera Leach, Ida Dingle, Maie Clair, Edith Dufur, Helen Clair, Genevieve Dufur, Fairy Leach and Laura Dingle.

Miss Ruth Bringmann entertained a few of her friends at her home last Saturday evening with a luncheon. Those present were the Misses Irma Nelson, Carrya Wise, Zena Woodward, Ella Ashbaugh, Blanche Belding, Marie Marshall, Margaret Taylor, Kathleen Jackson, Dolores Dickens and Ruth Bringmann.

Many women of the First Unitarian Church, and from other churches, were present at Miss Spalding's reception at the church parlors on Wednesday last. Tendered in honor of the Women's Alliance, of which Miss Spalding is president, the occasion was enjoyable for all. Many beautiful flowers graced the scene.

The Centennial girls whose parties have proved popular in the past, will give three parties during the winter. The first will be given in Miralark Hall, the next week in October. Club members are: Myrtle Long, Ada Matthews, Ruth Diller and Lilla Winters.

WEDDINGS.

Snipes-Eddings.

Standing beneath an ingeniously-contrived four-leaf clover that shed a shower of rice upon them at the conclusion of the ceremony, Miss Bertha C. Snipes, of Vancouver, Wash., and Joseph E. Eddings, of The Dalles, were united in marriage on the afternoon of Wednesday, September 16. It was one of Vancouver's most notable weddings. The bride took place at the home of ex-Mayor E. G. Crawford. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Curtis, of Grand Dalles, Wash., the bride, who is the arm of her grandfather, Colonel James T. Goss, who gave her away. The bride was attired in white milk, richly embroidered, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and white rosebuds. The bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Eddings, was gowned in a flowered organdy over pink silk. She carried pink roses. Theodore Walker acted as best man and Master Goss Sutton as ring-bearer. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W. C. Sheppard, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Bertha Eddings. Mr. and Mrs. Snipes will make their home at The Dalles, where Mr. Snipes is engaged in the milling business.

Mansfield-Fields.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening, September 15, at the residence of Mrs. Rodham Fields at Mount Tabor when her daughter, Lucia, became the wife of Edward Mansfield. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Muckley of the First Christian Church. The house was tastefully decorated with trailing vines and pink roses and was filled with the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. The bride party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. Leslie Westrich, and stood under a canopy of ferns and pink sweet peas, screened by tall palms. The bride was charming in a dainty gown of white point d'esprit and carried a bouquet of brides roses. She was attended by Miss Frances Stadelmann attired in pink and carrying a beautiful shower bouquet of pink sweet peas. The groom's brother, Mr. Charles Mansfield, officiated as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield departed on a visit to California and upon their return will reside at Mount Tabor.

Mount-Miller.

On the evening of September 5, at the home of the bride's brother, J. W. Ganong, of 63 East Burnside street, Mrs. Middle Miller was united in marriage to Dr. Hugh Stevens Hout, both of Oregon City. Rev. F. M. Hammond, of Eugene, officiating. The house was decorated with palms and flowers. The wedding march was played by Miss Laura Ganong. The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Graves, while the bride was accompanied by her brother, J. W. Ganong, and the groom by his brother, Dr. Clyde Mount. The bride is a daughter of the late C. W. Ganong, a pioneer of Oregon City, and the groom is a physician of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Mount left the next day for Banff, B. C., where they will spend a week. They will then go to New York, where the groom will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Newgent-Sibley.

Tuesday evening, September 15, at 322 East Sixth street, North, James S. Newgent, Jr., of this city, and Miss Julia Emma Sibley, of Kansas City, Mo., were married. Mrs. T. H. Divine played the march and the bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Slaughter, of Kansas City. The ceremony was performed under an artistic wedding bell in the spacious hall by Rev. S. S. Bollinger, of the Highland Congregational Church. The wedding was the culmination of an acquaintance that began before Mr. Newgent came to Oregon with the other members of his family. Mrs. Slaughter is a sister of the bride. The Slaughter are on their honeymoon trip, having been married in Kansas City recently. Mr. and Mrs. Newgent will make their home in Portland.

Williams-Kidd.

A delightful banquet was enjoyed by the guests. Mr. Williams is a popular conductor of the St. John line. After a brief trip to Salem and other Valley towns, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will be at home to their friends at 106 Montana avenue.

Hart-Hackney.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the Hackney cottage, at Sea View, Wash., Wednesday, September 16, when Miss Emma Hackney, of Portland, and Henry C. Hart, of Boise, Idaho, were joined in matrimonial bonds. The bride was given away by her father, James Hackney, Mrs. Main, the bride's sister, and Mrs. C. J. Quinn, were matrons of honor, and Mr. Alvin Hackney acted as best man. Miss Bertha James, of Portland, played the wedding march. The cottage was beautifully decorated with ferns, hop vines and roses. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to about 40 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hart left on the afternoon train for Portland and vicinity to spend their honeymoon, after which they will return to Boise, Idaho, to make their future home.

Briggs-Staples.

An exceedingly pretty, but quiet, wedding was that of Miss Ina Albee Staples and Albert N. Briggs, which took place in Seattle, on Wednesday, at the residence of the bride's sister, the bride, who is popular, is a handsome girl of a brunette type of beauty. Dr. Briggs is a well-known physician of Portland, Or., and Mrs. Briggs left for a trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., but will be at home after October 1 at 614 Knox street, West Creston, Portland.

Johnson-Mathews.

Albert Sidney Johnson and Miss Nettie Mathews were united in marriage at a quiet home wedding on Wednesday, September 16. A few relatives were gathered at the home of the bride's father, Ben Mathews, at Gresham, to witness the occasion. Mr. Johnson has many friends in Portland, where he has resided for some time. After spending a few days in the city Mr. Johnson will make his residence near Wasco, Or., where he is engaged in extensive farming.

Powers-Falling.

A quiet home wedding was that of Miss Mildred Falling and George Powers, both of this city, which took place last Wednesday evening at the falling home at Mount Tabor. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family, by the Rev. E. M. Sharp, of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church. Upon their return from a brief trip to the Sound cities Mr. and Mrs. Powers will reside at their new home, 308 East Fifth street.

Lawhorn-Long.

In the presence of a few friends and relatives in Salem, Or., Tuesday, September 15, George W. Lawhorn, of Portland, and Miss Hilda Hart, of Salem, were married by Judge Busby. Miss Ruby Long acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Brown as groomsmen. After the ceremony the bride party dined at the residence of the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Lawhorn will reside in Portland, their future home.

Ball-Gerulf.

Arthur Ball and Miss Gertrude Gerulf were married Wednesday, September 2, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle, W. H. Colwell, 325 Tenth street. The guests were immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Ball will be at home to their friends in North Portland.

THE Gossard CORSETS "They Lace In Front"

If there ever was a style event, this is one. It concerns the very foundation of style—perfect corseting.

The Gossard Corset—which will be shown and demonstrated in our corset department this week by Mrs. L. C. Redding, an expert corsetiere, is the only corset which induces the new and fashionable habit back and the "hipless" effect so much in vogue.

The front-lacing feature of Gossard Corsets, their ease of adjustment, their hygienic value in supporting the spine—reducing but not restricting the abdomen—giving free play to the vital organs—permitting deep, easy breathing—all commend them to the woman who thinks.

At any rate, Madam, come and participate in this interesting event. No matter how beautiful your figure may be, we will prove how much more beautiful a Gossard Corset will make it. We'll expect you tomorrow.

How I Took My Wrinkles Out.

After Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

BY HARRIETT META.

Trouble, worry and ill-health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success, because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister. I, therefore, bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary, they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment, I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on this subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements, I finally discovered a process which surprised most astounding results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted beyond expression. I tried my treatment again, and lo, and behold, my wrinkles were practically gone. At third treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles, and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate friends, who used it with surprising results, and I have now decided to offer it to the public. Miss Gladys Desmond, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes that it made her wrinkles disappear in one night. Mrs. M. W. Graves, of Bridgeport, Conn., states: "There is not a wrinkle left; my friends say I look 20 years younger. I consider your treatment a godsend to womankind." Mrs. James Harris, of Central City, S. D., writes: "The change is so great that it seems more a work of magic." I will send further particulars to anyone who is interested, absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, facial massage, face steaming or so-called skin foods; there is nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night and go to bed. In the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. Possibilities are endless. It sounds too good to be true. Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery, please address Harriett Meta, 2021 E. Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send you full particulars.
