

SEALS' PROTESTS MAR GOOD GAME

Prove Poor Losers When Portland Takes Fifth Contest of Series.

MOHLER SENT TO BENCH

Henley Is Also Retired by Flynn and Tactics of Entire Visiting Team Arouse Ire of Local Fans.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 4, San Francisco 2; Los Angeles 4, Oakland 3.

By W. J. PETRAIN. By a score of 4 to 3 Portland made it five straight victories over the San Francisco team yesterday, and while the game was fairly snappy at times, it was marred by the continual wrangling tactics of Kid Mohler and his crabby outfit.

The winning run was gleaned off the delivery of Mr. Beck. Ote Johnson was the first man to face the new twirler, and promptly laced a corking single to right garden. Danzig sacrificed neatly, and when Tom Rafferty scored one past Zelder for a single to center, Ote ambled all the way home, despite the attempt of McArdle to block him as he rounded third.

The run was sufficient, for it broke the tie, and Graney was on the spot with the required footers to shove off further scoring on the part of the Seals. While Graney was pitching the ninth inning, Hildebrand, Williams, Berry and Mohler made themselves additionally obnoxious by horseplay that concerned sundry fans, if not the ill-will of most of the fans present.

Official Score of Game. The official score of yesterday's game is as follows: SAN FRANCISCO. AB. R. H. PO. A. E.
