TAFT'S RESPONSE TO OIL SENATOR

Says He Told Roosevelt Doyle Had Worked for Standard Oil.

DOES NOT CLEAR SENATOR

No Justification for Being Standard Lawyer While Senator—Taft Paid Own Railroad Fare and Was Not Richardson's Guest.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Taft made answer to the criticism of himself by Senator Foraker. He had recommended ex-Judge Doyle, a private individual, for appointment as Federal Judge, because of Mr. Doyle's great professional attainments and high character. In doing so, he explained to the President that Mr. Doyle had acted as attorney for the Standard Oil Company and other corporations. The President had chosen to appoint Judge Taylor instead. As to Mr. Foraker, Mr. Taft commented that he "argues that this is a justification for him, while Senator of the United States, in accepting professional employment from the Standard Oil Company and in making what was in effect a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil Company to control an organ of public opinion."

As to the second charge of Mr. Foraker that Mr. Taft rode to Middle Bass in the private car of Mr. Lewis and on the yacht of Commodore Richardson, of the alleged glass trust, Mr. Taft declared that he used a private car which he paid for and that the boat he rode on was that provided by the Middle Bass Club, whose guest he was at that time.

Mr. Taft's statement follows:

Why Doyle Was Turned Down.
First, Senator Foraker says in his statement that I recommended Judge Doyle for a United States Judgeship in Northern Ohio and the President accepted my recommendation, when he knew that he was attorney for the Standard Oil Company, and agrees that this is a justification for him while a Senator of the United States in accepting professional employment from the Standard Oil Company and in making what was, in effect, a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil Company, to control an organ of public opinion. Judge Doyle held no public office and numbered the Standard Oil Company as one of his clients. I told the President that Judge Doyle was a man of high character and a lawyer of great ability and experience and would make a good Judge, but explained what his corporate personal connection had been and the President, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I recollect it, for any reason discernible to Doyle, but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and interfere with his usefulness as a Judge.

No Favors From Lewis.

Second, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle, and Mr. Richardson, whom he denominates as a magnate in the glass trust, as partiality and in a measure justifying my relations with the Standard Oil Company already described. If the facts were exactly as he gives them, I would be content to submit the justice of the parallel to the American people without scruples. I visited Middle Bass as the guest of the Middle Bass Club, as President Harrison, McKinley and Cleveland had done. General Kiefer invited me as the spokesman of the club. Mr. Lewis was present and carried out the bill of the club in making the arrangements.

Paid His Own Way.

I did not travel on Mr. Lewis' car. He tendered it, but I declined it. I hired a special car from St. Louis to Toledo from the Pullman Company for $50 a day and paid them for 15 days to Toledo, Ohio, and 22 days to Toledo, Ohio, and back to St. Louis, together with fares for my family. Mr. Lewis joined with his private car when we were half way to Toledo, and I spoke from his platform at stations because his was the only car that had my own car and used it and paid for it. The Middle Bass Club advised me that it would use my private car from Toledo to Middle Bass and secured for the purpose a powerboat of Mr. Richardson's, who was a member of the Middle Bass Club. I did not know Mr. Richardson or what his business was when I went aboard his boat. I did not know and don't know now that there is a glass trust or Mr. Richardson's relation to it, if it exists. I respected his privacy as tendered on behalf of the club whose guest I was.

Shows Foraker's Extremity.

I am indebted to the members of the Middle Bass Club, numbering over 100, for their hospitality, but the attempt to connect me with the Standard Oil Company and the glass trust—of which I am a member through the Middle Bass Club—is ridiculous and shows the extremity of the author of the statement finds himself.

REGULATE BEDS BY LAW

Traveling Men Demand Legislation Against Short Sheets.

At the third quarterly meeting and smoker of the Oregon and Washington branch of the Travelers' Protective Association, held last night at the Commercial Club, the legislative committee was instructed to frame a bill to be presented at the next Legislature in both states, to compel hotel proprietors to provide proper fire escapes, also to furnish beds with nine-foot sheets. This last measure is of vital importance to its members. Much complaint has been reported from time to time of the inadequacy of this portion of the bedding, tall members frequently being subjected to bodily discomfort, to say nothing of mental distress, thereby.

Arrangements were made at last night's meeting for a banquet to be held in the Commercial Club, December 26. Various members of the association will deliver addresses on that occasion. Chairman Clarke, of the headquarters committee, reported on two locations for a permanent building and sample rooms for the association. His committee was instructed to procure permanent headquarters, full power being given that body to act. About 150 members were present. Willis Fisher presided.
