NO LIGHT SHED ON MURDER. Coroner Holds Inquest Into Killing of Policeman Young.

No light whatever was thrown upon the mysterious murder of Policeman Sam S. Young in a saloon at Sellwood, by the inquest, which was held yesterday afternoon at the undertaking establishment of Dunning, McEntee & Gilbaugh.

The funeral services for the slain officer will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Finley chapel, and interment will be in Riverview Cemetery.

The pallbearers will be selected from the first relief relief of police, of which Policeman Young was a member at the time of his death. It is probable that the entire relief will attend, under command of Captain Buchanan.

The murder is one of the most baffling ever occurring in Portland. The officer was shot down in cold blood by a man who wore a mask, and the evidence that was laid before the jury yesterday consisted of the testimony of the saloon proprietor, his bartender and Police Detective Tom Coleman.

Claremont Owners Petition for Quit Claim Deed. Claremont tavern, a bibulous resort out on the Linton road, which is frequently referred to in divorce papers, stands partly on county land.
