WEDDINGS.

Cormack-Lawson.

James Cormack has returned to Portland after a visit of several months in Scotland, bringing with him his bride, formerly Miss Marguerite Lawson, daughter of the late David Lawson and of Mrs. Lawson, of Carnoustie, Forfarshire, Scotland. The wedding, which was a very pretty one, took place at Panbride United Free Church, Carnoustie, on July 27. Rev. R. E. MacLauchlan and Rev. John Haggie officiating. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. K. K. Baxter and Mrs. D. Dalgleish, of Portland.

The following is from the Dundee Advertiser, of July 28: "Very pretty was the wedding of Miss Rita Lawson, Carnoustie's sweet singer, which event took place yesterday afternoon within Panbride United Free Church, in the presence of a very large gathering of friends and relatives. The church was bedecked with lovely white sprays, while the ladies added to the safety of the occasion by turning out in the best habiliments of Sumner. The bride, dressed in white silk crepe de chene over white taffeta, and carrying an arm bouquet of asters, was attended by Miss Bernice Sears as maid of honor, in pink silk tulle; Miss Frances Newell, the bridesmaid, dressed in white and carried bouquets of pink asters. The groom was attended by Mr. Ralph Wortman, of McMinnville. The guests were received by Mrs. William Garstline, of Amity, sis-
