

Horse Show Main Society Event of Week

Side Shakespeare Club spent a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hare last Monday. The class was re-organized at a previous meeting held at Mrs. La Barr's residence. The members are anticipating a very pleasant year's work with Mrs. La Barr as director, as she spent the past year traveling in the East and comes back fresh with new ideas gained in literary circles there. The work begins with a study of "The Tempest," each member representing one of the characters of the comedy. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Case, corner of Fourteenth and Hall streets, at 7 P. M., Thursday, October 22.

The Jolly Club, composed of members of Orpha Temple, P. S. met Wednesday afternoon, October 14, at the home of Mrs. A. Nolan on Vancouver avenue. After a pleasant afternoon the hostess served a dainty lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Kinsey, in Richmond. Those present were Mrs. George Spencer, Mrs. E. S. Quimby, Mrs. E. H. Morse, Mrs. H. G. Wright, Mrs. W. C. Wheeler, Mrs. C. C. Loocher, Mrs. Charles Olson, Mrs. Anna Baker, Mrs. M. Harold, Mrs. J. E. Erdner, Mrs. C. Kinsey.

Miss Grace Wilton will entertain her Vorsepiel class at her home next Saturday afternoon, October 24. The membership of the class includes the following: Misses Anna Scott, Esther Tallman, Nan Mann, Minna Uhlman, Florence Wuest, Beverly...

No. 2 shows D. E. Frederick of Seattle, driving his blue-ribbon winners, Hazel and Helen. This is a pair of brown mares entered in the class for a pair of trotters to be judged for their conformation, quality, manners and style of going. This class had to have three-minute record to pole. Mr. Frederick obtained much applause when this splendid pair was shown.
No. 3 is F. W. Leabett's prize saddle horse, Beattie L., which was also entered in the ladies' driving class. Beattie L. is a bay mare, over 15 hands high. She was entered in the tandem class, being driven with Monte Christo.
No. 4 is Nan, a first prize pony exhibited by Miss Helen Wadsworth Farrell, and which delighted the children at the Horse Show. Nan stands about 12 hands high and is a beautiful little animal.
No. 5, Iva J., is a beautiful chestnut mare, owned by Ralph H. Jenkins, and was entered in the class for saddlers carrying up to 150 pounds, and also in the ladies' saddle class. She received generous applause from the audience.

evening of October 14, when their daughter, Maud May, and Robert E. Eichenberger were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Shangle, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, assisted by Dr. B. J. Hoadley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The handsome home was artistically decorated with ferns, roses and evergreens. The wedding bell was of white roses. The bride wore an elegant white Duchess satin gown and carried a bouquet of white roses. Misses Helma Kent and Lela Frazier were the bridesmaids, and Messrs. Bruce Shankie and Paine Eichenberger were the groomsmen. After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Eichenberger took the interurban for Walla Walla, where they will make their home.

Marshall-Wood.
The wedding of Miss Mabel Wood and Clifford Fleming Marshall, in the Unitarian Church on Wednesday evening was a beautiful affair. The altar was attractively decorated with palms. The bridal party approached the altar to the inspiring strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, and throughout the service the soft tones of the organ blended with the voice of the minister, Dr. T. L. Elliot. The bride wore a sweeping princess gown of pure white messaline, with the yoke and sleeves of rare princess lace and trimmings of rare pearl-studded lace that has been in the family for generations, and adorned more than one wedding dress. A filmy veil enveloped her, and the bouquet of bride roses she carried, the traditional orange blossoms holding the veil in place.
The maid of honor was Miss Helen Rosenfelt, who wore a beautiful imported gown of pink crepe, heavily embroidered in the same shade. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, and wore an ornament of pink satin in her hair. Miss Vivian Marshall and Miss Evelyn Rigler were the bridesmaids, and wore gowns of white lace over pink silk, with sashes of pink satin falling from the empire back. Each carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The best man was Oliver Walker, and Cyrus Woodworth and Elmer Young were the ushers. Frank Wood, father of the bride, gave his daughter away. Mr. Frank Wood wore a handsome princess gown of apricot messaline, exquisitely trimmed, and Mrs. Rudolph A. Marshall, mother of the groom, was gowned in a beautiful empire dress of lavender messaline.
Miss Vera Hamilton, cousin of the groom, came from Pittsburg, Pa., to be present at the wedding. She wore a dainty blue chiffon over blue silk, and also carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.
An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which only the bridal party and a few relatives and intimate friends were present.

Miller-Kendall.
The wedding of Miss Ethel Winnifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kendall, and Dr. Elmon Miller was celebrated at the Westminster Presbyterian Church on Monday, September 21. The bride wore a gown of white silk messaline, trimmed in old Irish lace, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Hazel Corte, the bridesmaid, was dressed in Nile green silk mull and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Dr. Wiley acted as best man. The ushers were Dr. Tamlesco and J. Brobst.
Just before the ceremony Miss Edith Estes sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Anna Fennick presided at the organ. The wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. After a trip to the Sound Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home to their friends in their apartments on Schuyler street and Union avenue.

Brians-Van Dehey.
At the Church of Visitation, near Forest Grove, a pretty wedding was solemnized Monday, October 12, when Miss Bertha Van Dehey and Mr. Harry Brians, of Salem, were married by Rev. Father Moore, of Salem. The bride, becomingly attired in cream silk and carrying bride's roses, was assisted by her sister, Miss Clara Van Dehey, also in cream net, carrying white carnations. Mr. William Van Dehey, the bride's brother, acted as best man. A reception followed the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was served. Only the immediate family and a few friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Brians left on the afternoon train for a short trip. They will make their home in Salem.

Moore-Crossley.
A wedding of interest was that of Miss Frances Lee Crossley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crossley, of 1053 Vaughn street, to Mr. Amos Moore, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents last night. Miss Rhea Blusser sang a solo prior to the ceremony and Mrs. Carrie Ross presided at the organ. There were 35 guests present and many handsome gifts were received by the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Moore left last night for a honeymoon trip to Puget Sound and on their return will be at home at 1111 Grant street.

Van Vleet-Bristol.
On Wednesday evening, October 14, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Eva Cornelia Bristol, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bristol, of this city, was quietly married in the presence of only the immediate relatives to Mr. Charles W. Van Vleet, of Norwich, N. Y. The bride was becomingly attired in a silver-gray tailored suit, with hat to match. After touring Southern California Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleet will depart for the East, where they will be at home after December 1 in Norwich, N. Y., where Mr. Van Vleet is connected with the Norwich Pharmaceutical Company.

Mattoon-Smith.
A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, of Newberg, Or., on Thursday, October 15, when their daughter, Eva, was united in marriage to Mr. C. Milton Mattoon, of Portland. After the ceremony luncheon was served. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. It was a quiet wedding, with only relatives and im-
