COMING EVENTS.
Portland society is interested in "Tag Day," for the benefit of the Baby Home, October 28. It is a unique way of raising funds. Instead of being a burden to the community, it will be a pleasure to all. Printed tags, bearing these words, "I'm out for charity for the Baby Home," will be issued and sold for the small sum of one cent. Every one will buy one, and possibly more. Any one appearing on the street without a tag on that day will be fined. Los Angeles raised $5000 on its "Tag Day." Spokane raised $3000 on its "Tag Day." Tags will be sold at 10 cents each.

The Sunday "at home" at the Young Women's Christian association has somewhat different programme for this afternoon and one that will prove most pleasant. Miss Anna Docking, a writer from the Middle West, will read a beautiful little story called "The Perfect Tribute." Miss Docking has so keen an appreciation of the delightful in literature and so charming a style that a great deal of pleasure is expected from this half hour's reading. In the "Little Journey" room, Miss Ida May De Witt, of Taylor-Street Methodist Church, will give a short talk on "City Work." The musical programme is as follows: Piano solo, Miss Ethel Edick; vocal solo, Miss Susie Jones; vocal solo, Charles E. C. All women are cordially invited to come for the whole or a part of the afternoon.

The Orlando Club has issued invitations for a Halloween party to be given Monday evening, October 26, in the East Side Woodman Hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. The programme is as follows: The club members are: J. M. Brown, E. C. M. Johnson, J. J. Healy and S. D. Bonner. The patronesses are: Mrs. J. E. Kair, Mrs. L. K. Anderson, Mrs. E. Healy and Mrs. D. A. Bonner. Stiles' orchestra will furnish the music.

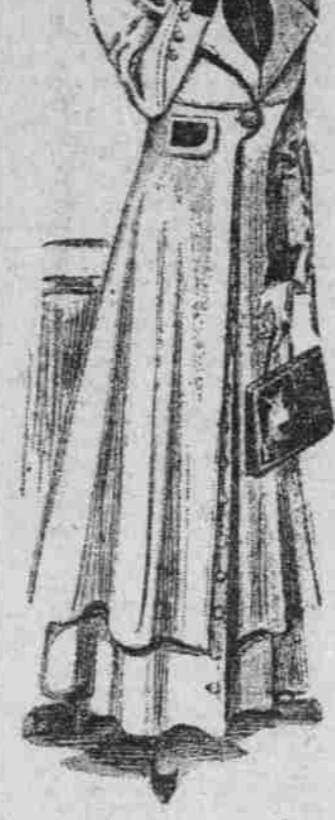

Arrangements have been completed for the first dancing party of the season given by the Mystic Stars of Myrtle Chapter, O. E. S., in the new Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, October 20. The committee is composed of: D. G. Tomasi, Miss Lillie B. Hicks, Mrs. Peter Hobbick, Hugh J. Boyd. The patronesses are: Mrs. Charles E. Runyan, Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. Will H. See, Mrs. Albert M. Brown and Mrs. George Otten.

Company C's opening party to be given in the Armory Monday, October 19, is looked forward to with great pleasure. All arrangements are complete and the invitations have been sent. Mr. Stiles' committee members are: Sergeant F. C. Dirk, Sergeant L. M. Dole, Corporal W. M. McKenzie, Corporal R. E. Bulline, Corporal F. Summerville. The patronesses are: Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Mrs. D. Dole, Mrs. D. N. Smith and Mrs. J. Summerville.

George Wright Relief Corps will hold its next sewing Tuesday, October 20, with Mrs. Worick, Montavilla. Leave car at Marguerite and go south on Taylor. The Corps will tender a reception to Mrs. Helen N. Packard and Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlain, who have returned to Portland after a year's absence. Friday evening, October 23, at 8:30 o'clock, in the G. A. R. Hall, Second and Morrison. Members of other corps are cordially invited to be present.

BE WELL DRESSED
There's immense satisfaction in knowing one is well dressed; that one's outfit is correct from the very foundation to the last small accessory. This satisfaction is experienced by "Style Store" shoppers, because every garment carried is selected with an eye to newness, high quality and individuality. Each customer finds that which especially suits her.

Newest Long Coats
Stunning models, every one of them! The stock covers everything for afternoon, evening and street wear, in Directoire and Empire effects—loose, half-fitting and fitted. Many are strictly tailored, others elaborately trimmed; colors, mixtures and blacks.

We have the Priestley and Canyon Cravenettes, the silk, rubberized and reg. Cravenettes, in loose and fitted styles—most becoming models.

P. & N. Corsets
Our rule of par excellence prevails strikingly in this section. P. & N. corsets can be properly adjusted to your figure and at the same time produce the stylish high-bust, flat-hip effect. Prices $1.50 to $7. For stout figures we especially recommend our $4.50 P. & N. Model.

TAILORED SILK WAISTS—The modish touch is at once apparent in these lovely silks—in ribbon stripes and other fancy designs, richly colored and perfectly tailored for street wear.

OUR BLACK SILK WAISTS are serviceable, well made, well tailored, and of an excellent grade of silk. Price $5.00.

DON'T OVERLOOK GLOVES—The final test of good dressing: Especially notable in this complete section are the Marion, a 2 and 3-clasp glove of guaranteed quality made particularly for us; the Malvolio, a 12 and 16-button glove; and our unusually well-made and shaped gauntlets. All Prices Consistently Low.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Lovely woman continues to hold a conspicuous place in the news reports of the day. While stage folk predominate in current mention, others frequently receive attention. One of these is Miss Mildred Carter, who is on a visit to this country with her father and mother. She is one of the most beautiful young women in the diplomatic set in London and upholds the British tradition of American beauty and cleverness. Her father is secretary of the United States Embassy at London and has been occupying that station for a number of years. He is in line for promotion to a higher diplomatic position. Miss Carter's same has been linked by gossip with those of several titled Englishmen, but her friends believe that she will marry an American when she chooses.

Accompanying is a new photograph of the only daughter of the Kaiser, Princess Victoria Louise. She has been reported to marry numerous Princes, but so far Emperor William thinks she is too young yet. She was born in 1877.

Maxine Elliott is playing an engagement at Daly's Theater, New York. Her offering this season is a new play entitled "Myself-Bettina," by Miss Rachel Crothers, who wrote "The Three of Us." Miss Elliott is shown in the illustration, the character of Bettina, which is introduced into the play at a church entertainment. Miss Elliott was born at Rockland, Me., in 1873. She made her debut with E. S. Willard, in small parts, in 1890, and soon after played leading parts in Rose Coghlan's company, in "Her Own Way," "Her Great Match" and other plays. She has been married twice, her last marriage to Nat Goodwin, in 1898. Mr. Goodwin recently obtained a divorce from her on the ground of desertion. Miss Elliott did not defend the suit.

Gabrielle Ray, of Daly's Theater, is one of the prettiest girls on the English stage. Her great charm is a certain girlish freshness, both of manner and voice, which eight years of stage life has done nothing to diminish. She is one of the best-loved natives of that land. The celebration is held each year at the little crofter's cottage at Smaland, from which, at eight years of age, she used to start on her concert tours. She visits this place once each year and spends some weeks among her old townpeople.

for you?" replied the officer, walking out in front of the desk in order to get a better look at his callers.

HONESTY OF TWO YOUNG BOYS PROVES A SURPRISE TO POLICE
East Side Tots Hasten to Turn Over Money Found on Spot Where Drunken Man Had Taken His Nap.

THIS place they call the police station" piped a small, tremulous voice yesterday afternoon in the big room at second and Oak streets that is used as headquarters by the blue-coated guardians of the public peace. Captain Bailey was behind his desk, poring over the reports of the day and preparing them for the captain, who was to succeed him. Captain Moore, acting chief, was listening to the hard-tongued story of an unfortunate in the chief's office; Clerk Maloney
