Great interest and much curiosity are already being manifested in Portland "Tag Day," Saturday, October 31. Everybody, old and young, is asked to join in an effort to make it a gala day, as well as a financially successful one. The different churches through their pastors and members, business and professional men, city officials, society matrons and maids, boys and girls, are all extending helping hands and

PORTLAND ACADEMY GRADUATE WHO HAS WON HONOR AT OSSINGON-ON-THE-HUDSON

MISS ALICE MAUDE FORBES.

Miss Alice Maude Forbes, a Portland Academy graduate of the class of 1907, and now a member of the senior class in Ossining School for Girls at Ossining-on-the-Hudson, has just been elected to the presidency of the Athletic Association, the highest athletic honor in this school. Miss Forbes is the daughter of Dr. W. O. Forbes, of this city, and the sister of Lulu Dahl Miller, the well-known contralto now studying in New York.

assuring an enthusiastic interest in all sections of the city. Tag Day has been so successful in many cities that the management of the home has determined to try the plan of asking for a little sum from many different people, rather than to ask for larger amounts from a few. Everyone will be asked to buy one tag, at least, for 10 cents, and to wear it for the day.

In many places people have worn a great many, and have had carriages and motors liberally decorated with them. Los Angeles raised in this way $4000; Spokane, $2800; Omaha, $7000; Memphis, $15,000, and Seattle, $13,000. Among the matrons interested are Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Charles Scadding, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. J. W. Ladd, Mrs. E. B. Vincent, Mrs. J. B. Stephens, Mrs. R. R. Giltner, Mrs. H. G. H. Mrs. M. A. Dalton, Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. Dr. Wiggins, Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Mrs. Ballou, Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. Lipton, Mrs. W. H. Boyer, and scores of others, besides many young girls equally well known. Messrs. Baldwin & Downing have given the corner store of the Medical Building for headquarters.

The home of Mrs. J. N. Brown, at 224 Thurman street, was the scene of a large reception Tuesday afternoon, from 2 to 6 o'clock, with Mrs. Lena Ervin Allen as honor guest. Mrs. Allen is president of the Washington State Federation of Women's Clubs and hostess for the State of Washington at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. She was very charming in a gown of violet in one of the newest directorate effects. The hostess was assisted in receiving in the drawing-room by Mrs. A. J. Stiles and Mrs. J. Coulson Haro. Several of the dining-room were Mrs. Mirwin Pugh, Mrs. Stouser and Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, mother of the hostess. Little Isabel Stouser answered the door. About 150 guests attended, among those prominent being Mrs. Lutke, president of the Portland Women's Club; Mrs. Sarah J. Evans, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway. In pleasing contrast to the usual decorations of flowers, Mrs. Brown's home was beautifully decorated in her own hand painting. Every one admired particularly the paneled dining-room, which was done in woodland scenes. The studio also was thrown open to the guests.

Mrs. Allen, who comes from Spokane, was formerly an Oregon girl and is a graduate of the Willamette University. Of late years she has been prominently identified with club work in the State of Washington and is now en route to Seattle, where she will take up the plans for the building for Women's Clubs in that city.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. A. A. Bailey, 1516 Hawthorne avenue. Roll call was responded to by quotations from "Fride and Prejudice." Mrs. A. A. Morrison was the subject of the day's study. Mrs. A. W. Whitmer gave a brief sketch of the life of Jane Austen. Mrs. G. M. Gilman read several of Miss Austen's letters, also extracts from "Persuasion." Mrs. Merwin gave an able resume of "Persuasion." Mrs. William F. Amos read extracts from "Fride and Prejudice." Mrs. W. J. Vincent was elected to membership, and with Mrs. Berger, previously elected, was introduced and given a cordial greeting. Mrs. H. W. Allen, of Spokane, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs of Washington, was a welcome guest and favored the gathering with a very instructive and entertaining talk, telling of the development of club work in her state. The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. Anthony Bateson, 288 1/2 Margin street.

The birthday party given by the Daughters of the Parish at the parish house, of Trinity Church, on Tuesday night, October 20, was a very pleasant, informal affair, more than 75 guests being present. Miss Mary Otto and Miss Frances Stadelman received. Late in the evening very dainty refreshments were served. Miss Ella Brown having charge of same, being assisted by Mrs. M. D. Wisdom, Miss May Cleaver, Miss Margaret Barton and members of the society. Mrs. Williams Merriman and Mrs. Walter Struble served ice cream. The birthday table was very artistic, pink and white being the color effect.

A delightful party was tendered Master John Driscoll at his home, 65 Twenty-second street, North, Monday evening, in which 25 of his young friends took part. Music and games were played and dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Genevieve Coffin, Pauline Hentz, Alice Driscoll, Marion Coffin, Thelma Jennings, Rose Kiesenbahl, Frances McGill, Marie Driscoll, Melvin O'Shea, Aloysius Hyland, Earl Kiesenbahl, Francis Cronin, James Foley, Frances Elvers, Emmett Douglas, John Jennings, Huber Jacobberger, Jack Wright, Francis Jacobberger, Robert Driscoll, Tom Wright, Joseph Elvers, Charlie Jennings, Willie Driscoll and John Driscoll.
