Miscellaneous.

SALE OF BIG MINING PROPERTY.
There will be sold at public auction at Yreka, Cal., by Sheriff's sale for cash upon Thursday, November 19, 1908, large hydraulic mining property owned by the Oregon Gold Mining & Water Power Company. This property consists of about 850 acres of placer mining ground situated about 4 miles below Happy Camp, on the Klamath River, fully equipped with pipe, sluices, flumes and giants, abundance of water and good dump into Klamath River, which is free dump. The debris question does not affect Klamath River. The ground is rich; Eastern owners bankrupt, reason of sale. One of the most promising mining properties in California, will be sold under the hammer. Value of ground established by careful and extensive prospecting. For further particulars inquire Taylor & Tebbe, attorneys, Yreka, Cal.
