EXTENSIVE SHOWING OF THE NEW FURS

Your outfit is not complete for the near-at-hand Oregon Winter unless you have a Fur Garment of the FAMOUS SILVERFIELD MAKE.

The fit of our Fur Garments is perfect, the designs new and appropriate, the skins beautiful, and the workmanship artistic. Dark, natural mink and black lynx are the favorite Furs for peleries, scarfs and muffs.

Our fancy Stoons and Neckpieces of more elaborate design (one of which we illustrate), are the latest things in neckwear, and to go with these we have many new and beautiful Muffs. Ermine, chinchilla, white fox, mink, black and blue fox, brown squirrel and Jap mink are furs especially suitable for such neckwear.

The SILVERFIELD FURS you know are right and just as represented—no matter whether it be one of the most expensive varieties demanded by Fashion's latest dictates or one of the less expensive varieties you want—GO TO A HOUSE WITH A REPUTATION for RELIABILITY and DEPENDABILITY.

Mrs. John Peters on Tuesday at a tea at the former's residence.

Yesterday the Portland Hunt Club gave its first paper chase of the season. The trail was laid by Mrs. F. G. Huffum and Miss Anne Shogren, and the start was made one block east of the Irvington Tennis Club.

Misses Louise, Fanny and Rose Cuddy gave an enjoyable Halloween party last night at their residence, 1523 East Gilliam street, that was attended by about 50 people. An interesting programme of games and music was followed by supper.

Owing to ill health Mrs. Theodore R. Nicolai has gone to Southern California for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wakefield left Friday for San Francisco to attend the wedding of Miss Katherine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Brown, formerly of Portland. Walker, a beautiful and accomplished social favorite here.

Joseph Jefferson and William Jefferson, sons of the late Joseph Jefferson, were the signal for considerable entertaining during their appearance in "The Rivals." Joseph Jefferson was accompanied by his wife, who is also a member of the cast. Mrs. William Jefferson (Miss Christie McDonald) did not come West, but is attracting much attention in New York in the title role of "The Miss Hook of Holland." On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson, giving a small dinner party and a supper later at their residence, which included Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd and Miss Hazel Dolph. On Friday Wells Gilbert gave a luncheon at the Arlington Club for the two Mr. Jeffersons, asking additionally Mr. Morris, of Duluth; W. D. Wheelwright and William Castleman. Mr. Castleman gave a dinner for the Jeffersons on Monday and a luncheon Tuesday at the Golf Club, asking also Mrs. Joseph Jefferson and Miss Ethel Shea. Mrs. Wells Gilbert gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Jefferson Friday.

A pretty dancing party was given Friday evening by the Portland Academy Club, for which the patronesses were Mrs. Theodore B. Wilson, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Zera Snow, Miss Norcross, Mrs. David Loring, Mrs. Edward Cookingham and Mrs. C. H. Carey.

On Friday of last week Mrs. Frank Warren, Sr., gave a luncheon which included Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Mrs. Stolt C. Wilson, Howard Mather, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Charles Scadding, Misses Frances and Grace Warren, Miss Anderson and Miss Bonnie Mead.

Captain and Mrs. Edwards, of San Francisco, and their talented daughter, Miss Eloise Edwards, who some years ago lived here, returned to the Portland Hotel, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, a fortnight's round of dinners and luncheons in their honor.

The engagement of Miss Clementine Barnum to Martin Schmitt, of Spokane, has occasioned many letters of congratulation. Miss Barnum, whose home is at Colfax, Wash., has spent equally as much time here. She has recently returned from a year's trip abroad with her aunt, Mrs. L. Kauffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer and Miss Hazel Blumauer, who leave shortly for Europe, have rented their residence to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Plageman and have taken temporarily apartments at the Portland Hotel, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Blumauer's departure and that of the Fleischers. Mrs. F. S. Gardy gave a party to those who are philanthropically inclined the pond party on Wednesday.

given by the Flower Mission for the benefit of the Day Nursery, was naturally appealing, and the results were therefore most gratifying. The work accomplished by the Flower Mission the past few years has been a source of much admiration.

The Misses Ruby, Frances and Hilda Jacobs entertained Thursday afternoon with five tables of bridge, at which time their younger sister made her debut. In honor of the event, Miss Miriam Jacobs was the recipient of quantities of flowers.

Hotel grill. The "bon voyage" idea was carried out in the decorative scheme, an ocean steamer occupying the center of the table, with her rose garlands extending to each mirrored plate. Present were: Mrs. David Marx, Miss Mae Hirsch, Miss Sybil Lippitt, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Frances Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mears, who for some months resided in Tacoma, have taken apartments at the Hotel Lincoln, Seattle, Mr. Mears having recently accepted a position as manager of the transportation bureau of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

Emilio de Gogorza's concert on Thursday evening at the Hotel under the direction of Lola Steers-Wynn Coman brought out a smart clientele, who were unusually enthusiastic over the favorite baritone, who was in superb voice and whose selections, comprising five languages, were most happily chosen.

EVENTS OF WEEK.

One of the prettiest and most successful of the autumn dancing parties was that given by the Centennial Girls on Wednesday evening at Murlark Hall. About 125 couples were present. Decorations consisted of palms and potted plants. The patronesses were Mrs. J. B. Garretson, Mrs. W. T. Kearns, Mrs. R. Diller, Mrs. A. M. Winters, Mrs. H. Weisler and Mrs. E. Long. The club girls are: Margaret Ruth E. Diller, Lilla T. Winters, Ada M. Matthews and Myrtle E. Long. The next party will be given on New Year's eve. Among those present were: Misses Ruth Lee, Muriel Massey, Minna Wolft, Mabel Woodworth, Olga Bartach Lang, Ethel Johnson, Florence Roberts, Mary Long, Lolla Grange, M. Du Cel, Miss Der Gott, M. Salinas, Miss Sharp, Laura Nell, Minnie Hatfield, Hazel Maynard, Lena Griffith, Peris Bellings, Miss Flahelman, Vernon Gradon, Sue Billings, Margaret Backus, Maud Kolaake, Edna Parsney, Margaret McMorick, Laura Garretson, Miss Stuart, M. Miss Della M. Bradley, reader, was heard in a most successful recital given in the auditorium of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church Friday, October 23. Miss Bradley is a graduate of Columbia College of Expression in Chicago. It was with great interest and pleasure that her audience listened to Miss Bradley on Friday night in this, her first recital in her home town. Miss Bradley's selections showed great versatility; the ever difficult Mrs. Browning was rendered with skill and understanding, and her selection in prose from Robert Barr, given excellently, was listened to with intense interest. In contrast to these heavy selections were her "Character Sketches," which were probably the triumph of the evening. Miss Bradley's programme was made more interesting by her able assistants, Miss Mary Mackenzie Cahill, violinist; Miss M. Margaret Smith, pianist; Mrs. Fred F. Olson, soprano, and Mr. Charles H. Farish, basso. The last two named are well known in Portland musical circles as singers of no mean ability, and were heard with the usual appreciation which they invariably receive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dusham entertained the Saturday Night Five Hundred Club, October 24, at their beautiful home, 237 East Twenty-eighth street, this being the first meeting of the club. Music and "five hundred" were the features of the evening. Present were Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Cable, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Deeming, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McDuffie, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Brice, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. McDuffie, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brandes, Mr. and Mrs. Gremlin. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. Y. Masters and

and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Burridge, Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Toll Thompson, Miss Marion Ramsdell, of St. Paul; Mr. Stetson, Mr. Detwiler, Mr. Moffitt, Miss Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Sister, William Johns, Miss Banfield, Miss Lottie Banfield, Miss Sadie Banfield.

The Jolly Club of Orpha Temple, No. 15, met Wednesday evening, October 27, at the pretty new home of Mrs. Charles Kinsey, in Richmond. Games and music

PORTLAND SINGER WITH FRITZI SCHEFF COMPANY.

Mrs. Lulu Dahl-Miller, a Portland singer, is now a member of the Fritzi Scheff Opera Company, which opened in Chicago three weeks ago in a new opera, "The Prima Donna." Mrs. Miller has sung before a number of artists lately, Madams Fremstad being one of them, who pronounced her voice a rare contralto, and prophesied her all success. After the Chicago engagement is over the troupe goes to New York and plays the remainder of the season. Mrs. Miller gave up a fine church position in New York to accept this engagement. Mrs. Miller was a well-known Portland singer, a pupil of Mrs. Rose Courant Reed, and a member of the Treble Clef Club, also contralto and director of the Westminster Presbyterian Church choir. Her stage name is Evelyn Jackson.
