

Wait Till After Election This Excuse Has Expired

COME IN NOW AND HAVE YOUR TEETH ATTENDED TO BEFORE THE COLD WEATHER STARTS IN

The election was the standard excuse in all lines of business for those who wished to procrastinate. The election is over, the country is safe and sound. Can you say as much for your teeth? If you need any work have it done at once, before the cold winds make your teeth ache, or if you have only a couple of teeth left, we will attach a bridge, without a plate, that is the next best thing to sound, natural teeth. When you must have a plate, we fit you perfectly. We only supply the best work—you will find it the cheapest.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO FESTIVAL DOUBLED

Department Stores Recognize Worth of Annual Feast of Roses.

LETTERS ARE ENCOURAGING

Tell How Fame of Portland Is Spread Through East by June Show and Think Object Is Worthy of Their Support.

As evidence of their appreciation of the value of the advertising powers of the Portland Rose Festival idea, the two leading department stores of this city, the Meier & Frank Company and Olds, Wortman & King, have each doubled their subscriptions to the general fund over that of a year ago. Last year Meier & Frank gave $500 and Olds, Wortman & King, pledged $400. This year the former house has sent in its check for $1000 and the latter establishment will give $500, making a total of $1500 to the fund from the two houses.

annual rose display, when a favorable impression is made that will last for years. Very respectfully yours,
OLDs, WORTMAN & KING,
Per H. C. Wortman.

With this start on the part of the leading retail houses of the city the management of the Festival feels that it will be able to arouse interest in kindred lines to the extent of securing not under $75,000 for the general fund.

Voluntary solicitors have been working quietly among the merchants and other business interests for the past two weeks, and they have been able to secure actual subscriptions and promises which aggregate $20,000 as a nucleus for the fund.

With this much in sight the special soliciting committee will begin work in earnest tomorrow and will continue rounding up the subscriptions until the total amount specified shall have been acquired.

The words of James J. Hill at the North Bank banquet, in which he commented on the fact that no other city in the country could boast of so many rose gardens in full bloom at this time of year, together with the laudatory speech of President Howard Elliott, of the Northern Pacific, in which he said that nowhere in all his travels had he witnessed such a floral display and street pageantry as was given last June, had a most powerful influence on the business men who were gathered at the big celebration.

Every effort will be made through all possible agencies of publicity to secure an attendance of 200,000 out-of-town visitors during the Festival of next year.

NEW OFFICERS ARE NAMED

Judge Munly President of North Albina Improvement Association.

At the annual meeting of the North Albina Improvement Association Friday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, M. G. Munly; Vice-President, W. C. North; Secretary, L. E. Seay; Treasurer, R. E. L. Simmons; members of Executive Committee, W. A. Cadwell, J. F. Sinnott, E. A. McGrath, L. T. Peary and H. A. Heppner. Judge Munly, who was not present, was elected unanimously as were all the other officers. It was the sentiment of the entire membership that he was entitled to all the honors the club has conferred, and a standing vote of thanks was given him.

During the year the main achievement of the organization has been in the promotion of the bridge project for North Portland, and the progress made in that movement has been due to the efforts of the North East Side Improvement Association and to President Munly in particular. There is still much more to be accomplished before the bridge will be built, and the present bridge committee will continue its work. During the coming year the club will take up the question of parks and improvement of street-car service. The North East Side Improvement Association has the same relations to the district north of Sullivan's Gulch that the United East Side Push Clubs has in the section southward.

From one day's observation at five points of greatest vehicle congestion on Manhattan Island it was learned that there are 374 horse-drawn and 57 power-driven vehicles in each 100.

Taft Causes Deal

Important Sale of Seventh- Street Half-Block.

ELECTION RESULT FIGURES

Option Taken by Prominent Democrat Some Weeks Ago Is Consummated When Continued Prosperity Assured Country.

Another big deal in the northern end of the city was closed yesterday, though an optional sale was made some weeks ago. The half block, 30x200, on the west side of Seventh street, between Clatsop and Hoyt streets, was secured by W. G. McPherson and associates through the agency of Jackson & Deering, and the deal names $70,000 as the consideration.

The ground is vacant, but it is understood the new owners will erect a building to suit a desirable tenant, either of brick or reinforced concrete. The Hoyt-street end of the lot is probably the more valuable, but at all events Mr. McPherson was offered $40,000 for that portion of the property as soon as it became known that he and his associates had an option on the place.

Considering valuations placed on similarly located properties in the vicinity, the price at which this sale was made is considered somewhat of a bargain, despite the fact that the three former owners of the half block made quite a handsome profit in their holdings.

Some of Mr. McPherson's personal friends are having a bit of fun at his expense since the deal was closed up, accusing him of holding off until satisfied that Bryan had no chance of election. He takes the chaffing good-naturedly, but insists that, being a good Democrat, he voted his party ticket at the recent election. He appears to be well satisfied to have the deal come through, for he shouldered his gun yesterday and started out on a hunting expedition.

Whatever may be the opinion of Mr. McPherson on the subject, the fact remains that an option was taken on the deal some weeks ago and was promptly closed when the result of the election became known. There is little doubt that a tenant will soon come forward and make a proposition to lease a modern warehouse building or similar structure, in which event another important building will be added to that district of the city.

Speaks Today at Y. M. C. A.

H. Leslie Broadbridge, Authority on Salesmanship, to Give Address.

EDUCATIONAL

H. Leslie Broadbridge, of Boston, Mass., who has gained a reputation as an authority on salesmanship, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting Sunday afternoon. He spoke to a gathering of prominent business men of Portland last week, and was induced to remain in Portland until after today's meeting.

Mr. Broadbridge has devoted years of study to the business of salesmanship. It is his contention that the average man uses but 35 per cent of his power, and that this is accountable for the failure made by many salesmen. He believes that when men recognize that they have such qualities as initiative, imagination, memory and good judgment and the value of these to their employers, they will begin to cultivate their latent powers and thus be in a position to dispose of their ability at a higher price. It is his contention that, regardless of the city or hard times, there never was such a demand by the larger concerns of the country for men of ability. The quality, he says, will determine the price.

Money Talks

Monarch MALLEABLE

The 'Stay Satisfactory' Range.

Each dealer who has a range to sell claims to have the only one you should buy because—his reasons would fill a page. Now, if they all claim to have the best range it must be that some one is right and all the rest are wrong. How can you tell? Just try this TEST:

Go into any store where there are ranges for sale, tell the dealer you have one of his make which you have used for several years. Say you wish to dispose of it, and ask him what he will give you for it. His answer will indicate at once what he thinks his range will be worth after use.

Try this test at our store. It will prove to you at least that we are willing to back up our goods with our money. The answer at our store is: If you have a Monarch Malleable Range we will give you thirty dollars for it.

THE REASON WHY we will give $30 is that a Monarch is worth more than that, no matter how long you have used it. Other dealers cannot do this because their ranges are not worth so much after they have been used.
