

WHITMAN WINS GAME BY 11 TO 5

Outweighs Whitman College Opponents, but Possesses No More Skill.

CLEVER PLAYING SHOWN

Whitman Secures First Touch-down in Eight Minutes, but Is Worn Out in First Half and Local Team Wins Out.

BY W. J. VETRAIN.

In what is thought to be the best football game of the present season, the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club eleven yesterday succeeded in winning a hard-fought game from the Whitman College team by the score of 11 to 5.

The clever and agile players representing the college at Walls Walla, who can play the best football ever witnessed on Multnomah Field, and despite the fact that they were outweighed several pounds to the man, the team played football of the kind that caused even the most hard-bounded cynic to sit up and take notice. It was a splendid exhibition, but Multnomah won by pure luck as well as by possessing the heavier and stronger line on defense. The collegians played the game as only a college team can, and Coach Blanchard may well be proud of the excellent football machine he has turned out at Walls Walla.

After witnessing the Whitman offense and playing plays yesterday, one can readily understand how the little players wearing the blue jerseys adorned with a golden "W" defeated the classy University of Idaho team. Captain Short and the balance of the "Multnomah" squad need not feel in the least disappointed at suffering defeat yesterday, for their exhibition at football earned them the hearty sympathy and praise of the entire gathering on Multnomah Field. Whitman possesses a team that is a credit to the institution, and should be remembered as one of the best college football machines turned out in the Northwest in years.

Multnomah Kicks Off.

The game started with Multnomah kicking off to Whitman. Brainard returning the ball advantageously. A series of ends kicks and forward passes netted Whitman yardage on several downs before Multnomah held and forced a kick. The winged "M" players then advanced the ball cleverly, until Bennett broke through and stopped Stott for a loss, which forced a punt from Brainard from Multnomah's 30-yard line. Martin caught the ball and dashed down the field, successfully dodging the entire Multnomah team and was only stopped by Smeason, who overtook him and tackled the runner from behind.

The ball flew out of Martin's hands, but he recovered himself in time to dash over the Multnomah line ahead of the home players and fell on the ball, giving Whitman a touchdown after eight minutes of play. Whitman failed to negotiate the goal and the score read 6 to 0 in favor of the collegians.

Multnomah Takes Brace.

Three times after this score Whitman succeeded in advancing the ball well into Multnomah territory, only to lose it on downs when almost on top of the collegians' goal, or to be forced to try a goal from placement which missed the posts. The first half of the game ended with the score still in favor of the Whitman boys.

Multnomah Takes Brace.

The 15-minute recess seemed to work advantageously for Multnomah, for the collegians came back stronger and fresher than did the collegians. The hard knocks sustained by the Whitman lads when they were stopped repeatedly by Dow Walker, Bert Pilkington, Jack Oswald and Slaker, the hard-playing Multnomah heavyweights, proved more than they could endure, and on that account the onslaughts of Captain Borwick, Martin, Cushman and the two quarterbacks, Brainard and Schmidt, slackened materially in aggressiveness.

The speed of Smithson and Pilkington, together with the blocking of Rader, Slaker, Oswald, Knudsen and Stett, gave Multnomah an advantage in yardage gained that soon brought the ball to within a few yards of the Whitman goal. With the ball on the Multnomah 15-yard line, Captain Stott signaled for Slaker to carry the ball, and the big fellow, literally pummeled over by Pilkington, carried the ball across the line for Multnomah's first score. Captain Stett missed the goal and the score was a tie at 5 all.

Rader Does Good Punting.

In this punting game, Dr. Rader executed for Multnomah, and easily excelled the Whitman kickers. However, Quarterback Schmidt carried the ball much more advantageously for the Multnomah than any players who attempted to punt before he assumed the task.

An inside kick by Whitman was recovered by Smithson, who returned the ball only a few yards before he was downed. Pilkington got away for an end run that saw the collegians yardage on the first down, and on the next play, Dow Walker hurried through the Whitman line for a gain of 30 yards, which showed the skill of Whitman's team and line. Slaker was called upon to carry the ball on the next down, and the giant back started an irresistible rush through the visitors' line which entered him over the goal-line with yards to spare. Captain Stett then kicked the goal and the score read Multnomah 11, Whitman 5.

Tewanina First Across Line in Cross-Country Run.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—The Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., badly defeated the University of Pennsylvania, in the cross-country run in Fairmount Park this morning. The first three to finish were Indians. Tewanina, who won distinction by finishing ninth in the Marathon race in London last Summer, was the first man across the line. His time for the five and five-eighths miles was 31:45.

players was easily on a par with the best performance of the Multnomah players. In addition to the mention extended the Multnomah stars Frank Callahan, the little fellow who officiated at center for the collegians, must not be overlooked. As a matter of fact Callahan was one of the stars of the day, for he frequently broke through the Whitman interference and nailed his man before the other members of his team could get into action. His passing of the ball was also all that could be asked of the most experienced center.

The next big game in Portland will be the University of Oregon-Oregon Agricultural College annual struggle, which is to be played on Multnomah field next Saturday afternoon. The club eleven will rest up from now until Thanksgiving day, when they meet Oregon in the next game. The line-up yesterday was as follows:

Summary—Touchdowns, Slaker 2, Martin 1, goal from touchdown, Stott 1, final score, Multnomah 11, Whitman 5. Officials—Referee, John C. Bender, umpire, Hugh J. Boyd, head linesman, Jack Smeason, time-keeper, Frank E. Watkins and R. E. L. Ringer.

COLUMBIA BEATS RANGERS

WINS SOCCER GAME BY SCORE OF 4 TO 1.

Shows Better Teamwork and Is More Successful in Defending Goal Against Rushes.

The Columbia soccer football team won a close match from the Rangers team yesterday afternoon at the baseball grounds at Twenty-fourth and Taylor streets by the score of 4 to 1. Columbia showed the better team work and was more successful in defending her goal when the Rangers were in position to score, while the Rangers is due. Both sides fought hard for the match and it was not until the whistle had blown ending the game that it was definitely decided in Columbia's favor.

The first half was exciting, for the ball traveled from one end of the field to the other and some lively scrimmages were witnessed to the amusement of the spectators on the side lines. Dr. Short time and again booted the ball far back into the Rangers' territory when his side was threatened with being scored upon and it is undoubtedly due to his strong right foot that more failures were registered against Columbia. Every player seemed to be in the play for all he was worth, and some rare treats were afforded the spectators in the way of clever passing and dribbling. Dean and Kilpack for the Rangers, were the ones to elicit the most applause among the lookers, while Chellis, Young and Dr. Short were the stars on the victorious team. Two goals were scored by Columbia in the first half, before the Rangers were able to drive the ball past Hartling for their first and only tally. At 3:41 Chellis registered the first point and Young followed with another in five minutes. At 5:20 Kilpack kicked the only goal made by the Rangers, and the half ended with the score 2-1.

The Columbia team played a better defensive game in the second half and was on the aggressive most of the time. Two more points were made in this period, the first at 4:35 by Young and the second at 4:55 by the same player. Deмент as referee was capable and impartial, and but two fouls were called on each team.

The lineup was as follows: Columbia—Hayling, goal; Dr. Short and Clark, backs; Deмент, Maki and Honeyman, halves; Barron, Young, Hart and Honeyman, forwards. Rangers—Hutchinson, goal; Keith and Kilpack, backs; Deмент, Douglas and Kye, forwards. Officials—Deмент, Jameson, Mathew and Kye.

A curious insect has arrived from Brazil at the South Kensington Museum, in London. It is a beetle, 2 1/2 lines long, 1 1/2 lines wide, and it glows with a green light from each side of the little creature. These beetles have earned the name of the "glowing beetle."

OREGON CRUSHED BY WASHINGTON

Seattle Eleven Defeats Eugene Varsity First Time in Five Years.

THREE TOUCH-DOWNS WIN

Oregonians Are Never Within Striking Distance of Goal—Clark's Punting Saves Team From Even Worse Defeat.

SCORES IN FOOTBALL GAMES IN NORTHWEST YESTERDAY.

At Eugene—Washington 15; Oregon 0. At Portland—Multnomah 11; Whitman 5. At Albany—Albany 10; Monmouth 6. At Astoria—Astoria 12; Portland Academy 6.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 10.—(Special).—For the first time in five years Washington today demonstrated her superiority over Oregon's football men by winning the annual game by a score of 15 to 0.

The game was hard fought, but not sensational. It was straight, hard football and the great weight and experience of the Washington men enabled them to confine the play to their opponents' territory during the greater portion of the two 25-minute halves. Six times during the course of the game Clark, the big Oregon fullback, was compelled to punt from behind his own goal line and his long spirals unquestionably saved Oregon from a worse defeat.

Clark's Punt Average 45 Yards.

Washington's line was so heavy that the Oregon back could not pierce it for yardage, so a punting game was resorted to. Clark punted 10 times for an average of 45 yards. Eakin, of Washington, was also pressed into service as a punter and his work was almost as effective as that of Clark. Coyle, Washington quarterback and safety full, showed great form in running in punts, outlasting Oregon in this department of the game.

The bright, particular star of the day, however, was Pinkham, Oregon's left tackle. He was into every play that was directed toward his wing of the defensive line, and time after time broke through the Washington forwards and intercepted the runners with the ball. Pinkham's work was such a high order that he received a great ovation from the Oregon rooters when he was taken out of the game shortly before the end of the last half. Dodson, substitute and left end, who played today in Michaels' regular position, was another star, as was Klitz on the other end of the line.

Never Within Striking Distance.

Clark, aside from his punting, played a remarkable game, especially on defense, and Newton, the big freshman guard, distinguished himself. Quarterback Chandler did effective work in running in punts and the tackling of Maki and Hurd, of Oregon, was sensational.

Not once during the entire 70 minutes of play did Oregon have the ball near enough to Washington's goal line to try for a place kick. Quarterback Chandler attempted two place kicks and one drop kick, all of which fell short and were run in by Chandler for good gains. There was no scoring during the first half, although Oregon was fighting desperately in the shadow of her goal posts most of the time.

In the second half, Washington started out with a rush and smashed the Oregon line for substantial gains. Habcock made a number of hard smashes against Oregon's line, and the ball was finally landed on Oregon's three-yard line. After three attempts that met with Oregon's desperate defense, Muckelstone carried the ball over for a touchdown, but Eakin missed the goal.

Grim Goes 30 Yards for Touchdown.

Five minutes later Coyle made a forward pass to Grim, Washington's left end, who got away for a 30-yard run and touchdown. Eakin again missed the goal. At this juncture, Washington got her offensive play working for the first time and ripped Washington's line up for a number of hard gains. Clark carried the ball through center and Klitz going around the end for a 30-yard run. Oregon also used the forward pass with good results. A perfect storm gave Washington the ball on Oregon's two-yard line, from which place Muckelstone carried it over after two plays. Eakin again missed the goal. Dabcock, Coyle and Muckelstone were the stars of the Washington team, although Captain Tegmeier, at center, did some good work. Dr. Short, however, was the man who did the most damage to Oregon. He was certain of gain every time he carried the ball.

Penalties Are Frequent.

Penalties were frequent, Oregon suffering more than the visitors. There was no wrangling of the officials, and there was no wrangling on the field. The game was witnessed by 3000 people, and the enthusiasm displayed by the Oregon rooters in the face of certain defeat was most creditable. There were no injuries to either line-up, but Coach Ferguson in a number of substitute late in the game. The line-up:

Oregon: Dodson, L. E. R.; Pinkham, R. H.; Clark, R. H.; Young, G. B.; Deмент, J. G. B.; Honeyman, H. G. B.; Barron, H. G. B.; Kye, H. G. B.; Hutchinson, R. G. B.; Keith, H. G. B.; Kilpack, H. G. B.; Douglas, H. G. B.; Mathew, H. G. B.; Kye, H. G. B. Washington: Tegmeier, C. H.; Habcock, H. G. B.; Coyle, H. G. B.; Klitz, H. G. B.; Muckelstone, H. G. B.; Eakin, H. G. B.; Grim, H. G. B.; Dodson, H. G. B.; Young, H. G. B.; Deмент, H. G. B.; Honeyman, H. G. B.; Barron, H. G. B.; Kye, H. G. B.; Hutchinson, H. G. B.; Keith, H. G. B.; Kilpack, H. G. B.; Douglas, H. G. B.; Mathew, H. G. B.; Kye, H. G. B.

Albany missed both goals in the second half honors were even, with no score.

Royal Tourist closed up much ground after the poor start he received, and was fourth.
