BERKELEY TAKES ITS FIFTH DEFEAT

Stanford Team Outplays Varsity Eleven in Desperate Game.

HOLMAN IN STAR PLAYS

Portland Boy Does Brilliant Work. Immense Crowd Witnesses Struggle, Which Cardinals Win, 12 to 3.

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 14.—For the fifth consecutive time the football team of Stanford University has defeated the University of California players, the score today being 12 to 3.

In almost every department of the Rugby game the Cardinal men outplayed their opponents and throughout the struggle was a desperate one on the part of an inferior team against a better one.

California's lone score was made in the first half. Stanford here scored six of her points also, adding the other six in the second portion. Mitchell, Pemberton, Holman and Miller made Stanford's four tries, Crawford missing every goal. Cerf made the California score, Harris missing goal.

Immense Crowd Sees Game.

The crowd was probably the largest that ever witnessed a game between the rival universities, being estimated at 20,000. The opposing bleachers were brilliant with dashes of the rival colors—cardinals to the west and blue and gold to the east. Some time before the game the Berkeley rooters displayed a huge bear made entirely of yellow chrysanthemums. On the Stanford side was hung out a 30-foot banner on which was the scores of the games in the last five years and beneath the legend "Oh, Berkeley, ain't it awful."

The rooting was quite as noisy as ever and for the most part the songs and yells of former years were retained, California for the first time abandoning her Yale importation, "Boola." Under the impulse of the students' rythmic swaying during their songs the Stanford bleachers trembled considerably during the first half and 200 of the fainter hearted left at the end of the half. There was never any danger, however, as an examination of the supports at the end of the game showed them to be as firm as ever.

Rushes Prove Too Much.

Despite the gritty work of the California men they found themselves gradually worn out by their opponents, until at the end they were altogether unable to withstand the determined Cardinal rushes. The superior weight in the Stanford scrum told constantly against the California 15 and especially in the latter part of the second half. Stanford's passing was immensely superior to that of California and her forwards did better work in dribbling. The kicking of the two teams was about equal. Stanford heeled out of scrum more times than California.

Crawford, Faulkner, Mitchell and Holman stood out as the brightest stars of the Cardinal constellation. Crawford's kicking being excellent except after the four tries. Phleger and Dwiggins played strong games for California, the latter breaking up passing advances at several stages of the game.

In the first half Butler kicked off for California and after a succession of kicks tried for a field goal from the 40-yard line, missing by a small margin. A long passing rally by Stanford brought the ball to California's 30-yard line, where it was stopped by Dwiggins. Mitchell secured the ball from scrum, dodged in Dwiggins and hurdled Butler, crossing California's line for the first try, Crawford missing an easy goal. Stanford 3, California 0.

Brilliant Passing Rally.

Dwiggins, Swartz, Cerf and Phleger carried the ball for California in several plays to Stanford's ten-yard line but Erb kicked to touch at California's 20-yard line. Watts kicked to Stanford's five-yard line. Sorensen, Markwart and Cerf in a brilliant passing rally carried the ball over for California's only try. Harris missed goal. Stanford 6, California 3.

Near the beginning of the second half California dribbled to Stanford's four-yard line, but the ball was returned to center.

Twice within the next few minutes California dribbled across the Stanford line, but in each case Cadwallader fell on the ball and prevented a try. After the last of California's two failures the ball was returned into touch at her 30-yard line. Crawford carried it ten yards further, after which Holman was passed the ball by Erb from scrum and ran 20 yards to a try. Crawford missed goal. Stanford 9, California 3.

Misses Goal Again.

After a 30-yard dribbling rush Miller got the ball on California's five-yard line and crossed for the fourth try. Crawford again missing goal. Stanford 12, California 3.

The line-up:

Stanford—Forwards, Koerner, Terrill, Crawford, Dole, Pemberton, Miller, Cheda and Evans; wing forward, Heinley, Miller; half, Erb; five-eighths, Ganong and Miller; three quarters, Cadwallader, Scott and Holman; full, Faulkner.

California—Forwards, Phleger, Markwart, Barnicott, Rudelman, Freeman, Pauly, Sorenson and Neil Harris; wing forward, Swartz; half, Dwiggins; five-eighths, Cerf and Elliott; three quarters, Webster Harris, Watts and Johns; full, Butler.

Referee—Jenkinson of Vancouver.

SEATTLE PROVES WINNER

GETS FINE TROPHY IN PLAY AGAINST BOGIE.

Each Player on Team Has Small Trophy—Waverly Club Beaten by Only Two Points.

The team of eight players from the Seattle Golf Club won the handsome silver trophy and the eight individual silver cups in the Bogie match held yesterday afternoon on the Waverly Golf Club links, defeating the Waverly Club players by just two points. In both the morning and afternoon play the Seattle players finished in front of the three contesting teams, but it was not until the final score of the Waverly Club players was turned in that the play was decided. Spokane sent only two men to the game, while Tacoma and Victoria sent eight men each.

The contest was against Colonel Bogie at 84, and before play started all of the golfers thought the Colonel would be easy to beat. When it came to going over the 18 holes, the scores turned told a different story. Blowing across the links was a stiff, chilly wind from the East, which made the driving uncertain and putting as difficult as getting rich quick. The day was so raw that those who journeyed to the links to watch the play remained in the clubhouse and only a few of the players were accompanied by a gallery.

Out of the 26 players who took part in the contest, J. E. Young, of the Waverly Golf Club team, was the only one to defeat Colonel Bogie, and he finished the afternoon round with two up. Mr. Young had the Colonel beaten four up, but he missed the last hole. The golfers from Seattle played steadier golf than the rest of the teams and at the end finished with a score of 108, with the Waverly team just two points behind, with 110. The winning team was comprised of Munn, Spooner, Lippy, Van Tuyle, Gillison, Andrews, Lindsay and Kerry. Mr. Lippy's score during the rounds played in the morning was best. He finished with one down, while in the afternoon Mr. Gillison kept well to his game and finished both rounds with two down. All of the Seattle team improved in their afternoon play.

The other teams that played with the scores they made were: Waverly Golf Club—Macleay, Linthicum, Young, Wright, Voorhies, Kerr, Zan and Honeyman. Score, 110. Victoria—Sterling, Gillispie, Twigge, Waghnon, Goward, Crease, Birch and Johnston. Score, 122. Mr. McCollough and Mr. Lathrop were the only players from Spokane.

The winning team will keep possession of the cup until next year, and it does not become the property of the club winning it until it has been won three times. Each year, however, individual cups are given to the winning members of the team. After the match a splendid dinner was served at the clubhouse. The large dining-room was handsomely decorated and the table on which the dinner was served represented a golf links, in the center of which was a miniature model of the Waverly Golf Club house. Scattered over the links were miniature figures of men and women playing golf and the caddies. H. C. Bowers planned the decorations, and the whole scheme was pretty and realistic.

PARIS ENJOYING PUGILISM

International Boxing Tournament Ends in Californian's Victory.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—A vast crowd filled Montmate Hippodrome tonight on the occasion of the inauguration of a series of international boxing matches. The star attraction was a 20-round bout between Sam McVey, of California, and Herbert Sinnott, of Australia. The bout went only five rounds, McVey having all the better of it, and knocking out his man before the bell rang in the fifth.

Jim Stayles, of England, knocked out Bill Chester, of South Africa, in the third round, and Jimmy Caine, of America, defeated Kid Davis, the lightweight champion of France, in 10 rounds.

At Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 14.—Latonia race results:

Five and a half furlongs—Light Blue won, The Peer second, Enfield third; time, 1:09 4-5.

Mile and 70 yards—Apt won, Judge Treen second, Donna H. third; time, 1:50 4-5.

Mile and 70 yards—Orlando won, Canopian second, Banrida third; time, 1:50 1-5.

Six furlongs—Aimee C. won, Deuce second, Cloisteress third; time, 1:16 3-5.

Fifth race, mile and 70 yards—George Bailey won, Mystifier second, Lady Vie third; time, 1:49 4-5.

Form Athletic Association.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—A Clark County Athletic Association has been formed, with City Superintendent Barnes, of Camas, president; vice-presidents, Jay V. Fike, E. B. Hill, Frederick Sweckert, B. W. Shaffer and J. W. Witheral; secretary, R. R. Stewart. The object of the association is to develop athletics among the county schools. Meets will be arranged between the graded schools and the High School, and in the Spring a grand meet of all the schools will be held on the athletic field of the Vancouver High School.

ELEVEN OF OUR BEST BARGAINS

Selected From Our List of Over 1000 Propositions—We Will Guarantee Any of These to Net the Purchaser an Immediate Increase in Value—Besides, Most of Them Pay a Handsome Interest on the Investment.

A Chance to Make $45,000 On a 350-Acre Walnut Proposition.

300 acres of this land is in cultivation and lies just rolling enough to make an ideal walnut or fruit farm; the soil is rich valley land, good for all kinds of farming, besides being walnut and fruit land. Located ½ mile from the City of Yamhill and railroad station; the Bishop Scott Academy farm joins the tract. The fact that the land is now under cultivation makes it absolutely the best walnut-platting farm in the Valley, as the price of clearing ordinary land will pay for setting out and caring for walnuts several years. The land will now easily sell for $100 an acre if divided into 40-acre tracts, and as an acreage proposition will bring as much as any tract now on the market on account of its convenience and quality. Similar walnut land in this neighborhood less than a mile from this tract is now being promoted and sold at $300 to $600 per acre. I will take an interest in this myself with desirable parties. Price $65 per acre.

Highly Improved Farm Near the Hillsboro Electric Line.

50 acres of the finest level bottom land; rich loam soil all in high state of cultivation; one mile from electric line; improvements all the very best; good 10-room house; 2 good barns; windmill, water tank, etc. One acre family orchard. Place all fenced and cross-fenced with good board fence. This is one of the best improved farms in the Valley, and the soil cannot be beat anywhere. Price $7500.

To Trade for House and Lot—160-Acre Farm.

160-acre farm, with 30 acres in cultivation, 100 acres of fine pasture, balance timber; 11 fine cows, 1 Jersey bull, 12 head of hogs, 1 span of good horses, 150 chickens; plenty of hay and grain and all farm implements and tools. Telephone in house and R. F. D. past the door. Price $6000.

To Trade for House and Lot in Portland—80 Acres Near Woodburn, Oregon.

80 acres with about 55 acres under plow, 15 acres slashed off and in pasture, balance in good wood timber; 4-room plastered house; 2 old barns; soil good black loam; nice living water; good team and harness, wagon, buggy, harrow and many small tools, implements, etc.; 8 cows, 3 heifers coming fresh, 60 chickens, 5 hogs, good silo and about 38 tons of hay.
