

GLIMPSE AT GIRL WHO IS SOON TO BE COUNTRY'S FOREMOST DEBUTANTE

Attractive and Unaffected, She Is Favorite With Companions, and Society Is Eager to Welcome Her at Debut Ball During Holidays.

MISS ROOSEVELT.

BY NANCY.
(Copyright, 1908, by M. J. Main Jones.)
UNDOUBTEDLY the most interesting figure in the social life of the National Capital this season is Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt, second daughter of the President. Although just past her 17th birthday and in many ways still having the naivete of a genuine girl, Miss Roosevelt will make her bow to society, a thoroughly finished and attractive debut, at a debut ball to be given at the White House during the Christmas holidays.

While the formal announcement at the White House in October that Mrs. Roosevelt is to give a small dance on Monday evening, December 23, for Miss Roosevelt, did not contain the information that this is to be the debut ball of the President's daughter, yet society is accepting this date as the probable time. An affair of this character at the Executive Mansion does not mean entirely what the term "small dance" ordinarily implies. The guest list includes several hundred, and it is well understood that Miss Roosevelt will have the entire younger set of Washington with a number of out-of-town visitors from New York and other cities. The ball will be given in the East room. The Marine Band Orchestra will furnish music. The event will be followed by a series of smart functions, dinners, other dances, luncheons, and everything of the kind that contributes to the happiness of a debutante's first season.

An Irresistible Sale of ORIENTAL RUGS

3500 choice Persian Rugs, representing all the different makes and sizes of the best grades, of the Oriental fabrics, carefully selected by a member of the firm, who has been traveling in Turkey for the last 6 months.

Offered at Remarkably Low Prices That Will Puzzle the Trade

Our reason for this sale is the enormous purchase made by Mr. George Atiyeh, now in Constantinople. Conditions in Turkey are such as might have been met in a border state during the Civil War. So, while we were gathering fine rugs for regular business, we obtained them at prices that will set the town agog! Our store has always been the Mecca for wise and prudent rug-buyers—buyers of high-grade Oriental Rugs—and now conditions are such that it is a rare opportunity to obtain finer rugs at very much less than regular values. Sale is going on now, and will continue from week to week until our stock is sufficiently reduced.
