

ARMY CONQUERS NAVY'S ELEVEN

Great Football Battle Between West Point and Annapolis.

LANGE'S SENSATIONAL RUN

Losing Ball on Fumble, He Over-takes Chamberlain, but Army Retains Ball—All Scoring Is Done in First Half.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—In one of the greatest football games seen on Franklin Field this year, the Army vanquished the Navy this afternoon by a score of 6 to 4, a touchdown and a goal against a goal from the field.

Thirty thousand persons saw the husky cadets conquer the sturdy midshipmen in a contest that never lagged. That the Navy boys were surprised at the unexpected strength of the Army is putting it mildly—they were fairly overwhelmed with the power shown by the cadets. The Annapolis boys entered the game practically sure of victory, while the cadets only hoped to win.

The Army's victory, notwithstanding the strength shown, was due more to a misjudged punt by one of the Navy's backs than to the good work of the teams. But it took advantage of the misplay and lost no opportunity in making the score. The Navy's four points, however, were earned by hard and constant playing.

Teams Evenly Matched.

The teams were as evenly matched as it was possible to make them. The defensive playing of both was all that could be desired, so powerful in fact, that neither team could make much impression on its opponent's line, and in consequence they both played a kicking game. There was more punting in today's game than had been seen on Franklin Field this season. As was the case with the big college games for the year, the contest brought out little that was new. Two forward passes and two on-side kicks were the only so-called modern plays attempted and of these only one forward pass by the Navy was successful.

Many Distinguished Spectators.

The day was ideal for football and a brilliant crowd was out to see the fray. On the south stand, the Army side, Secretary of War Wright entertained a large party, while directly opposite, on the Navy side, Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry had a large number of guests. Prominent in Mr. Wright's box were Representative and Mrs. Longworth, Assistant Secretary of War Oliver and his wife, and a party from the box adjoining that of Mr. Wright. Miss Ebel Roosevelt sat next her father with the Navy, and had a seat in the enclosure reserved for Mr. and Mrs. Newberry. Among others in this box were Mrs. Metcalf, wife of the retiring Secretary of the Navy, and a number of friends. To their right was the box of Admiral Dewey.

Lange Repairs His Blunder.

All the scoring was done in the early part of the first half. The Army kicked off and the Navy returned the ball after one scrimmage. The West Point boys then tried the line for no gain, and the game was again a little quarter-back game across the field at great speed to catch the punt and to the dismay of the midshipmen, he overtook the Navy's quarterback, and a flash, Chamberlain for the Army, who had ducked down the field to tackle Lange, picked up the bounding ball, tucked it under his arm and ran away for the goal line. There was no one near him except Lange and a touchdown looked good. But Lange quickly got up steam and in a stern charge the quarterback gained on him and just as Chamberlain was crossing the ten-yard line, Lange caught him and brought him down hard on the five-yard line.

Army Kicks Goal.

The teams lined up for a supreme effort. Dean was given the ball and plunged into the fray, leaving only a few inches between the ball and a touchdown. He was again frustrated with the pigskin in the time he was running across for the score. Dean also kicked the goal which was difficult.

The spirited playing of the Army did not dismay the Navy, however, and it went at West Point with the greatest of confidence. Securing the ball on an exchange of kicks, it worked by good back-kicking to the Army's 25-yard line, where the ball was rumbled by Clay and lost. The Army immediately pointed out of danger, but the Navy came back with the schilling of offense. Overcoming the ball was carried forward by Lange, who ran 20 yards, by Clay and more often by Richardson, until it was within the five-yard line. Here the Army traced and, having four yards to gain to make the first down, the Navy decided to try a field goal, which proved easy for Lange from the 15-yard line. During the remainder of the half little was accomplished by either team, though both played hard to get within striking distance of the opponent's goal.

Navy on Defensive.

In the first half of the second period of play the ball was always in the Navy territory. Annapolis would try the line and then kick to midfield. West Point would also try to advance the ball by line plunging and then return the kick. Finally the Army lost the ball on an on-side kick, Lange making a pretty scoop and run of 15 yards to get within striking distance to kick a field goal and top the West Point score but the Army continued to take the ball away from danger. Thus the first half continued until Field Judge Mar-

JEFFRIES BACKS WELCH

Offers to Pit Englishman Against Battling Nelson.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—James J. Jeffries is determined to pit the best 132-pounder he can secure against Freddie Welch at his next show and has already taken steps to close the match. Jeff today wired Battling Nelson asking if he would meet the little Englishman in a 15-round battle, a $5000 bet accompanying match. At the same time he wired Paucy McFarland offering him the same match. Nelson received the message with pleasure. "Well, it looks good, said Pat, but I must say no. I have my book to finish and cannot stop now. If Freddie is still a card out West in February, I will be only too pleased to sign."

COACH DOBIE PICKS ELEVEN

Seven Men From Washington, but None From Oregon.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Both Coach Gilmore Dobie, of the University of Washington, and E. C. Norcross, of the Oregon Agricultural College, have picked All-Northwest teams and five men were selected by both coaches. Dobie did not give a University of Oregon man a place, but Norcross picked both Clarke and Moulten.

The following is Dobie's selection: First team, Washington, right end; Bantz, Washington, left tackle; Halm, Washington State, left guard; Cherry, Washington State, center; Makin, Washington, right guard; Jamison, O. A. C., right tackle; McQuillen, Whitworth, right end; Coyle, Washington, quarter-back; Muckelstone, Washington, right half; Horstke, Whitman, left half; and captain; Wolff, O. A. C., fullback.

NEWBERG TEAM BADLY BEATEN

Multnomah Defeats Pacific College by Score of 42 to 8.

The Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club basketball team defeated the Pacific College five from Newberg last night by the one-sided score of 42 to 8. The Newberg lads were apparently affected by their hard game against the Y. M. C. A. Friday and showed very little class. Barton, for Multnomah, distinguished himself by tossing two baskets from the center of the floor, the work of Denat forward was surprisingly good. His snap and vigor were the features of the contest, and he tossed 12 out of the 14 fouls allowed Multnomah.

WINNERS IN ENGLISH RACES

Maher Heads Jockeys and Joel Wins Most Races.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The flat racing season came to an end this afternoon with the American jockey, Danny Maher, heading the list of winning jockeys. He had scored a total of 139 firsts, including the last race in which he rode. Wooten was second with 129 firsts.

Indians Defeat Albany High.

CHEMUNAW, Or., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The Chemawa second football team defeated Albany High this afternoon on the Chemawa gridiron, 12 to 6. One touchdown and safety in the first half and a touchdown in the second were made; no goals. The Indians outplayed Albany in line bucking, punting and running in the back Lewis, Clark, Smoker and Williams starred for Chemawa; McBryde and Higbee for Albany. Twenty-five-minute halves were played. Officials, Professor Marquand, of Albany, and Mr. Fleming, of Salem.

Plan Race Meet at El Paso.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28.—Plans for a 90-day race meet at El Paso, Tex., were consummated here today. Dan Murray, of Chicago, has been selected as one of the judges and the other officials will be firmen who have figured conspicuously at the New Orleans tracks during the last ten years.

CALIFORNIA FANS SUPPLEMENT

Cal Ewing's Promises Fail to Materialize in State League.

OUTLAWS STILL DIVIDED

Nothing Doing Until Johnson and Pulliam Reach Coast—Welsh-Attell Fight a Surprise—Racing Game Is Declining.

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The baseball fans of California are waiting for something to happen in a baseball way. Cal Ewing has been promising things, but so far has taken no steps that have been announced, and no one knows just what will be done with reference to the California State League. The outlaws, as they are popularly known, are divided into two camps, those who are bitterly opposed to entering organized baseball, and those who are in favor of organized ball.

John L. Taylor, the Boston American League owner, said the other day that he had been directly invited to stand as they are until Ben Johnson and Harry Pulliam reach the Coast. Although Ewing was presumed to have the authority, it is evident that the state leagues want to treat with the big guns, to see just what will be the concessions that they are to receive. Whoever comes to the front will be treated at the hands of the Coast League for the support they have accorded baseball here.

Nothing Doing.

Taylor leaves shortly for the annual meeting of his league in New York, but will return around the Christmas holidays when it is expected that he will be accompanied by Johnson and Pulliam. There will doubtless be nothing stirring until that time.

The Portland fans have had the same news in regard to the Reach All Americans as has San Francisco, so they know all about the successive victories of Mike Fisher's team in the Pacific Northwest. Evidently baseball in Japan is still in a somewhat crude stage. Hi Baggerly, writing in his paper from Honolulu told of the trip that far and away from the United States, Babe Danzig, of Portland, the Babe was in a bad way for a short time, but when he revived nearly ate the ship out of house and home. So Danzig probably got a world of enjoyment out of his trip, even though he was sick for the first three or four days out of port.

Welsh a Surprise.

The victory of Freddie Welsh over Abe Attell in Los Angeles the other night was something of a surprise to local fight fans, who had expected to see Abe tear in and make a grand fight. He did nothing of the kind, but covered up and depended on his cleverness to win. The little Englishman, however, proved to be an offensive fighter on his own account, and the way he opened up on Attell is what won for him the decision. Doubtless his extra weight helped him. Of course, Abe does not lose the feather-weight title, as this was not involved, the weight being 130 pounds. He will probably get a draw in Los Angeles for his defeat. Foxy Attell, he always has an excuse at hand for himself.

The Australian papers, just received here tell of the double defeat of Joe Grim, the Iron Man of Philadelphia, in kangaroo land. Grim went across the pond some time ago, and until his extra weight helped him. Of course, Abe does not lose the feather-weight title, as this was not involved, the weight being 130 pounds. He will probably get a draw in Los Angeles for his defeat. Foxy Attell, he always has an excuse at hand for himself.

PORTLAND BOY ON WEST POINT TEAM.

Ronald C. Johnson, the Portland boy who distinguished himself as a member of the West Point Military Academy team in competition against the Annapolis Naval Academy eleven yesterday, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, of Portland. Previous to entering the Military Academy, Mr. Johnson had made a record as a member of the Portland Amateur Athletic Club eleven. He had been of an athletic turn of mind ever since his boyhood, and has been exceptionally clever. His parents are now visiting in Idaho and are not expected to return to Portland until after the holidays.

SEATTLE SECURES MIKE LYNXH

Will Manage Dugdale Team for Salary of $3000.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Mike Lynxh, who has been with the Tacoma Tigers since 1901, today signed a contract with Dugdale as player-manager for the Seattle team next season, and is to receive $3000, the highest salary ever paid any captain or manager in the Northwest.

Schreder is very much disappointed in losing Lynxh, but could not see his way to pay the high salary. Before signing the contract Lynxh inserted a clause whereby he is to have absolute control in running the team, and Dugdale is to devote himself solely to the financial end.

OLYMPIC ATHLETES COMING

Men Who Won Fame in London to Compete at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—America's amateur athletes on track and field and aquatic will be seen in competition in this city next year, according to the news brought from New York by William Inglis, superintendent of the Seattle Athletic Club, who has returned from his trip to the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union.

With the awarding of the national championships at Seattle during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, the American Athletic Union declared its intention of booming the games by every means in its power. Captain Inglis said: "On every hand I was assured of splendid participation in the national championships. The big clubs, of course, will send their world-famous members, such as Melvin, Sheppard, Carpenter, Porter and others. In fact, practically all the Americans who won fame at the international games at London last summer will come to Seattle."

Drops Charge Against Nazarro.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 28.—Herr Nannmyer, a director of the Benz Automobile Company, who preferred charges against Police Nazarro, the driver of a Fiat car, who won third place in the grand prize automobile race on Thanksgiving day, withdrew them today at a meeting of the contest committee of the Automobile Club of America. It was alleged that Nazarro had received outside assistance in putting on a tire during the race and was thus disqualified. The withdrawal of the charge is equivalent to an exoneration.

Turk Outwrestles Frenchman.

MONTREAL, Nov. 28.—Yousoff Mahmut, the Turk, won a wrestling match with Raoul de Rouen, of France, last night. The first fall, catch-as-catch-can, went to the Turk in 21 minutes. In the second, Graco-Roman, the Turk quit after 11 minutes. The third fall, catch-as-catch-can, went to the Turk in seven minutes.

Italians in the United States last year sent Italy $5,785,000 postal orders, aggregating $10,000,000; $17,000,000 went to Austria-Hungary and $10,000,000 to Russia.

RICH STRIKE IN THE CARDINAL

A big, rich, new strike has just been made in the Cardinal mining property in the Burnt River Mountains, 15 miles south of Baker City, believed to be one of the greatest true fissure veins ever discovered. The vein is 60 feet wide on the apex and carries a full 27-foot free gold pay streak, tracing 700 feet along the course of the vein. Many other rich strikes have been made from time to time on the property during the past few years, but none of such incomparable magnitude and richness.

This rich new strike was made above the coarse gold placer mines at the head of Stice's Gulch in the Eldorado claim belonging to the Cardinal Gold Mining Company, of Baker City, Oregon. A cross-cut on the apex 4 feet deep shows values from $7.11 up to $92.60 in absolutely free gold, while picked samples at a depth of 15 feet mortars and pans as high as 80 cents per pound. Stair-stepping and cross-cutting at various points on the vein leave no room for doubt.

An oblique cross-cut tunnel has been driven 100 feet at the foot of the ridge the vein crosses and is now within a few yards of the vein itself, and less than 250 feet lengthwise of the vein from the immense pay chute recently discovered. This tunnel will give approximately 300 feet of vertical depth, and with no further improvement in values than shown at the surface will yield several million dollars in gold without sinking a foot vertically.

There are many other immense veins on the property, which it is now confidently believed are just as good as the big new strike, which will be producing gold bullion just as soon as the ore can be blocked out and machinery for milling it installed.

Many of the stockholders have perhaps not been fully advised of the magnitude of the Cardinal mining property, which is beyond doubt one of the most extensive, values considered, in the great mineral zone of Eastern Oregon, Nevada and Idaho, consisting of 23 quartz and three valuable coarse gold placer claims, making upward of 500 acres in one compact body, which entirely aside from the rich strike recently made, bears many other immense ore veins of just as promising character, assuring well rich inexhaustible bodies of rich, free gold ore.

Our first discovery in this favored region was made in May, 1892, and now, after more than 16 years of labor and discovery, our continued persistence and your unwavering confidence is about to be rewarded royally, with every assurance of many times greater values as depth is attained.

Take our advice: DON'T SELL YOUR STOCK. Such magnificent opportunities come but once in a lifetime. DON'T SELL AT ANY PRICE. Better increase your holding while you can, as we still have a small amount more to offer below par, solely to hasten completion of the big working tunnel now well under way, block out the ore and install milling machinery for the extraction of the gold.
