

If You Need a Dentist

You Need Him Badly and Every Day's Delay Will Add to the Cost Both in Money and in Health

Perhaps the enjoyment of your Thanksgiving dinner was spoiled by bad teeth. Perhaps an otherwise nice mouth is spoiled by missing teeth. Perhaps you are humiliated in the presence of company by your plate falling down. Perhaps your mouth is full of decayed stumps—a positive injury to your health.

If any of your teeth are missing, one of our perfect bridges without plates will remedy the defect to your entire satisfaction. Our plates never work loose and are a genuine comfort. If you have a number of useless stumps, let us remove them painlessly and supply you with useful, pretty teeth. This is the home of modern dentistry.

PETITIONS ARE NOT ABANDONED

Statement Republicans Still Hope to Defeat Chamberlain for Senator.

VOTERS' GENERAL DEMAND

Chairman Hitchcock Expected to Take Hand in Affair—Other National Figures Close to Situation—To Make Hard Fight.

Circulation of petitions relieving Statement Republicans from voting for Governor Chamberlain for Senator has not been abandoned. Not later than the middle of December these petitions will be circulated generally throughout the state. Those who are directing the anti-Chamberlain campaign, after visiting all sections of the state, report that a general demand exists among the voters for an opportunity to register their protest against the election of a Democratic Senator by a Republican Legislature from a state that gave Taft a plurality of nearly 25,000.

Originally it was not intended to circulate these petitions until the session of the Legislature in the latter part of the year, respecting the unusual situation with which Oregon's Legislature is confronted, could be learned. Expressions from men high in the councils of the party are being received and with unvarying regularity the possible election of a Democrat to the Senate from this state is deplored. While President-elect Taft may not take any hand directly in the pending fight, National Chairman Hitchcock is relied on soon to make a decisive statement on the Oregon Senatorial situation. Many other Republicans who stand close to the Administration are not hesitating to express their opinion. They are unanimously agreed that it would be a serious mistake for as strong a Republican state as Oregon to submit to any programme which might require its Republican Legislature to elect a United States Senator from the opposing political party.

These men are all prominent in National life and insist that the interests of Oregon require that its Legislators seriously consider the consequences of electing to the Senate a man from the Democratic party who is opposed to every policy advocated and supported by the President-elect, who is backed by a Republican Congress. The needs of this state for National legislation, they assert, never were greater, while the chances of receiving favorable consideration are certain to be lessened by sending a Democrat to the Senate.

Men behind the movement to bring about Chamberlain's defeat believe that in another two weeks public sentiment for the election of a Republican Senator will reach such a stage that petitions relieving Statement Republicans from their pre-election commitments will be called for in practically every county in the state. When that time arrives arrangements will have been perfected for giving these petitions vigorous circulation among the voters.

DELEGATION TO MEET TODAY

Multnomah Legislators Will Consider Proposed Laws. The meeting of the members of the Multnomah County delegation in the State Legislature, for the purpose of effecting an organization, will be held in the assembly hall of the Portland Commercial Club at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Senators and Representatives-elect alike have joined in the call for the meeting, desiring that the delegation get today's working order as soon as possible for the consideration of important legislation. The Statement members of the delegation, when it developed that the organization was to be used as a factor in controlling organization of the Legislature, some of the delegation demurred. W. J. Clemens, one of the Statement Representatives-elect, from the start refused to have anything to do with the organization of the Statement members of the House, urging that the controversy as between Statement and anti-Statement members had no place in the matter of organizing either branch of the Legislature.

Although J. D. Abbott, another Statement Representative-elect, attended the meeting of the Statement organization, he has indicated that where legislation is to be considered such matters should come before the entire delegation, for that reason he stated the statement question obliterated, believing that a divided delegation was not conducive to satisfactory results as to legislation. Mr. Abbott, in other respects, however, remains as firm a Statement man as ever and declares that nothing will prevent him from voting for Chamberlain for Senator. At the same time he stands with Clemens in refusing to sign up any pledge that would embarrass his action in participating in the organization of the House.

IN ORDER FOR 53 YEARS

Sister Vincent de Paul to Be Buried Monday.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The funeral of Sister Vincent de Paul, who had been 53 years a Sister of Charity, and for more than 20 years a Sister of the House of Providence, will be held in this city Monday morning at 8 o'clock from the chapel of the House of Providence, Father Verwiltgen, of St. James Cathedral having charge of the services. Sister Vincent died in the institution with which she had been connected for over half a century. Had she lived until next New Year's Day she would have been 84 years old. She was born in Quebec, Canada. She took one trip back to Montreal, Canada, with her, over half a century ago, came four other sisters, namely Sister Blaudina, Sister Josephine of the Sacred Heart, Sister Mary of the Precious Blood and Sister Praxedes. Sister Blaudina, now a resident of Montreal, is the sole survivor of the quartet. The first little schoolhouse they built was 24x30 feet and one story high, and was located on the present garrison grounds. This little building is still in existence at the House of Providence and is used as a sewing-room by the sisters. The parent House of Providence is located at Vancouver and there are now branch houses located all over the Northwest. The property and school buildings here are worth about $100,000.

Nominate by Mass Meeting.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—At the town caucus last evening, almost the whole voting population turned out, as factional lines were strongly drawn. However, Mayor T. W. Robin was renominated for the office he now holds, receiving nearly twice as many votes as his opponent, Messrs. Otto Weltje and Clark Studebaker were nominated by acclamation, for Councilmen for the full term of two years. H. A. Richardson, present incumbent, was nominated for Town Treasurer. The name "Citizen's Ticket" was adopted. It is rumored that another ticket will be put in the field before the election, December 8.

FOOTPAD BEATS UP WOMAN

Strikes Her Over Head After Demand for Food at Point of Gun.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Early last evening a masked man attempted to hold up Miss McNeill, daughter of Loughlin McNeill, across the Chehalis River, northwest of this city, on the McNeill farm. The young woman was working outside the house when the man approached, armed with a rifle. He commanded her to throw up her hands, but she parleyed with him. He said he wanted food, and Miss McNeill told him if he would wait till she could go to the house she would get him something. She started to back away, when the man struck her over the head with the gun and a scuffle followed. He finally broke and ran. An old hat was found nearby and it is believed to have been worn by the highwayman.

Miss McNeill's father was working at the barn, but it was impossible for him to hear the alarm until the ruffian had gone. The Sheriff's office was notified, but no arrest has been made as yet. Hobos have been unusually thick of late. One night recently the Chehalis City Marshal rounded up a bunch of over 50, locking up all for whom he had room, and herding the rest of the gang out of town.

Returns Bogus Nursery Orders.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The Quaker Nursery Company, of Salem, Or., reports that it has been stung by a solicitor named S. B. Mills, who worked this field for them, the past Summer. They allege that Mills turned in alleged orders aggregating several hundred dollars, on which they paid him commissions amounting to about $75. A few days ago, when they sent notices to the supposed customers, they learned that the orders were bogus.

HARRIMAN LINE IN MEXICO

Cut-off to Guaymas Shorter Than Los Angeles Route.

EL PASO, Nov. 28.—H. B. Nickerson, general manager of the Sierra Madre Railroad, in an interview at Mexico City, stated that he had secured concessions and would immediately extend the road from its present terminus, south of El Paso, to the Yaqui River in Sonora, connecting there with E. H. Harriman's new Yaqui River line from Guaymas. It is believed Mr. Harriman is backing the project, as it would give him an all-Mexico line to El Paso from the Mexican Pacific Coast, several hundred miles shorter than the Pacific connection at Los Angeles.
