EVENTS OF WEEK.

On Tuesday evening, November 24, about 75 members of Pioneer Chapter No. 25, Order of the Eastern Star of Oregon City, and 125 from the Portland chapters assembled at the Temple of Oregon City to attend a reception and banquet given in honor of the worthy matron, Miss Alvina M. Horn, who has recently returned from the East, where she has been visiting for several months past. After the regular chapter meeting, those present returned to the banquet-room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with O. E. S. colors and Oregon grape and ferns. The tables were handsomely decorated with flowers, and covers were laid for 125 guests and the Senator Joseph E. Hodges acted as toastmaster, and expressed to Miss Horn the appreciation of the members. Miss Horn, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the members for the cordial reception. W. A. Ross sang "Star of the East" and responded to a hearty encore. George Stapleton, worthy grand patron, wittily responded to the toast, "Lessons From O. E. S." and Harold Swafford followed with a whistling solo. W. A. Ross, who responded to the toast, "Young Men of the Chapter." At this point Miss Horn sang "Good Night, Little Girl, Good Night," by Mary. "The Religion of O. E. S." to the Masonic Fraternity" was the subject to which Harold A. Randa turned the attention of the members. George M. Hyland, grand lecturer of Oregon, and Mrs. Antonette Stiles, associate grand matron of Oregon, spoke briefly. The members from Portland departed for that city on two special cars at a late hour. Much credit is due the committee composed of Miss Myrtle Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Annie E. Howard and Harold A. Randa.
