WEDDINGS

Mulkey-Frisby.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was the marriage of Miss Beatie Laura Frisby to Chester L. Mulkey, of McMinnville, Wednesday, November 11, at the home of the bride's parents in Salem, at high noon. Rev. H. T. Babcock, of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated.

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was solemnized on November 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cunningham, 414 East Sixteenth street, north, when their only daughter, Clara Bell, was united in marriage to Kenneth Poorman, youngest son of Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. John M. Poorman, of Woodburn. Rev. Benjamin Young, of Taylor-street Church, officiated.

At 12 o'clock Miss Gertrude Fawc played Mendelssohn's wedding march, as the bridal party entered. Miss Mary Frisby, only sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a costume of white point d'esprit over pink tulle, and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations, rose Farr, of Sheridan, acted as best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of ivory Duchesse satin, made in Paris, with a delicately hand-embroidered with chrysanthemums and trimmed in baby Irish lace. She wore a full-length veil. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Immediately after the ceremony Miss Babcock sang "When Song Is Sweet."

Clarkin, Laurel, Or., Wednesday noon, November 18, when their eldest daughter, Maude Estrella, was united in marriage to Herman A. Rehse, of Farmington, Rev. J. A. Campbell officiating. The wedding march was played by Miss Vera Rehse, sister of the groom. At 12 o'clock the party took its places under a canopy of Oregon grape, from which was suspended a large wedding bell, where the ceremony was performed.

At Hillsboro, Or., on November 25 occurred the wedding of Edward Baylee and Mrs. Lenzie Pelette. The bride is well known in Hillsboro and has many friends throughout Oregon. The groom is a native of England and is a son of the late Rev. Joseph Tyrrell Baylee, vicar of St. Michael's Church, Bristol, England, and a grandson of the late Dr. Baylee, founder and first principal of St. Auden's College, Birkenhead, England.

Wednesday, November 25, Dr. J. Whitcomb Broucher officiating. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present. Eager-Werner. A. L. Eager and Miss Lydia Werner, both of this city, were married in the reception room of the White Temple on Saturday evening, November 21. Dr. J. Whitcomb Broucher performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends.

Hadley-Landers. One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss Beatrice Landers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sherman Hadley, of Seattle, which was solemnized on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when the ceremony was performed by Dr. Simpson. The bride, who is a brunette with brilliant coloring, entered on the arm of her uncle, Mr. W. D. Denton, and carried a charming picture in a gown of shimmering satin, cut on train, with trimmings of Duobesse lace, worn with a full-length veil. She carried a shower bouquet of the bride's roses.

Bellinger-Stone. A beautiful wedding took place in the Catholic Church at Kalama, Wash., on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, when Irving E. Bellinger and Miss Beattie Effie Stone, daughter of the late J. B. Stone and Mrs. M. E. Stone, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Soland. The bride was beautiful in a cream-colored Parisian gown over silk, and carried bride's roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, James Earl Stone. Little Gladys Stone, in blue, acted as ring-bearer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Meredith Dolores Stone, who wore an empire gown of pink silk organdy, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Clarence Innes acted as best man. The church was decorated in white chrysanthemums and evergreens. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Bellinger departed later for this city, where they will be at home after December 1.

Baylee-Pelette. At Hillsboro, Or., on November 25 occurred the wedding of Edward Baylee and Mrs. Lenzie Pelette. The bride is well known in Hillsboro and has many friends throughout Oregon. The groom is a native of England and is a son of the late Rev. Joseph Tyrrell Baylee, vicar of St. Michael's Church, Bristol, England, and a grandson of the late Dr. Baylee, founder and first principal of St. Auden's College, Birkenhead, England.

Garland-Rice. William Henry Garland and Miss Josephine Althea Rice were quietly married in the reception room of the White Temple on Friday evening, November 20. Rev. J. Whitcomb Broucher, D. D., officiating.

Spong-Clodfelter. One of the prettiest of the Autumn weddings was that of Captain Andrew J. Spong and Miss Mary M. Clodfelter, which was solemnized Wednesday at high noon in the presence of 40 guests at the home of the bride's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Hamilton Scott.

Wherry-Marshall. GOLDENDALE, Wash., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—On Thanksgiving eve, Jess Wherry, a business man of Arlington, was married to Miss Adah Marshall, daughter of H. J. Marshall, at the home of the bride's parents in this city in the presence of 50 guests. Mrs. I. C. McLean, of Roosevelt, acted as matron of honor, and Warrnie Marshall, the bride's brother, was best man. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Evans, of Hood River. After the honeymoon luncheon served, Mr. and Mrs. Wherry will make their home in Arlington.

Cutting-Kaufman. A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kaufman, 403 Clay street, on Wednesday noon, when their only daughter, Florence Rose, was married to Harry Frost Cutting.

COMING EVENTS. Among the most interesting of coming events is the benefit concert of Miss Eleanor Kurth, which is to take place on Monday evening, December 7, at 8:15 o'clock, at the new Y. W. C. A. Auditorium. Miss Kurth is a well known contralto singer, and is one of the most popular church soloists in the city. Her many friends have taken the initiative of arranging this concert for her to take place just one week before her departure for Europe, where she expects to remain some years, studying music under the best-known instructors. Among the patronesses are: Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. H. L. Corbett, Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Miss H. E. Felling, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. E. P. Moesman and Mrs. William Hiram Foulkes. Miss Kurth will be assisted by Miss Cornelia Barker, violinist; Stewart McGuire, baritone, and Mrs. Elizabeth Paterson Sawyer, accompanist.

Edgar E. Coorsen will give the following organ numbers at the First Presbyterian Church this morning: Prelude, "Romance" (Thomas); hymn-antiphon, "New Morning in the Love" (Bullard); anthem, "The Beatitudes" (Macfarlane); postlude, "Larghetto" (Chamberlin). Organ numbers at 7:15: (a) "Prelude" (Shelley); (b) "Offertory in G" (Wely); prelude, "Communion" (Devired).
