ACCUSES FRANK J. MURPHY

Says Attorney Used Him to Secure Juror Kelly's Vote in Ruef Trial. Also Alleges That New-

gan FRANCISCO, Dec. 5 .- When the trial of Attorney Frank J. Murphy, accused of attempting to bribe J. M. Kelly, a prospective juror in the Ruef bilbery case, was resumed in Judge Murasky's court today, E. A. S. Blake, a contractor, already convicted of complicity in the same transaction took the stand for the prosecution. Blake told in detail of the attempt to induce Kelly by the payment of money to vote for the acquittal of Ruef in case he should the acquittal of Ruef in case he should be accepted as a juror and a subse-quent preparation by Attorneys Murphy and Newburgh of affidavits intended to cover up the attempted bribery. He also related of their offer to pay him $19,000 to shoulder the blame without impli-cating them in the matter. Blake de-ciared that his testimony was given voluntarily and without home of immuuntarily and without hope of immu-

The examination of Blake was con-ducted by District Attorney Langdon, who was interrupted by frequent objections from Attorney Bert Schles-singer. He said that in last July he had discussed the Ruef case with Athad discussed the Ruef case with Attorney Newburgh, who later introduced him to Attorney Murphy, both being of Ruef's counsel. He was asked if Kelly wanted money and he repiled that Kelly wanted money and he repiled that Kelly was a poor man working for wages. Murphy, according to Blake, said he was so anxious to win the case that he was willing to give $1000 if Kelly would vote for acquittal. Blake then went to Kelly and afterward reported he had accomplished the deal. Murphy then said, according to the winess, that if the jury stood II to I for conviction or 10 to 2 for conviction, he was willing to pay Kelly five times as much as had been offered.

Told to Make Affidavit.

Near the end of August, Blake was asked by Attorney Newburgh if he knew that Kelly had betrayed him, and that he was being shadowed by Burns' men, he was told by Murphy and Newburgh that it would be necessary to make an affidavit stating that he had called on Kelly to ascertain his state of mind and that Kelly had demanded $1000, which extortion Murphy had indignantly repudicated. The witness then said he had gone gied. The witness then said he had gone to Martin Stevens and prepared the affi-dayit as directed, which was afterward submitted to Judge Lawlor.

submitted to Judge Lawlor.

After Blake's arrest, on September 4, Attorney Schooler, whom he had never seen before, met and balled him out of prison. That evening he dined with Murphy, Newburgh and Schooler, who told him he could not be convicted of the attempted bribery of Kelly with only one witness against him. Murphy had slipped him $50 and informed him that he would him $50 and informed him that he would allow him $50 a week during the trial, at the end of which he promised him $500 to start in business again. Before the trial he was advised by Murphy to conceal the truth even from his attorneys. Blake said he had never paid his attorneys, Schooler and Lindsay, anything for their services.

Offered $10,000 to Stand It.

Five days after his conviction. Blake said that Murphy had visited him at the County Jail and told him that the case against him was weak, and that the Appellate Court would grant another trial in a few months, when he would be freed. Blake indicated that he doubted this, and Murphy then offered him $10,000 to go to San Quentin and $100 a month for the support of his wife. Blake mistrusted the offer and at his suggestion Martin Stevens was seen and agreed to act as custodian of the money. Once, when Blake was up for sentence, he was informed by Stevens that the note for the money had not been obtained from Ruef and a continuance was asked for and grant-ed. Later Stevens secured the note. This was prior to the full confession made by the witness.

During the examination of Blake, Attorney Murphy appeared much agi-inted and sat with his head bowed. An adjournment was taken until Monday.

WILL WAIT ON PRESIDENT California State League Selects Pive

to Meet Leaders. SAN FRANCISCO. Dec. 5.—A step toward ending the long baseball war between the Coast League and the outlaw California State League was taken Thursday night at the St. Francis Hotel, at a conference of the officers and directors of the outlaw organization. After several hours of discussion It was agreed to name a committee of five directors to meet Presidents Ban

Johnson and Harry Pulliam, of the American and National Leagues, on their arrival this month, with a view of going into organized baseball. It had been originally agreed that committee, consisting of President Frank Herman, Charles Graham of Sac-ramento, A. B. Evers of Fresno, Cy Moving of Stockton and Al Jarman of San Jose treat with President Ewing, of the Coast League, and Henry Berry. of the Los Angeles team, on the sub-ject, but a hitch occurred at the eleventh hour and the matter was passed up until the arrival of the big moguls. The state league officials seem to be satisfied with coming into organized baseball as a class B league, but there is no question that all of them will in-sist that they retain every player now on their rolls. This is the barrier that has stood between the outlaw league and Ewing in the past, but the outlaws have hopes that they will be gain their point when Johnson and Pulliam arrive.

It developed that the champlon Stockton club, the main factor in the fight against organized ball, was willing to join hands with the others, plo-vided it retains its players. This will be a complicated question to decide and will require all the strategy and executive ability of Johnson, the greatest man in baseball today.

Though the officials of the outlaw league have not confirmed the rumor, it is likely that the Oakland, San Francisco and Alameda ciubs will be dropped next season, leaving five clubs in the field. If this action is taken it will be necessary to add another club to the circuit in order to bring six to the circuit in order to bring six cities into the league, It was the sense of the meeting to carry on the war if the big league officials refuse to allow the outlaw leagues to keep the men they have on their payrolls, provided the latter do not express a willingness to go to the National and American League clubs
