SEEKS AID OF AMERICANS

Mrs. Philip Snowden Tells Audience of Pledges and Asks for Support of Women of United States.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—An audience of women that filled Carnegie Hall to the topmost gallery paid enthusiastic tribute to Mrs. Philip Snowden, wife of a member of the British Parliament and a leader of woman suffrage in England, as she told last night of the suffragettes in her native country.

Dr. Aked, in the course of his address, scored both of the leading American political parties, and declared he did not know which was the worse. He pointed this comment with the story of a man who, being worried in debate with a woman, exclaimed as a last resort: "Well, no man ever had seven devils cast out of him."
