

BLACK LYNX, MINK, FOX, ERMINE, CARACUL and PONY are the Popular Furs of the Season

We are prepared to handle the Christmas trade in Furs with promptness. Our holiday assortment is complete, ranging in price from ONE DOLLAR TO ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS. We show the same attention and appreciation to the dollar customer as we do to the largest purchaser. We want every wearer of a fur, whether expensive or inexpensive to know that this is the house of unequalled values, no matter what the size of your purchase. The prices we quote are extremely tempting. Remember that a LIEBES FUR of any kind is the standard of value, seldom equaled and never excelled in style, quality, workmanship and general all-around effect. We have Furs for the Fots, Furs for the Misses, Furs suited to all ages. We employ our own trappers and handle more genuine Alaska Sealskins than any other fur house in the United States. This enables us to supply the best Seal Coats at moderate prices.

COMING EVENTS.
The Young Women's Christian Association has resumed its series of at home on Sunday in the new building. Today the programme will be unusually interesting. Miss Alberta Cory will read Van Dyke's "The Christmas Angel," followed by a half hour of music in the auditorium. After the programme the address "Some Lessons from the New Building," will be given by Miss Carrie Holbrook, president of the association. Following is the musical programme: Piano solo, "Papillon," from Grieg, by Miss Mabel Fraley; soprano solo, "Alone with God," from Abbott, by Miss Catherine Couch; reading (selected), Miss Emma Lincoln; contralto solo, "I Will Give Thanks," from Cowen, by Miss Evelyn Hurley; tenor solo, "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," from Dudley Buck, by William Conley.

The Central W. C. T. U. is planning a special effort to secure funds for carrying on the work of the coming year, and initiate a state-wide prohibition campaign in 1910. This will be held on Lincoln's birthday, February 12, and is to be celebrated as a National holiday, being the 100th anniversary. Ribbon badges will be sold, hence it will be called ribbon day. The president, Mrs. Neol B. Inman, has prepared a leaflet containing quotations from Abraham Lincoln's temperance utterances, which will be distributed with the badges.

HELPED DEVELOP CITY
John B. David was Esteemed Resident for Many Years.

For more than a quarter of a century John B. David, who was found dead in his room, at 212 Seventh street, Friday morning, was a prominent figure in the development of Portland and the Pacific Northwest. He was 60 years old, and death is supposed to have resulted from a sudden attack of heart trouble.

He was for many years engaged in the Federal service in making surveys for land contracts. For 25 years he had been in charge of practically all this kind of work in Eastern Oregon. A number of years ago he was engaged with the late D. P. Thompson in business ventures.

Piano Bargains Extraordinary

A High-Grade Used Piano Better Than a Cheap New One
A FINE, SLIGHTLY USED PIANO FOR ONLY $157

Here are to be found a number of slightly-used pianos which are very desirable instruments—sweet tone, beautiful case designs—well-known makes, worth in many instances nearly double the price quoted.

Some have been taken in exchange as part payment toward the beautiful Sohmer or a Hallett & Davis, while others have been out on rent, and since being returned have been polished and tuned, and are none the worse for their slight use.

Another well-known New York make, only slightly used, at $167

Still another upright in excellent condition, left with us by family going to China, now only $195

Others at prices far below their actual value. Come and investigate these—tomorrow.

GRAVES MUSIC CO.

111 Fourth Street, North of Washington.

His estate is said to be worth $300,000. Mr. David was heavily interested in the Portland Ice Company and among his real estate holdings was a 100-acre ranch near Newberg, Or. He was one of the incorporators and builders of the old street railway between Portland and Vancouver, Wash. A number of years ago he retired from active business. He came to Portland in 1864, having served with an Eastern regiment during the early part of the Civil War. Mr. David is survived by a sister, Mrs. Praine, a teacher in the public schools of Portland, and several children, who reside at Newberg.
