

We Will Be Open Evenings Until Christmas

To give everyone a chance to finish the Christmas shopping, we will keep the store open evenings until Christmas. The evening shoppers are perhaps a bit gayer than those of the daytime and there is more merriment in the buying. The brilliantly lighted store, the bright decorations and the gay array of Christmas goods add tremendously to the search for suitable gifts. Come early and enter into the happy spirit of the crowds of cheerful shoppers.

VETOES BOUNDARY CHANGE

ROOSEVELT SAYS MATERIAL DIFFERENCE IS MADE.

Postoffices Transferred to Colorado. Teller Grows and Says President Is Ill-Informed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The President today returned to the Senate without his signature the resolution fixing the boundary line between Colorado and New Mexico with a message giving as his reason a report of the Attorney-General to the effect that the bill made material changes in the line, shifting five postoffices from one jurisdiction to another.

As soon as the message was read Mr. Teller declared that no important changes were made, as the line had been established in 1861 and followed the 37th parallel very closely. The changes in location, he said, did not extend one-quarter or one-half of a mile from the location generally recognized.

"I do not think," said Teller, "that anybody who knew anything about the subject could have informed the President."

The effect of the bill, he said, was merely to determine where the line actually was, in conformity with previous action. Neither Congress nor the

ST. DAVID'S GETS RECTOR

DEAN TALBOT, OF ALBANY, TO SUCCEED VAN WATERS.

Call Due to New Rector's Expressed Desire to Enter Work in West, Made to ex-Schoolmate Here.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Dean Henry Russell Talbot, of All Saints' Cathedral, has accepted a call to St. David's Episcopal Church at Portland, Or.

Dean Talbot, of the Albany, N. Y., cathedral, who has accepted the call to the rectorship of St. David's Episcopal Church, East Twelfth and Belmont streets, to succeed Rev. George B. Van Waters, D. D., who recently resigned, is known to most of the Portland Episcopal clergymen as a strong and able man. His coming to Portland is considered by Bishop Charles Scadding as a great gain not only to Portland, but to the state.

Dr. S. E. Joseph, member of the vestry of St. David's Church, said last night:

"Dean Talbot's call was due to Dr. George S. Whiteside, an old schoolmate and friend, to whom the dean had written some time ago stating that he would like to enter the work in the West. Dr. Whiteside, recalling that the rectorship of St. David's Church was vacant, called my attention to Dean
