A jolly sleighing party Wednesday evening had for the chaperones Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord. A commodious sleigh was chartered, holding in all its guests, and the objective point was the Golf Club, where supper was served. Later still, another supper followed at the Alvord residence. The party included Miss M. Warren, Miss Grace Monroe, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Bert Baar, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Milla Westing, Mr. Rochester, Irving Webster, Mr. Roemer, William Banks, Mr. Unander, Sturgis Bodine and Don Monroe.

John Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence, Sr., has recently built a handsome country home at Hood River, where, with his parents and his sisters, the Misses Lawrence, they will spend their Summers. The house is most artistic and commodious and situated in a picturesque grove of long-needed pine trees.

The Fortnightly club, of which Mr. James Alexander is the president, has postponed its dancing party evening until a fortnight hence.

Another sleighing party last evening was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kolloch. The destination of the ride was the Golf Club. The party included Miss M. Warren, Miss Grace Monroe, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Bert Baar, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Milla Westing, Mr. Rochester, Irving Webster, Mr. Roemer, William Banks, Mr. Unander, Sturgis Bodine and Don Monroe.

Due to ill-health, Mrs. Louis Bruce, with her mother, Mrs. Riggen, is occupying a cottage at Hood River, where they are joined over the week-end by Mr. Bruce.

Mrs. F. M. Pendleton has cards out for a bridge afternoon on January 15.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day have as their guests Miss Yates, of Spokane, who has been entertained in Portland on several previous occasions.

Mrs. G. O. Wold, of Eugene, Or., has returned to the college town after a several months' visit in Washington, D. C. and New York and a brief visit with her daughter, Miss Gasta Ivorda Wold, at Elton Court.

Miss Mary Lee Henry, of Kansas City, arrived a fortnight ago to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jacobs, who are occupying the R. R. House residence during their tour of the world.

Mrs. Samuel Galland, of Spokane, who will be pleasantly remembered as Mrs. Edith Hexter, is now visiting her mother, Mrs. A. L. Hexter. The presence of Mrs. Galland has occasioned much entertaining. On Tuesday of the week just entered, Mrs. Edward Eichenman will entertain, for her with bridge, as will Mrs. Frederick Selzer, the following day.

Miss Anne Katherine Shea has been the center of much entertaining the past week, prior to her marriage next Thursday, to Irving Rogers Stearns. Thursday, Mrs. Clifford Fleming Maxwell gave a luncheon for her at Alexandria Court. Friday, Mrs. Ray Matson was her hostess at a luncheon. Saturday, Miss Cora Mack entertained at cards and on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Cecile Wiley gave seven tables of bridge in her honor. This coming Tuesday Miss Alice Benson will entertain at bridge for the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer, of New York, are guests at Alexandria Court, having come west to visit their son, Howard Sawyer.

Miss Henrietta Felling, who for many years has filled the position of curator at the Art Museum, has resigned to take a rest. It is generally supposed that Miss Anna Belle Crocker, who is studying in the New York art circles, will fill the position vacated by Miss Felling.

President S. G. Reed, of the German-American Bank, and family have taken apartments at the Hill Hotel.

An invitational recital will be given early in February at Ellers Hall by four of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer's pupils, Miss Mildred Mayer, Miss Caroline May, Miss Elfred Weinstein and Miss Effie Johnson.

Mrs. Charles Ross entertained Wednesday with bridge for Mrs. Katherine Daly, who has just returned from a two years' tour of Europe. Mrs. Edmund Gay also gave a bridge party of 25 tables for Mrs. Daly on Thursday.

Dr. Jonah B. Wise leaves Portland today to attend the biennial convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations which meets in Philadelphia on January 18.

A WELL-KNOWN PORTLANDER AND HIS BRIDE-ELECT, WHOSE MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE TODAY

A wedding of interest, which takes place today is that of Sidney S. Mayer, a well-known young business man of Portland, and Miss May C. Nordman, the daughter of Leon Nordman, of San Francisco, where the wedding will be celebrated at the Nordman residence, 160 Sixth avenue, at 2:30 P. M. Miss Nordman is very attractive and accomplished, and will be an addition to Portland society. Mr. Mayer is the junior member of the firm of L. Mayer & Company, grocers. Mr. and Mrs. Mayer will be at home after February 1 in Portland.

gregations which meets in Philadelphia on January 18. Dr. Wise will deliver an address on the purposes of the Union, January 17 from the pulpit of Dr. Joseph Krauskopf, the leading Hebrew congregation of Philadelphia.

M. Michel leaves today for a five weeks' trip East. Mrs. Rose Courson-Reed returned on Tuesday from a short visit with her sister, Mrs. James Campbell in San Francisco.

The greatest interest in centered in the benefit performance which will be given tomorrow evening at the Bungalow Theater for victims of the frightful Italian calamity. The programme is under the stage direction of Frank Branch Riley, who, assisted by John D. Carson and W. D. Wheelwright, has arranged a programme of exceptional merit. The committee of general arrangements consists of Mrs. Robert Treat Platt, chairman; Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, treasurer; Frank Branch Riley, W. D. Wheelwright, George L. Baker, and M. D. Montreux, assisted by Mrs. H. D. Green, Miss Frances Wilson and Miss Hazel Dolph. The patronesses will be Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. S. Frank, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. J. Wesley Branch, Mrs. L. Burns, Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Henrietta Felling, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. Ben Selling, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. C. P. Candiani, and Mrs. Mario G. Montreux. Flowers which have been donated by the various florists will be presided over by Miss Hazel Dolph while Miss Frances Wilson will sell candy.

That the benefit will be both a financial and social success is a foregone conclusion.

The board of the Children's Home are desirous of expressing their thanks for the many presents sent the little ones at Christmas.

Six young women calling themselves the T. A. G. girls, called at the Home New Year's Eve leaving a lot of pretty dressed dolls for the children. The Mizpah Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church, requested that the children write to Santa Claus, and the thing most desired. In turn the society answered each note, complying as far as possible to the request. A friend calling himself Santa Claus sent quantities of Hood River apples and splendid toys. In addition many playthings, dear to the heart of a small child were received from various philanthropically inclined people who are interested in this excellent charity.

One of the surprises "Czar" Greenway gave his guests at his famous Christmas ball at the Fairmount, was the presence of Madame Nordica. The diva was accorded a most cordial welcome, and made a stunning appearance, her statueque figure robed in hunters green velvet, with a court train. She wore an elaborate tiara of diamonds, also superb ropes of pearls, and her famous cabochon emeralds. While in the Bay city, Madame Nordica instituted the first of a series of hotel musicales at the Fairmount at which Gadske and other artists will hereafter appear.

In the future these hotel musicales promise to become immensely popular enabling the hostesses to precede the concert with dinners and to conclude them with supper. European hostesses at the Waldorf Astoria have furnished the model. Another innovation which has recently been inaugurated in San Francisco, a custom borrowed from Europe via New York, is the serving of a breakfast at a hall in addition to the usual midnight supper. Mrs. Henry T. Scott, wife of the president of the Union Iron Works, the Pacific Coast Telephone Co., and other corporations, has had the distinction of giving the first breakfast which was served at 8 A. M. at her recent ball at the Hotel St. Francis. While the feature proved popular with dames, debutantes, and glided youths it will scarcely meet with the approval of debut business men. If the vogue still continues even the enthusiastic ones will be forced to take rest and undergo a prosaic attack of "simple-lifts."

One of the most popular dances of the season was that given on New Year's eve in Alumni Hall, Grand avenue and Commercial street, by the Alumni Association of the Christian Brothers College. Over 200 were present and danced the old year out. Quite a novel effect was displayed on the stage, showing the gradual dying of the old year by means of electric lights and the gradual dawn or awakening of 1909. The hall is one of the finest in the city and was decorated with pennants from the different colleges throughout the United States giving it a very pretty appearance.

The New Year was welcomed in by the members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Mississippi-Avenue Congregational Church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay, N. B. Campbell, 307 Commercial street, the guests numbering 33. The evening was spent with games and music, piano solos being given by Miss Ruth Thomas, Miss M. Kalin, Miss Sadie Thompson and Lowell Patton. Several vocal numbers were given, "Loch Lomond" and "My Ain Folk," by John McGregor, and "Annie Laurie" by Lindsay N. B. Campbell.

One of the loveliest sleighing parties of the week was given Thursday evening by Miss Myrtle E. Long and E. E. Wedemeyer.
