

Patterson and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Skeene. Mrs. Pendleton appeared in Miss Grace Warren, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. J. C. Harry Sargent, W. A. MacRae, Mrs. R. D. Cetera, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Miss Maud Ainsworth, Miss Elizabeth Caldwell, Miss Blanche Catlin, Mrs. E. L. Ladd, Mrs. J. E. Dixon, Mrs. Matias, Mrs. Eliza, Beth Hamilton and Miss Ella Stephens.

Miss Mary Montgomery's dinner guests on Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Jr., for whom the dinner was given; Major and Mrs. James Canby, Miss Olga von Destinn, Richard Cox and Harry Montgomery.

Mrs. Lou von Zell Clarke has left for Eugene to spend the winter with her son, Eugene Clarke, who has recently been elected captain for the University of Oregon football team for the coming year.

Dining with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Treat Platt, on Wednesday evening, were Dr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. Mary S. Sargent, Mrs. Harry Sargent, Miss Hazel Dolph, Mr. William Moore and John D. Carson.

Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, on Tuesday, entertained the bridge classes of which she is a member, the Monday, Tuesday and the King's Heights neighborhood Club. Prizes were attractive motor vials which were in each instance won by one of the members of the club.

The various clubs include Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. C. E. Cheney, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. W. J. Turner, Mrs. W. A. Ayer, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. Morton Insley, Mrs. N. E. Ladd, Mrs. John E. Young, Mrs. Howard Mather, Mrs. R. L. Bates, Mrs. J. W. Ladd, Mrs. Whitney Boise, and Miss Carrie Flanders.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken returned yesterday to their Eastern Oregon ranch. On Wednesday evening, in their honor, a pretty dinner was given with Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Ruckey as hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. McCracken, having also been sitting here, but on Thursday Mr. McCracken left for a business trip to Nevada. Later he will be joined in Salt Lake by Mrs. McCracken, and together they will spend the remainder of the winter in New York.

Mrs. N. J. Levinson and daughter, Peggy, left last week for Southern California, where they will spend the winter.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs is to give a reception Wednesday afternoon, January 21, at the Masonic Temple, for the benefit of the educational loan fund.

Exceptionally pretty will be the coming wedding of Miss Susan Stott and Mr. Cronan, in addition to the high nuptial mass, read by the Right Rev. Archbishop Loris, a splendid musical program has been arranged. Monstrosities in G will be sung by 16 of the best voices in town. All well-known soloists, including Miss Kathleen Lawler, Miss Catherine Covelli, Miss Nona Lawler, Mrs. Samson Reed, Miss Bula Caldwell, Miss Alice Justis, Miss Viola Reed, Miss J. S. Monte, Don J. Zan, F. S. Hickie, Gus Cramer, Louis Bruce, Dr. George Analla, William Conley and J. W. Belcher, with Frederick Goodrich as director. The ushers for the coming wedding will be Dr. Ben Norden, Dr. George Analla, Plowden Stott, William Lyons and Arnold Rothwell. Louis Cronan is to be the best man. In honor of Miss Stott, Mrs. David Honeyman will give a luncheon this week. On Thursday another dinner with the bride and groom-elect as the motif was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard.

Mr. Frederick Leslie Warren, of Astoria, with Miss Josephine Smith have returned from Pasadena, where they had apartments for two months at the Hotel Green. Miss Smith, however, has been with her sister and brother-in-law only since the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper were dinner hosts Sunday evening, when their guests were asked to meet Miss Katherine Goodson from Pasadena, who had apartments for two months at the Hotel Green. Miss Smith, however, has been with her sister and brother-in-law only since the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stanley returned yesterday in the former's private car from a trip to New York, where Mr. O'Brien visited Miss Lillian O'Brien, who is attending a finishing school. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley visited their son George at Andover.

As a house warming for their new Kings Heights residence, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ransom and Miss Mabel Ransom gave a large dancing party on Friday evening. Though the new house boasts a ballroom on the third floor, it was, however, considered inadequate and instead the drawing-room and the reception hall were used. The decorations were the large drawing-room, which is hung with old gold tapestries were great quantities of pink carnations bunched on the mantel. A huge brass bowl of marquet carnations was used in the dining-room, which is done in mahogany with Gobelins blue velvet hangings.

The invitations list included Mr. and Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, Lewis Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coman, J. G. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Dr. John C. Coughlin, William Castleman, Richard C. James, B. Alex. Foster, Robert Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gates, Dr. and Mrs. Millard Holbrook, Howard H. H. and Mrs. Harry Humphrey, William H. Hurlbut, Leo Hahn, Miss Frances Jeffery, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Ker, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lamont, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McComb, Robert McPherson, Dr. C. C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Overbeck, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Brien, Jr., and Mrs. Otto Prall, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ransom, Miss Edith Ransom, Arnold Rothwell, Mrs. Pontius, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stanley, Robert Smith, Alfred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Smith, Miss Edith Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sewall, Dr. Paul Trullinger, Henry Teal, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth, Ray Warriner, Miss Della Wilson, Mr. Vincent, of Pendleton, and Jordan Zan.

Captain and Mrs. Francis H. Pone, have returned from their wedding trip to California and will give for a few days of Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur, Mrs. Pone was Miss Harriet Ankeny, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Levi Ankeny.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Tichenor and their daughter, Miss Hazel Tichenor, left on Wednesday evening for Southern California for a two months' sojourn.

Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer entertained Tuesday with an informal musicale, complimentary to Mrs. Wertheimer. Again Thursday evening Mrs. Bauer gave a musicale for a handsome San Francisco girl, Miss Hess, who is a guest of the Samuel Rothchild.

Invitations have been issued for the second of the Camanoch hops, to be given at the Masonic Temple, Friday, January 22. The patronesses will be Mesdames A. D. Charlton, E. E. Courson and E. E. Lytle. The members of the Camanoch Club are Roy Fields, Camanoch Club, Mrs. Roy Fields, Frank Howell, William Honeyman, Jr., Arthur Fields, Arthur Murphy and Elmer Young.

Mrs. Frank Ransom and Miss Ransom entertained with bridge Wednesday afternoon, asking Mrs. Alfred Tucker, Mrs. Russell Sewall, Mrs. Edwin Caswell, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Archie Pease, Mrs. Milton Henderson, Mrs. I. C. Sandford, Mrs. Arthur Barnard, Mrs. Saginaw, Mrs. Russell Hawkins, Miss Sawyer, Mrs. A. E. Mackay, Mrs. Gus-tave Bruere, Mrs. S. Ransom, Mrs. Fred L. Hoffmann, Mrs. Paul Frollich, Mrs. Charles Huggins, Mrs. R. B. Lamson and Mrs. John Ker.

Preceding the Monday night dancing class Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd will give a dinner, and, following the dance, Mr. and Mrs. John Shepard and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Linthum will be supper hosts.

Mrs. Mae Dearborn Schwab leaves this week for Marshfield, where she will sing at the Chamblaine Club Wednesday, and where a reception is to be given in her honor on Tuesday.

In honor of Mrs. Samuel Galland, of Spokane, Mrs. Edward Schman, entertained Tuesday with three tables of bridge. The guests were Mrs. I. N. Fieschner, Mrs. Frederick Seller, Mrs. Gustav Simon, Mrs. Aba Meier, Mrs. Sig-

The regular monthly business meeting of the Portnomah Club was held the afternoon of January 13. In the art rooms of the Public Library. After the routine business was finished a short social session was held. Mrs. A. D. Himes, who has just returned from a trip through the South Sea country, gave an interesting talk on her experiences while in that growing part of our state. This was followed by reminiscences of early stage-coach days in California and Nevada, told in an inimitable way by the president, Mrs. Nina Larowe. The next meeting will be the current topics department, which meets at Mrs. Nathan Haglis, 77 Johnson street, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Elmer Walker and Mrs. William Daniel entertained at luncheon and a Five Hundred card party at Mrs. Walker's home, 42 East Thirtieth street, on Saturday, in honor of Mrs. William Ammer. Those present were Mrs. Emma Milburn, Mrs. Max Abat, Mrs. S. K. George, Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. William Ammer, Mrs. William Gill, Mrs. Ed Ouliver, Mrs. George Hemminger, Mrs. B. H. Dotsman, Mrs. William Laurens, Mrs. Wade Kennedy, Mrs. Charles S. Ammer, Mrs. J. H. Haughey, Mrs. Sidney Turner, Mrs. William Daniel and Mrs. Elmer Walker.

Corbin Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Peters, of 322 Hasard street, celebrated his eighth birthday at a party Saturday, January 9. Nineteen friends of the young host were entertained during the afternoon with music and games. Later a luncheon was served. Those present were: Lavern Brooks, Maude Gibbons, Loretta Dumphrey, Gladys Marian, Agnes Washier, Helen Wais, Lucile Washier, Ada Wallace, Katherine Wallace, Hazel Peters, Ray Brooks, Edmond B. Grant, MacDonald, Roy H. H. Homar, Willard Walsh, Rudolf Zeller, Phillip Zeller and Arthur Durbin.

A much enjoyed sleighing party, followed by a supper at a downtown grill, took place on Wednesday evening, Mrs. I. L. White, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Frederick Seller entertained for Mrs. Galland, as did Mrs. Gustav Simon, with a luncheon, Friday.

The postponed reception of the Scottish Rite Masons will take place Friday evening.

On January 6 in Ontario, Cal., occurred the wedding of Miss Mary Laidley and Joseph Muebe. The bride is said to be a charming and accomplished girl, whose presence will occasion considerable entertaining by Mr. Muebe's many friends here.

Under the head of weddings is given an account of the Stearns-Shea wedding, which was followed by a large reception.

The wedding of Miss Ada Barker and Arthur Alexander took place in London on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will spend their honeymoon in Southern France.

NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF WEEK.

A large bob-sled and four horses were used by the Smilers to entertain their friends, Wednesday evening. The party started from Rose Mayers' home, at 8:20 o'clock, ending their drive at Creston, on the Mount Scott line. Mrs. Selinger then open her cozy home to the party and Mrs. Peterson assisted in serving a delightful luncheon. A very interesting program was rendered by the different members of the club and their friends, and dancing was provided. Coasting and snowballing were chief features of the evening. The Smilers are widely known throughout the Mount Scott district. The members are: Rose Mayers, president; Ruth Selinger, vice-president; Lily Peterson, secretary; Marie Chilville, treasurer; Clemmie and Maude Denmore, Loretta Selinger, Alberta Chelle, Minnie Peterson, Emma Brown, Edna McCoy, Clara Deering and Boss Chapin. The sleighing party was enjoyed by the Smilers and Edith Wickham, Agnes Harwas and Babe Mayers, the Mosses, Tip Zachrisson, Harry Chatterton, Fred Moffett, Edgar Denmore, Whitcomb Clark, Jack Healy, C. A. King, Henry Neichen, James Brown, William Laycock and Mr. Burdick.

The New York Society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Captain and Mrs. W. H. Pope, at West Park street, last Tuesday evening. This being the annual meeting, reports were read of the successful meetings held last year, showing that the finances of the society were in an excellent condition. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Lida M. O'Brien, re-elected; first vice-president, Charles B. Hand; second vice-president, Captain W. H. Pope; secretary and treasurer, Charles C. Fisher, re-elected; registrar, Mrs. Margaret Forbes; executive committee, Herbert Boothie King, Daniel J. Haynes, Mrs. James V. Turt, and Mrs. Chamberlain. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening pleasantly passed in conversation. A number of new members were added to the rolls and several visitors from New York were present. The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday, February 2, instead of the third Tuesday of the month.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, will speak at the Young Women's Christian Association, Seventh and Taylor streets, Sunday afternoon, at the 10 o'clock service. Mr. Stone has made a considerable study of the book and his talk will be most interesting. At 4 o'clock there will be reading of the story, "The Perfect Treasure," by Mary Shipman Andrews. The musical program is as follows: Baritone solo, "The Lord Is My Light" (Allison), J. W. Nash; soprano solo, "Resignation," from "Caro Roma," by Miss Eva Wells; contralto solo, "Face to Face" (Johnson), by Miss Rosa Friedle. All women are welcome to these Sunday "At Home," and will find it a most delightful place to spend the afternoon. Time, 4 o'clock.

For Monday evening, January 11, the 26th anniversary of the Multnomah Typographical Union was celebrated at Wood-Hall at Tenth and Alder streets. The entertainment was in the nature of a reception and dancing party, with musical and vaudeville numbers interspersing the programme. A cardroom was maintained for those not dancing, and a buffet lunch was served during the evening. George A. Lewis, chairman of the committee, was assisted by George Vath, John Eudey, W. A. Marshall and Charles B. Taylor. The reception committee consisted of Will Day, R. P. Coburn, J. J. Price, G. H. Howell, A. R. Lawton, W. H. Vaughan, Thomas Gibson, M. A. Jones, A. C. Raven and Oliver Gallup. Despite the inclement weather, the attendance was representative, and the evening was a decided success.

An Eastern installation of unusual interest was witnessed by members of the order Saturday night, January 9, in the beautiful grand room of the Masonic Temple. The officers of the five Portland chapters were jointly installed by the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Jennie E. Reames, assisted by George Vath, Charles B. Taylor, worthy grand patron, Mrs. A. Antonette Stiles, associate grand matron, Miss Nellie McKinley, grand secretary, Mrs. Mary Scott Myers, grand chaplain, Miss Josephine Stapleton, grand organist, and H. J. Boyd, grand sentinel. Following the impressive installation ceremony were addresses by Mrs. Reames and Mr. Stapleton. The worthy grand matron was the recipient of a beautiful cut-glass bowl from the Portland chapters.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Portnomah Club was held the afternoon of January 13. In the art rooms of the Public Library. After the routine business was finished a short social session was held. Mrs. A. D. Himes, who has just returned from a trip through the South Sea country, gave an interesting talk on her experiences while in that growing part of our state. This was followed by reminiscences of early stage-coach days in California and Nevada, told in an inimitable way by the president, Mrs. Nina Larowe. The next meeting will be the current topics department, which meets at Mrs. Nathan Haglis, 77 Johnson street, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Elmer Walker and Mrs. William Daniel entertained at luncheon and a Five Hundred card party at Mrs. Walker's home, 42 East Thirtieth street, on Saturday, in honor of Mrs. William Ammer. Those present were Mrs. Emma Milburn, Mrs. Max Abat, Mrs. S. K. George, Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. William Ammer, Mrs. William Gill, Mrs. Ed Ouliver, Mrs. George Hemminger, Mrs. B. H. Dotsman, Mrs. William Laurens, Mrs. Wade Kennedy, Mrs. Charles S. Ammer, Mrs. J. H. Haughey, Mrs. Sidney Turner, Mrs. William Daniel and Mrs. Elmer Walker.

Corbin Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Peters, of 322 Hasard street, celebrated his eighth birthday at a party Saturday, January 9. Nineteen friends of the young host were entertained during the afternoon with music and games. Later a luncheon was served. Those present were: Lavern Brooks, Maude Gibbons, Loretta Dumphrey, Gladys Marian, Agnes Washier, Helen Wais, Lucile Washier, Ada Wallace, Katherine Wallace, Hazel Peters, Ray Brooks, Edmond B. Grant, MacDonald, Roy H. H. Homar, Willard Walsh, Rudolf Zeller, Phillip Zeller and Arthur Durbin.

A much enjoyed sleighing party, followed by a supper at a downtown grill, took place on Wednesday evening, Mrs. I. L. White, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Frederick Seller entertained for Mrs. Galland, as did Mrs. Gustav Simon, with a luncheon, Friday.

The postponed reception of the Scottish Rite Masons will take place Friday evening.

On January 6 in Ontario, Cal., occurred the wedding of Miss Mary Laidley and Joseph Muebe. The bride is said to be a charming and accomplished girl, whose presence will occasion considerable entertaining by Mr. Muebe's many friends here.

Under the head of weddings is given an account of the Stearns-Shea wedding, which was followed by a large reception.

The wedding of Miss Ada Barker and Arthur Alexander took place in London on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will spend their honeymoon in Southern France.

NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF WEEK.

A large bob-sled and four horses were used by the Smilers to entertain their friends, Wednesday evening. The party started from Rose Mayers' home, at 8:20 o'clock, ending their drive at Creston, on the Mount Scott line. Mrs. Selinger then open her cozy home to the party and Mrs. Peterson assisted in serving a delightful luncheon. A very interesting program was rendered by the different members of the club and their friends, and dancing was provided. Coasting and snowballing were chief features of the evening. The Smilers are widely known throughout the Mount Scott district. The members are: Rose Mayers, president; Ruth Selinger, vice-president; Lily Peterson, secretary; Marie Chilville, treasurer; Clemmie and Maude Denmore, Loretta Selinger, Alberta Chelle, Minnie Peterson, Emma Brown, Edna McCoy, Clara Deering and Boss Chapin. The sleighing party was enjoyed by the Smilers and Edith Wickham, Agnes Harwas and Babe Mayers, the Mosses, Tip Zachrisson, Harry Chatterton, Fred Moffett, Edgar Denmore, Whitcomb Clark, Jack Healy, C. A. King, Henry Neichen, James Brown, William Laycock and Mr. Burdick.

The New York Society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Captain and Mrs. W. H. Pope, at West Park street, last Tuesday evening. This being the annual meeting, reports were read of the successful meetings held last year, showing that the finances of the society were in an excellent condition. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Lida M. O'Brien, re-elected; first vice-president, Charles B. Hand; second vice-president, Captain W. H. Pope; secretary and treasurer, Charles C. Fisher, re-elected; registrar, Mrs. Margaret Forbes; executive committee, Herbert Boothie King, Daniel J. Haynes, Mrs. James V. Turt, and Mrs. Chamberlain. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening pleasantly passed in conversation. A number of new members were added to the rolls and several visitors from New York were present. The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday, February 2, instead of the third Tuesday of the month.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, will speak at the Young Women's Christian Association, Seventh and Taylor streets, Sunday afternoon, at the 10 o'clock service. Mr. Stone has made a considerable study of the book and his talk will be most interesting. At 4 o'clock there will be reading of the story, "The Perfect Treasure," by Mary Shipman Andrews. The musical program is as follows: Baritone solo, "The Lord Is My Light" (Allison), J. W. Nash; soprano solo, "Resignation," from "Caro Roma," by Miss Eva Wells; contralto solo, "Face to Face" (Johnson), by Miss Rosa Friedle. All women are welcome to these Sunday "At Home," and will find it a most delightful place to spend the afternoon. Time, 4 o'clock.

For Monday evening, January 11, the 26th anniversary of the Multnomah Typographical Union was celebrated at Wood-Hall at Tenth and Alder streets. The entertainment was in the nature of a reception and dancing party, with musical and vaudeville numbers interspersing the programme. A cardroom was maintained for those not dancing, and a

WE PAY THE HIGHEST PRICES FOR RAW FURS AT ALL TIMES. Send for Price List and Tags.

Silverfield's

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED. Send for Fur Catalogue. Mailed Free.

Cor. Fourth and Morrison Sts.

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

ONLY TWO WEEKS REMAIN IN WHICH TO DISPOSE OF THE BALANCE OF OUR FALL AND WINTER GARMENTS, AS WE MUST MAKE ROOM TO RECEIVE OUR NEW SPRING GOODS, WHICH ARE NOW ON ORDER, AS WE DO NOT CARRY OVER ONE SEASON'S GOODS INTO ANOTHER.

ALL OUR FALL AND WINTER GOODS MUST GO, REGARDLESS OF COST

THE COLD SPELL IS BROKEN

And those who were unable to get to town during the past two weeks to participate in the grand bargains we are offering will do well to come in now and take advantage of THE EXTRAORDINARY PRICE-REDUCTIONS WE ARE MAKING THROUGHOUT ALL OUR DEPARTMENTS

Silverfield Furs at Clearance Sale Prices

The present opportunity to purchase a high-grade Fur at the radical reductions we are offering comes but seldom, especially as Furs are steadily advancing in price.

1/3 to 1/2 Off on All Our Fur Coats, Stoles, Throws, Neckpieces, Muffs, Sets

Buy Your Furs Now at This Great Saving

Alders streets, on Saturday evening, January 9, it being the third of a series given by the Pythian Sisters on each month. The proceeds of which go to swell their relief fund. Despite the cold stormy weather, there was a good attendance.

A delightful afternoon luncheon was given by Mrs. J. Patterson Ford at her attractive new home in Irvington, Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Dora Mabel Aklin, who is a guest of Dr. Hazel Peters, Ray Brooks, Edmond B. Grant, MacDonald, Roy H. H. Homar, Willard Walsh, Rudolf Zeller, Phillip Zeller and Arthur Durbin.

The Irvington Dancing Club gave its third party on Thursday evening and those who were present enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The next party will probably be held on Thursday, January 23.

The present Day Club held its regular meeting last week, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Jeffers, 78 East Salmon street. Mrs. Van Tine gave a pleasing paper on the Russian Jew, while Mrs. Pillsbury's able paper described Leo Tolstoy and his writings. The club will meet with Mrs. Tipton next.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-room was in tones of pink. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Shea, Miss Ethel Shea, in smart pearl gray crepe; Mrs. Edward Hollingshead, a sister of the groom; Mrs. Charles Oaten Shea, J. Frank Shea, Jr., and Judge Henry McGinn, an uncle of the bride. John Brunh, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. V. Allen Freeman, followed by the wedding march from "Lohengrin." The bride and groom were escorted to the altar by the bridesmaids and ushers entered from the two side aisles, the maid of honor, the flower girl and little ring-bearer and bride, on the arm of her older brother, Edward M. Jensen, entered by the center aisle. The beautiful ring service was read. On leaving the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Nellie Kenney. At the reception that followed at the home the decorations were particularly attractive. In the reception-room the holiday colors predominated, with masses of holly and mistletoe; in the dining-room green and yellow were used with white carnations. Mrs. V. Allen Freeman wore a gray silk picture hat with lace and fringe and a large picture hat of pink, with ostrich plumes, and green maidenhair trimmings completed a most attractive costume. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich have gone to Southern Oregon and California, and will be at home after January 15 at 325 East Burnside street.

Stearns-Shea.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-room was in tones of pink. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Shea, Miss Ethel Shea, in smart pearl gray crepe; Mrs. Edward Hollingshead, a sister of the groom; Mrs. Charles Oaten Shea, J. Frank Shea, Jr., and Judge Henry McGinn, an uncle of the bride. John Brunh, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. V. Allen Freeman, followed by the wedding march from "Lohengrin." The bride and groom were escorted to the altar by the bridesmaids and ushers entered from the two side aisles, the maid of honor, the flower girl and little ring-bearer and bride, on the arm of her older brother, Edward M. Jensen, entered by the center aisle. The beautiful ring service was read. On leaving the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Nellie Kenney. At the reception that followed at the home the decorations were particularly attractive. In the reception-room the holiday colors predominated, with masses of holly and mistletoe; in the dining-room green and yellow were used with white carnations. Mrs. V. Allen Freeman wore a gray silk picture hat with lace and fringe and a large picture hat of pink, with ostrich plumes, and green maidenhair trimmings completed a most attractive costume. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich have gone to Southern Oregon and California, and will be at home after January 15 at 325 East Burnside street.

Stearns-Shea.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-

Stearns-Shea.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-circle and with a charm of quiet simplicity in all the appointments of the wedding. Miss Roy Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chambers, of Seventh and Perry streets, Davenport, was the bride.

Stearns-Shea.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-

Stearns-Shea.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Anne Katherine Shea and Irving Rogers Stearns, which took place Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shea, on Gilman street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McDevitt in the presence of a reception followed later, to which were bidden 200 guests. The bride, who is accomplished and exceedingly popular, made a striking appearance in her wedding gown of rich ivory satin cut and embroidered in train, while the corsage was elaborately trimmed with pearl sequins and rose points. The bridegroom, Miss Nina Guthrie, and the maid of honor, Miss Cecile Wiley, were gowned alike in director's gowns of rose pink satin, and they carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

The handsome little Dorothy Shea acted as the flower girl, dressed in a dainty pink frock and carrying a basket of pink carnations. Oliver T. Walker was the best man. Miss Ethel Shea, a sister of the bride, who has a charming contralto voice, sang a solo during the ceremony. The drawing-room was decorated in white carnations, smilax and tulip. The dining-

20% OFF ON ALL FURS

Including Fur Garments of every description, Fur Stoles, Muffs, Neckpieces and Mounted Rugs and Robes.

A Complete Stock to Select From and Nothing Reserved.

Reduction Made on All Remodeling and Repairing of Furs.

RAW FURS PURCHASED

We are manufacturers who can and do pay the highest market price. Send for price list

H. LEBES & CO

288 MORRISON ST. CORBETT BUILDING

SEND FOR ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE. FURS EXCLUSIVELY

John P. Plagemann, Mgr.

288 MORRISON ST. CORBETT BUILDING

SEND FOR ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE. FURS EXCLUSIVELY