MISS WALTER F. BURELL AND HER CHILDREN, ALDEN, LOUISE, DOUGLAS, VIRGINIA, AND ROBERT.

FOR THE week just entered two of the prominent weddings of the winter season are scheduled—that of Miss Stott and Mr. Cronan Wednesday morning at the Cathedral, and the Jenkins-Alsworth nuptials the same afternoon, which will take place at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr sail Wednesday evening for Australia.

Many attentions have been extended Mrs. J. E. Montgomery and Miss Margaret on their recent visit in Washington, D. C., while guests of their cousins, Gifford Pinchot and William P. Knox. Miss Montgomery's unusual beauty was much admired at a ball at the White House, given for Miss Ethel Roosevelt, and at another smart dinner-dance which was given for the President's daughter by Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth. The Montgomerys are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Philadelphia.

There has been a general migration to California this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr are now in the southern part of the state; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr are planning to go very shortly. The latter will take their car with them, as they intend to spend the greatest portion of their time motoring. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Nichols leave today for California, while Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis and Mrs. David Honeyman leave in the very near future, as do Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Siller.

Miss Alta Rush and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush, are in Venice, but leave soon for Sicily, going thence to Greece, from there to Turkey, and terminating the season in Egypt.

For many years the Hon. John Barrett, formerly of Portland, now chief of the Bureau of American Republics, has ranked among the most conspicuous bachelor hosts of Washington, D. C. His dinners are invariably smart affairs, which include guests of National and international repute. This past week Mr. Barrett was a dinner host at the New Willard, entertaining in honor of Mrs. Joseph Slickney, of New York. The other guests were: Baron Rosen, Russian Ambassador; the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Meyer, the Swiss Minister, Dr. Leo Vogel; Miss Julia Meyer, Miss Dorothy Whitney, house guest of Miss Meyer; daughter of the Postmaster-General; Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth; Representative Butler Ames, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wallingford, of Cincinnati, house guests of Representative and Mrs. Longworth; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Miss Smithoff, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Crownshield, Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mrs. John Rodgers, Miss Mary Patten, Major J. Bentley Mott, house guest of General Edwards; Mr. Centaro, of the Italian Embassy staff; Mr. Zallinas, of the Chilean Legation staff; Henry P. Fletcher, secretary of the United States Legation at Peking; Henry F. Du Pont and Sheldon Whitehouse. The host and his guests went later to the bachelors' cotillion.

Miss Louise Messick will leave shortly for Fort Stevens, where she will be a guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Farnsworth. Mrs. Farnsworth, who is a great favorite in the army, is the daughter of General Philip. Lieutenant and Mrs. Farnsworth until recently have been stationed at Governor's Island.

For Mr. Fairbanks of New York, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis will give a bridge party tomorrow evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Whiteside gave a dinner Friday, in honor of the students of the English class at Blair Cliff, and with whom Miss Warren traveled in the Orient. Among the guests were Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Hazel Croker, Miss Grace Monroe, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Ernestine Failing, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Josephine Yates, of Spokane; Miss Alta Smith, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Barbara Croker, Miss Adele Dyott, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Cornelia Cooke and Miss Maida Hart.

Many friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. David Jordan over the arrival of a son, who has been called David Hadden Jordan. Mrs. Jordan was Miss Clara Root.

At Mr. and Mrs. David Honeyman's handsome residence on Portland Heights, which is a replica of Mount Vernon, Mrs. Honeyman gave a luncheon Thursday with Miss Susan Stott as the guest of honor. Present were Mrs. David Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Miss Grace Warren, Mrs. John K. Kellock and Miss Hazel Croker. The table decoration was a great bowl of maidenhair fern arranged with violets and lilies of the valley.

Miss Grace Monroe, of Washington, D. C., who has made many friends with a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, is to return soon to her home at the National Capital. Miss Monroe is spending a week in Seattle, but will visit again for a few days here before leaving for the East. On Saturday evening Miss Grace Warren entertained informally at bridge for Miss Monroe, asking Miss Ernestine Failing, Miss Frances Warren, Miss Hazel Croker, Carl Wernicke, Mr. Underer, George Warren and Don Monroe.

Captain William H. Jordan, Jr., wife of Mrs. William H. Jordan, U. S. A., with her mother, Mrs. Beall, and her sister, Miss Daisy Beall, is now in Dresden, where they are thoroughly enjoying the opera season.

With Mr. and Mrs. Henry Corbett as honor guests, Miss Mary Montgomery gave a small dinner Tuesday, which included Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Hazel Dolph, Allan Heitsch, Harry Montgomery and Mr. Remington, of New York.

Judge and Mrs. C. H. Carey have returned from an extended visit in California, and are temporarily at Alexandria Court. During their absence south the Careys closed their handsome residence on Riverside Drive, and the two girls, Miss Evelyn and Louise Carey, were with Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow at Alexandria Court.

Another pre-nuptial entertainment in honor of Miss Susan Stott and Mr. Cronan was a dinner last evening given by Miss Stott's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Laidlaw. Those asked were Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Amy Heitsch, Rodney Gilsan and Harry Montgomery.

Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs has cards out for an at home on Friday to meet her sister, Miss Henry, of Virginia.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Smith are soon to take up their respective residences on Portland Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Linn's home is to be pure Colonial in style, while Dr. and Mrs. Jones' and Mr. and Mrs. Smith's are to be of the old English pattern of architecture. The Smith's new home, erected on their old site, is built of chestnut-stained shingles, with gables of rough cast panel work.

Miss Anne Ditchburn is planning to leave soon for New York, where she will continue her vocal studies with Mr. William Castleman. Later Miss Ditchburn will sail for Paris, where she will visit with Mrs. Chester Dolph, and still pursue her music.

Mr. Robert Smith leaves this week for California, going later to New York, where he will visit his two nieces, Miss Louise and Kathleen Baldwin, of Ottawa, Canada, who visited here last summer. The Misses Baldwin are talented musically, playing equally well on the piano and violin, and are extremely versatile. The girls are studying under Damrosch at the Institute of Musical Art, where Miss Kathleen's unusual contralto voice and her facile playing is attracting attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer, of New York, and Mr. Marcus A. Mayer, are visiting with Mrs. Jacob Meyer.

Mrs. Everett Ames, with her two small sons, has returned from a several months' visit in San Francisco and Oakland.

Mr. Percy Smith on January 10 sailed for Europe. He will go first to Wiershoven, Germany; thence to Berlin to join his sister, Miss Helen Smith, who is studying music at the capital. Miss Smith is a daughter of Mrs. C. E. Smith, and a sister of Herman, Albert, Walter, Percy and Stanley Smith. In all probability Miss Smith and her brother will leave Germany for France with Miss Hazel and Leslie Weidner. All are planning to return to America in the early summer.

For Miss Bessie Dooley and her fiancé, Mr. William Banks gave a dinner at the Portland Grill Sunday evening, asking Judge and Mrs. C. H. Carey, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Genevieve Thompson and Ben Reid, of Oakland.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dooley also gave a dinner for the bride and groom-to-be, at which were Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Dooley, Miss Lucile Dooley, Miss Clarke, Maurice Dooley, Ben Reid, of Oakland; George Dekum and Arthur Meara.

That there is no abatement in the universal desire to render aid to the suffering Italian survivors is manifest in the great number of benefits and occurring throughout the various cities of the United States. Possibly the most mammoth reception in this cause is to be given February 1 at the Waldorf Astoria. The affair is under the auspices of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Ambassador of Italy and Baroness des Planches, Governor and Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, Consul-General of Italy and Countess Massigilia, and a long list of well-known social lights. Caruso, Geraldine Farrar and Scott have volunteered their services, and a remarkable programme is expected. All the pretty debutantes will wear Italian costumes, serve tea and sell programmes to add to the relief fund.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Shepard were supper hosts after the last meeting of the Monday Night Dancing Club, when their guests included: Major and Mrs. James Canby, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Skene, Mr. and Mrs. W. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meara, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson Effinger, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Insley, Mr. and Mrs. William McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kellock, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wheeler, and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Nunn.

A drag dinner was given Thursday evening at the Hotel Portland in honor of Mr. John E. Cronan's approaching marriage. Dinner was served in parlor O, where the round table was arranged with American Beauty roses and violets. Interspersed with these decorations were tables, and small horsehoes, as Mr. Cronan is a lover of horses. Instead of place cards, the places were identified by watercolor sketches of a horse belonging to each guest. Present were: Arnold Rothwell, T. S. McGrath, Dr. J. N. Coughlin, T. T. Strain, Horace Jenkins, E. T. Chase, A. M. Cronin, James Nicol and Robert Eldridge.

A number of supper parties will be given on Friday after the Gadsdi concert at the Heilig.

Another supper party, which followed the Monday Night Dancing Club, was given by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lin-thum. Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Dr. and Mrs. George Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meara, Mr. and Mrs. William Blidie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sykes and Rodney Gilsan.

Preceding the club meeting, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Morton Insley, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kellock, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Talbot.

For Miss Josephine Yates, of Spokane, who is the house guest of Judge and Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Miss Genevieve Thompson gave an Orpheum matinee party Thursday, followed by tea at the Hotel Portland. Miss Thompson's guests were: Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, Miss Hazel Croker, Miss Louise Carey, Mrs. O'Day and Miss Inez Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmond Lipman have returned from California, where they spent several weeks.

Miss Maud Howell is visiting in Seattle, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lammont.

Miss Caroline Hexter left last Sunday for a month's sojourn in Spokane, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. Starbuck.

Miss Etta Morris will give a luncheon at her Kings Heights residence on Wednesday.

Miss Bert Baar and her brother, Dr. Gustav Baar, have left for California, where they will visit the various cities for the coming five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren entertained informally with several tables of bridge for Mrs. Waltheus, of Seattle (Miss Evelyn Smith).

Attracting much attention from all sources is the mammoth card party planned here, to be given by the Portland branch of the Women's Federated Clubs, for the enlargement of the scholarship fund, the sole object of which is to aid young women in their desire to become self-sufficient and wage-earning factors in the community. It is not only to hold out a helping hand to those not able to take up the work of self-education, but to assist others, who out of momentary necessity have already begun their mental training, but have not been able to complete courses in their work, owing to lack of funds. These ambitious young women will be loaned certain amounts of money, without interest, and with no specific date regarding the liquidation of the loan. The only conditions demanded are that the recipient shall prove her worth and give a pledge to repay the amount when she has secured a position, the salary regulating the rate of repayment. This idea is purely a business proposition, and is in no sense a charitable or philanthropic movement, inasmuch as the recipients are not in any way demagogues, and are in honor bound to repay the sums advanced them, when they are placed in a position that will enable them to do so. The local club women will hold their card party in the auditorium of the Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening, and five hundred, bridge and whist will be the games. A candy booth will also be maintained. An admission fee of 50 cents will be asked and the members are anticipating a large attendance.

Mrs. E. C. Shevlin entertain on Friday afternoon with three tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. James McEl Wood gave a small dinner at the Hotel Portland on Tuesday evening complimentary to Captain Pond, U. S. N., and Mrs. Pond. Additionally they asked Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and W. D. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alden Beals gave a musicale at their home last Wednesday night. The guests were: Mrs. Pearl Goulet McGittigan, who leaves shortly to join Mr. McGittigan in California, where they will make their new home. Mrs. McGittigan, who is an assiduous vocal student, possesses a cultivated soprano voice of pleasing compass and timbre. Her repertoire is extensive and well selected. The programme was of an informal nature, most of the musicians present taking part. The list of invited guests included, in addition to the guest of honor: Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Cannon, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Barton, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank N. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Coover, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Dr. and Mrs. William Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. Goulet, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Ditchburn, Miss Nona Lawler, Miss Bees Boys, Misses Goulet, Miss Jocelyn Foulkes, Miss Anne Ditchburn, Miss Katherine Bancker, Miss Georgia Lewis, Miss Gladys Brown, Miss Lottie Banfield, Miss Agnes Corcoran, Misses Mabel and Bernice Ayres, George H. Street, Mr. Holtz, Mr. Hazen, Allen Noyes, Allen Jones, William Jones.

Mrs. Gustav Simon gave a luncheon at the Portland Saturday for Mrs. Samuel Garland, of Spokane, and for Mr. Frederick Siller, who leaves soon for California. Those asked were: Mrs. I. N.
