

Rosenfeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Rosenfeld, to Dr. Joseph B. Wise. Miss Rosenfeld is a graduate of Portland Academy and of the Benjamin Dean Flushing School, of New York. She is a strikingly handsome and talented girl. Dr. Wise is the son of the late Dr. Isaac Wise, of Cincinnati, the eminent Hebrew reformer. He has been the Rabbi of Temple Beth Israel for the past two years and has made hosts of friends during his residence here. Much entertaining is being planned for Miss Rosenfeld and her fiancé although no definite arrangements have yet been made for the wedding.

For Miss Effie Houghton, Marion Dolph, Miss Leslie Knapp, Carroll Hurlbut, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Watson, entertained at opera Tuesday. After "La Bohème," supper followed at the Portland Grill. In addition to the guests of honor there were present:

ever, and is one of the most honored members of the New York State Society, and is never absent from the meetings.

A very unique entertainment was given by the state board of the Y. W. C. A. at the auditorium of the new building on Tuesday evening.

There were various booths, presided over by ladies of different nationalities, and a splendid programme made up almost entirely of lullabies of the different nations. Miss Best and the Misses Potage, from the Scotch booth, appeared in full Highland costume, and danced to the Piper McKinley's music on the Scotch pipes. Madame Kartozain, in Turkish costume, sang a native lullaby to her twin babies. Mrs. Matthews sang sweetly "A Lullaby in Black" to her wee daughter. Mrs. Matthews was accompanied on the violin by her husband, the Rev. W. W. Matthews, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Little Clara sang her dolly to sleep, and a splendid rendition of an Indian lullaby. Mrs. Penney, from the colored Methodist Episcopal Church, rendered Lawrence Dunbar's "Story of the South." The Misses Tebeau sang two numbers, and were in splendid voice. Little Mary Helen Ladd Corbett, on Sixth and Jefferson streets. The hours are from 2 till 5 o'clock. Several hundred cards have been sent, accompanied by a silk bag in which pennies for each year of one's age are to be placed.

The Council of Jewish Women will hold its annual open meeting on Wednesday evening, Feb. 10, at the Temple Beth Israel. Bishop Scadding will give a lecture on "Scotland," which will be illustrated with stereoscopic views. All interested are invited.

The second annual birthday tea of the Visiting Nurses' Association will take place on Monday, February 15, at the residence of Mrs. W. S. Ladd and Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, on Sixth and Jefferson streets. The hours are from 2 till 5 o'clock. Several hundred cards have been sent, accompanied by a silk bag in which pennies for each year of one's age are to be placed.

Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. John Eben Young, Mrs. John C. Alsworth, Mrs. Fred Pendleton and Mrs. William Skene acted as the patronesses Wednesday afternoon for Professor Beggs' small dancing class of prominent children. The little ones are all under the age of 5, and are known as the Rosebuds. At the dancing party on Wednesday last they executed the difficult dances with grace and daintiness. The girls appeared in pretty frocks, with bows of blue or pink in their hair. Among a few of the children taking part were Eliza Young, Elizabeth Shepard, Katherine Alsworth, Margaret and Letitia Pendleton, Jean and Donald Skene, Joshua and Richard Nunn, Lois Nichte, Alexander Sargent and Braces, Alton and Patterson Edinger.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

About 30 members of the New York Society of Oregon met on Saturday, January 30, at the residence of Mrs. James Bell, and went from there to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bryant on the eve of the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant were staying at the residence of their daughter, Mrs. S. A. Durham, 561 Fourth street. After congratulations had been extended by everyone, Judge D. J. Haynes, on behalf of the society, presented Mr. and Mrs. Bryant with a handsome rocking-chair. Mr. Bryant, for himself and wife, accepted the gift with many thanks. Refreshments were served. Charles W. Bryant was born at Allen, Allegany County, New York, March 28, 1827, and Mrs. M. E. Bryant was born at Java, Wyoming County, New York, March 5, 1828. They were married at Java, January 31, 1849, and about three years later started with an ox team for the Pacific Coast, arriving at Portland in the Spring of 1853. About two years later Mr. and Mrs. Bryant took up a homestead, about three miles west of Oswego, at the head of what is called Sucker Lake, and which they have held ever since. Six children—four girls and two boys—have been born to them, and they are now the heads of a family of 11 grand-children and 10 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Bryant feels the weight of her years and has been confined to her room for some time, but Mr. Bryant is as well and hearty as
