WEDDINGS.

Reed-Blackhall.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rosetta N. Buchanan, daughter of the late Captain D. E. Buchanan of Portland, and Jesse A. Scott, a University of California man, was solemnized by the Rev. Charles R. Brown last evening. Only the immediate members of the family were present and the bride was attended by her mother. A dainty wedding supper was served in the grill room of the Hotel St. Mark. The bride and groom were married at the home of Mrs. Scott, where they are to spend a delightful honeymoon. The marriage is the culmination of an interesting college romance begun while Mrs. Scott was attending Mills College, and the groom a senior at the university. Mrs. Scott is a girl of charming personality and counts a host of women friends here in Oakland. On their return the Scotts will probably take up a permanent residence in one of the Piedmont bungalows.
