BY LLOYD F. LONERGAN.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.-(Special.)-That $12,000.000 which the gas companies are. to return to the consumers is causing all sorts of appeals to be made to the lucky holders of receipted bills. The latest plea comes from the Charlty Organization Scheety, which suggests that the money be turned over to its com-mittee on the prevention of tuberculosis. This committee proposes with the aid of charitably disposed persons practically to eradicate the white plague from the City of New York.

Consumption claims 10.000 lives in the Greater City every year and entails upon the community an annual loss of $15,000,-000. Those 10,000 lives could be saved and that immense money loss stopped, it. is said, by the application of a simple but imprehensive system.

"The initial cost of this system," says the society in its appeal, "would approach $700,000. With that sum at its command our committee could gain ab-solute control of the disease in this city. After the first 12 months the death rate, the disease and the cost of prevention and cure would all decrease. Within a very few years tuberculosis would be permanently stamped out in this community with an organization remaining ready to take care of any cases com-ing in from the outside.

How to Kill White Plague.

committee appeals to the hundreds of thousands of citizens to whom say that the unexpected recovery of this great sum by the people was like finding money. There has never been such a distribution as this. Many thousands of citizens do not need the 20 per cent of their gas outlay. If only a very small proportion of these would turn the sums they receive over to the committee, the work of systematizing the stamping out of tuberculosis could begin without delay, with $700,000 on hand for expenses."

The tuberculosis campaign provides for the establishment of 13 additional clinics, making 30 in all. To each clinic would be attached six doctors at a nominal salary of $350 a year and six nurses who would be required to visit the homes of the patients at least once a month and supplement the work in the clinics. The iurses would cost about $175,000 a year. Fully 1000 patients would require treatment in day camps at an approximate cost of $125,000 a year, while others would necessarily be sent to sanitariums. Such of these as are wage-earners would naturally deprive their families of in-

me. To meet this contingency about 10,000 a year would be required. All Spend His Gas Money.

'It seems to me that everybody wants my-gas money," walled one householder my list of acquaintances. "Sometimes almost wish the trust had won the case. According to my figures, I will eive a rebate of $40.35, and here is what it has cost me to date:

"My wife bought a new dress that she didn't need for $85. She mays it really only same to $45, which is very cheap, because the Gas Company paid half. We have had three theater parties at an average cost, including supper, of $15 each; have bought a leather ensy chair for $65 (oh, yes, the Gas Trust paid $40.35 of that), and my son at college has drawn an extra $50 because lege has drawn an extra 150 because of our unexpected windfail, and I haven't get the money yet. Also, a man who says I owe him a tailor bill is planning to atfach the funds that are set apart for me. So it looks as if I were a loser all around."

Did you ever see a "tent city"? I had an unhappy friend who lived in one last Summer. I never could understand why he did it, because he had a comfortable apartment and a good paying position. His tent was in a guiley in a sand lot back of a saloon. When the wind lot back of a saloon. When the wind was from the west, there was a hot sand breeze. When it blew from the east you could tell what was being cooked in the kitchen of the saloon. I might add that only one member of the family of three caught typhoid fever. It may be all right to camp out in the woods where the birds sing and the crickets chirp or scratch their legs (I am not quite clear what it is crickets do), but camping in the limits of a great city is two parts ignorance and three parts

Making Roosevelt a Mason

The "making" of William H. Taft a Mason "at sight" does not meet with the approval of New York members of the fraternity, although, of course, they can-not discuss it. When Theodore Roosevelt joined the order, eight years ago, he was treated just like any other candidate, despite the fact that he was Vice-Presi-dent of the United States at the time. Roosevelt was proposed for membership in the Oyster Bay Lodge by William Loeb, his private secretary. When he took his first degree Masons flocked into the gas companies are soon to distribute to pass, and matilinecock lodgerooms were $12,000,000. It is no stretch of truth to pass, and matilinecock lodgerooms were say that the unexpected recovery of this rush hours. Learning wisdom from ex-perience, the lodge kept the date of the second degree secret, and made the third degree entirely an invitation affair.

Three hundred Masons, all the room could comfortably hold, were invited. Half of them were from the lower end of Long Island, while the other 150 were made up of distinguished members of the order from all over the United States. the order from all over the United States.
As the only newspaper man present, I can say that Roosevelt amazed the members by his knowledge of the work. Un-less he has forgotten it, and I don't think he has, he can visit the lodges in Africa without being vouched for.

The grand master of New Jersey planned some years ago to make Grover
Cleveland a Mason "at sight," but his grand lodge met and took such a de-cided stand against it that the idea was hastily abandoned.

Silly Season for Ministers.

The "silly season" for ministers seems to be with us now. Rev. Charles A. Baton, pastor of the Madison-Avenue Baptist Church, brought here from Cleva-land by John D. Rockefeller, leads the way with the statement that if the Savior was born again, he would not be born on Fifth avenue, but in some poor section of the lower East Side. It is un-derstood that this announcement has aroused the indignation of John D. Rockaroused the indignation of John D. Rockefeiler, Jr., who lives in Fifth avenue himself, and has a very high opinion of his own sterling religious qualities.

Mr. Eaton also remarks that he would decline to take the prodigal son to see "Salome" for fear that the "prod" would immediately start on a tear again.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman has achieved publicity by announcing that he hopes by personal prayers to bring about a change in fashions, and do away with the big hats worn by women. A few days before he commenced his crusade it was stated that the styles would call for smaller headgear this Spring. Dr. Cadman, of Boom for Tent Cities.

E. H. Harriman, who is camping out down South, is quoted in interviews as saying that tent life is the ideal existence, and that he wishes residents of cities could sleep out under the stars. This has been taken advantage of by the sprongetors of numerous tent eitles.

but other people believe it belongs to the Park milliners.

Dr. Parkhurst, who started the vice crusade that drove Tammany from power in 1894, is writing semi-weekly articles for the Evening Journal just like Ella Wheeler Wilcox and James J. Montague. The first ministerial member of the Evening Journal staff, I think his name was Miles, was last heard of on the Bovery, where he was living on barriel to be in the stars. Here is the copy of an ad. I saw in a daily paper the other day:

"E. H. Harriman, the biggest financier in the world, sleeps out of doors to regain." "call of the wild."
