New Suits In Daily

Spring Apparel Styles distinctively different, decidedly exclusive, and so wide a choice is offered that it will be a pleasure indeed to any shopper to spend an hour or so admiring and trying on these smart Spring creations. A marked change from last Spring's modes is evident, as this is a season of long coats. It will be a welcome change to all for any woman can wear to advantage these graceful, long models, and there were many who objected to the short coat suits of seasons gone by. Whether your taste runs to the rather severe, strictly tailored effects, or to elaborate conceits, richly trimmed, there is one here that will surely strike your fancy.

The cut is a good illustration of one of our best Spring models. Note the grace and beauty of the ultra smart Tailored Suit pictured here—the three-quarter length coat with velvet collar and Directoire pendants, large buttons, medium close-fitting sleeves, hipless effect. It is in every way a graceful, stylish model; in fact, one of the most desirable of the season's styles. This is only one of a selection including hundreds. The prices run from $15.00 to $150.00

New Dress Goods, Silks

Dressmakers' shears are snipping, and they are busy fitting and planning smart apparel for Spring wear. Have you made your selection of materials and gotten your Spring gown started?
