ulder and drawn in soft folds the left shoulder and drawn in soft folds to the waist line. They carried huge arm bouquets of fariayence fern tied with pink satin bows, and great Neapolitan straw hats with smart bows of peach pink chiffon. The bride's sisters, Mrs. William Waldorf Astor, Mrs. Reginaid Brooks, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. John Jacob Astor and the Countess Szchenyl, were among those in the receiving line. Mrs. Gibson is said to have looked decidedly Gibson is said to have looked decidedly Gibsonesque in a stunning creation of white chiffon cloth, a large emerald green hat with paradise plumes being especially attractive with her red-gold hair.

Mrs. W. J. Burns gave a musicale on Mrs. W. J. Burns gave a musicale on Tuesday afternoon, at which Miss Elizabeth Harwas was the soloist. The most flattering things were said of Miss Harwas' singing, there being a pronounced improvement since her studies in Italy, particularly in the quality, compass and timbre. Her voice is a spontaneous and dramatic soprano and attracted attention while in Italy, where her stage nom deplume was Signorina Bettini, At the musical Miss Harwas gave a number of well-known English compositions and the "Pace Mie Dio" from the opera "La Forza dei Destino."

Miss Livingstone, of St. Paul, the guest of Miss Katherine Johnson, of Vancou-ver Barracks, was the motif for a bridge ver Barracks, was the motif for a bridge party Friday afternoon given by Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and which included Miss Caroline Flanders, Miss Frances Lewis, Mrs. A. E. Baldwin, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Miss Mary Montgomery, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Hazel Dolph, Mrs. Titus, of Oklahoma, Miss Amy Heitshu, Mrs. Gordon Vorhies, Mrs. Draper, of South Carolina, Mrs. William Biddle, Mrs. George O. Pelgram Miss Katheide, Mrs. George O. Pelgram Miss Katheide, Mrs. George O. Pelgram, Miss Katherine Johnson and Miss Elenor Gile. Coming in later for tea were Mrs. John K. Kol-lock, Miss Margaret Montgomery and Baroness you Witselben ock, Miss and Witzelben.

Mrs. Peter Kerr entertained informally last week at her attractive Riverdale residence, asking a number out to tea and to play tennis.

A house party at Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns' residence at Gearbart includes Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Caroline Burns and Miss Marjorie Barrows. At Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wessinger's cottage at Seaside are Miss Becky Biddle, Miss Milla Wessinger and Miss Maida Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Frank have returned from a several weeks' tour of California.

Mrs. Raiph Matson will give a small fea this week for Miss Bruere and Miss Bartell, of New York. Dining with Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Dixon on Friday of last week at the Hobart-Curtis were Dr. and Mrs. Richard Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauld and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Skene.

At last accounts Dr. and Mrs. Ray Matson were in Rome.

Mrs. J. Couch Flanders left last even-ing for a month's visit at Monterey, Cal., where she will later be joined by Mr. Flanders. Miss Madge Houston, of Scattle, a sister of Mrs. Flanders, re-turned home Sunday, after a fortnight's visit.

In another portion of today's Ore-gonian appears a picture of Miss Gertrude Steinbach, whose marriage to Herbert Werthelmer, of New York, is to take place May 12, at high noon, at Sherry's, New York, Their honeymoon will be spent abroad. Returning to Gotham in midsummer, they will spend the Summer at Long Branch. Miss Steinbach is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Steinbach, a sister of Mrs. M. A. Hirschman, of San Francisco, and Jerome B. Steinbach, who is at Amherst. Their future home will be in New York.

Roderick Macicay asked the following tirls to be his guests on his new motor loat last Saturday afternoon: Miss crances Wilson, Miss Marjorie Barrows, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Baroness von Witzelben, Miss Susie Clarke and Mrs. David T. Honeyman. Leaving early in the afternoon, they returned for tea at the Golf Club.

An informal luncheon of last week was given by Mrs. W. H. Skene at the Golf Club in honor of Miss Reed, of Boston, who left for the East on Sunday. After the guests motored

A bridge-luncheon on Wednesday was given by Mrs. George W. Collins, whose guests included Mrs. Fred Page, Mrs. Robert G. Deick, Mrs. Charles T. Whitney, Miss Gile, Miss Frances Warren, Mrs. Draper, of South Carolina, and Mrs. Gor-Voorhies.

Benage S. Josselyn leaves tenight for a business and pleasure trip to St. Louis, Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia. Upon his return he will bring with him his daughter, Miss Mildred, and his son, Benage, who have been attending a St. Louis school. Mrs. Josselyn and Miss Josselyn were to have taken the trip East but owing to Miss Dorothy Josselyn's ill health the visit was absoluted.

but owing to Miss Dorothy Josselyn's ill health the visit was abandoned.

Mr. and Mrs. Fictcher Linn are now occupying their new home at Nineteenth and Laurel streets, Portland Heights. The musicroom in Philippine mahogany and the dining-room in Coos Bay myrtle are exceedingly attractive. The house is built on Dutch Colonial lines.

Miss Margaret Walter is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hurlburt at their Blood River ranch.

Mrs. William Grindstaff and Mrs. George Schalk have cards out for a bridge-luncheon on Tuesday, May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Taibot spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Salem, the guests of Eastern friends who are living for a time at the capital.

Miss S. A. Middleton has opened her cottage, Beachcroft, at Seaside, and had as guests for the week-end Mrs. J. L. Herisman. Miss Lillie Gantenbein, Mrs. S. A. Middleton, Mrs. J. E. Gantenbein, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pittock and V. Devereux. * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierke were dinner hosts on Sunday evening, the honor guests being Adolphe Rosenbecker, director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and Guy Woodard, the concert master of that organization.

Miss Barbara Bartlett, Margaret Hewett, Louise Burns and Clementine Lambert, chaperoned by Mrs. Henry Hewett, are spending a few days in the W. K. Smith cottage at Seaside.

Mr. Winslow, of Chapters, Winslow, and Mrs. Chapters, Winslow, of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy Winslow.

Mrs. F. M. Branch has cards out for a bridge party on Wednesday, May 19. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman, of San Prancisco, who spent the past month at the Hotel Portland, have returned to Cal-ifornia.

The annual tea of the Woman's Guild of St. Stephen's pro-Cathedral will be field on Thursday from 3 to 5 o'clock at Mrs. Herbert Holman's residence.

A musical and tea was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Flynn by the ladies of the Cathedral parish for the benefit of the Orphanage. An excellent programme was given by the Misses Kathleen Lawler, Delta Watson, Ethel

PORTLAND GIRL WHOSE WEDDING WILL TAKE PLACE IN NEW YORK WEDNESDAY.

MISS GERTRUDE STEINBACH, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. A. B. STEINBACH, WHO WILL MARRY HERBERT WERTHEIMER.

Canby, Mr. and Mrs. El C. Shevlin, Mr.

Mrs. John K. Kotlock will entertain with three or four tables of bridge on Fridey afternoon for Miss Livingstone, of St. Paul, who is visiting at the barter of Dr. Gustave Bruere, who is plan-ning to remain here indefinitely. Miss Bruere has a pleasing manner and is a talented vocalist. Pouring tea were Mrs. Harry Sladen and Mrs. Gustave Bruere. Assisting about the drawing-room were Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw. Mrs. George Cotner Mason, Mrs. Raiph Mat-son and Miss Gladys Feit. Miss Bruere wore a gown of shell pink satin and carried bridesmaid buds. Mrs. Kelly was in yellow satin, trimmed with rose point, and carried Golden Gate roses.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Logan are receiving congratulations over the arrival of their first son.

John K. Kollock and C. H. Davis, Jr., returned last night from a week spent in Potlatch, Idaho, where the latter has timber interests.

Shea and Cornella Barker, with Harriet Helen Flynn as accommunist. The Boynt Helen Flynn as accompanist. The Royal Hawaiian Quintet, stationed in the music-Hawaiian Quintet, stationed in the musicroom, played during the eyening. Receiving in the reception hall and library were Mrs. P. H. Flynn, the Misses Harriet
Helen and Irene Flynn, Mrs. Florence
Sullivan, president of the Aid Society,
Mrs. D. W. Burke, Mrs. John Murphy,
Mrs. John Cestello, Mrs. P. J. Jennings, Punch was served by Mrs. John Manning and Mrs. G. G. Gammans, assisted by Margaret Works and Viola Barensticher.
Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs.
John Barrett, Mrs. J. R. Wiley, Mrs.
John Barrett, Mrs. J. R. Wiley, Mrs.
John E. Cowan and Mrs. Dunbar, assisted by Misses Grace Gearin, Mary Coman, Irene Daley, Cecilita Wiley, Carmel Sullivan, Kathleen McDonaid and Kathrine Dunbar.

Miss Elizabeth Sawyers left for Sesttle

Miss Elizabeth Sawyers left for Seattle Wednesday to be the solo pianist at the last Ladles' Musical Club-concert. While in Seattle Miss Sawyers will be the house guest of the A. S. Kerrys.

A series of invitational teas are to be given by the Arts and Crafts Society at the Shop of Fine Arts and Industries, beginning next Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Thomas Kerr will pour tea. ery, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Mar-Carey, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Marjorie Barrows, Miss Dorothy Morrison and Miss Claire Houghton. Miss Mary Montgomery is the chairman of the committee. On exhibition will be arts and crafts glassware and pottery, the latter including the Penman-Hardenburg, which is perhaps the most craftsmanlike: the Marblehead pottery, made in Marblehead, Mass., and Newcombe pottery from the Newcombe Memorial College at New Orleans. An exhibition of Bohemian glass, the work of Miss lege at New Orleans. An exhibition of Bohemian giass, the work of Miss Marie Kirschner, of Vienna, a friend of Miss Montgomery's, is also to be on exhibition. In the loan collection Venetian glass has been donated by Mrs. Warren F. Houghton, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. William Biddle, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery and Mrs. Gordon Vorhies.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates moved last week from Kings Heights and are now occupying the DeHart residence on Nineteenth and Glisan streets.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesiey Ladd were din-

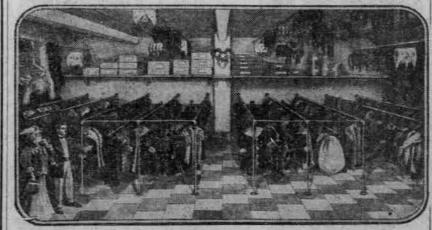

Montgomery and Mrs. Gordon Vorhies.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates moved last week from Kings Heights and are now occupying the DeHart residence on Nineteenth and Glisan streets.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Glibert have left for an extended Eastern trip, going by way of Yosemite, the Grand Canyon, Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia, visiting the Atlantic resorts and returning home via the Great Lakes, Yellowstone and the Seattle Exposition. While East they say they will visit their son, Alfred C. Glibert, who is taking a post-graduate course in medicine at Yale. Alfred Gilbert, in our cold-storage plant of absolute fireproof construction—steel and concrete. A constant circulation of pure dry cold air is maintained which keeps the furs in the best possible condition and free from moths. Our rate for storing furs includes the entire season, expiring Dec. 31

HAVE YOUR

Have your furs repaired and remodeled during the Summer season. Take advantage of our special Summer rates. Let us send for your furs and give you an estimate of the cost.

H. LIEBES & COMPANY

CORBETT BLDG. 288 MORRISON ST.

LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST.

EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Our initial showing of Summer apparel in Lingerie Dresses, of soft batiste, Persian lawn and mull, trimmed with dainty design effects, in combinations of laces, in white, pink and blue color tints. They are truly wonderful creations. Each one seems more beautiful than the other, and they cost no more than the usual offerings you will see, but there is an additional joy that comes of being perfectly attired in the SILVERFIELD way, which no one except those who have experienced it can ever estimate, $10, $15, $25, $27.50, and up to ....$40.00 SEE OUR CORNER WINDOW DISPLAY.

NEW TAILORED LINEN SUITS

There is not a smart model that cannot be found among this great gathering of Linen Suits. The benefit to be derived from so large and varied an assortment is that you will be able to find a suit in which you will feel as if the designer thought of you alone. The strictly tailored suits are to be found here in abundance, also those on tailored lines embroidered in self color that are simple but less severe, and the beautiful lace-trimmed models for dress occasions. Both the skirts and coats show many distinctive new styles. They come in many odd shades that are quite uncommon, as well as in white, pink, light blue, rose, tan and green. Priced at ......$10.00 to $40.00 NEW ARRIVAL OF NATURAL COLOR RAJAH SUITS, STRICTLY TAILORED

NEW PARASOLS

Another arrival of Spring Parasols, more beautiful than ever shown; in linen, silk and pongee, both plain and embroidered, and Dresden borders. Most comprehensive of the season, which includes many exclusive novelties. Prices from ... $1.50 to $15.00

TAN HOSIERY

The neatest patterns in women's tan Stockings brought to America this season may be found here. Several new lots are ready. Tan-colored plain Hosiery in assorted shades, 35¢ and 50¢ Tan-colored lace lisle Hosiery, in boot and allover patterns, pair......25¢ and 35¢

MOTHERS

We are showing a beautiful line of Wash Dresses for the little ones, in shepherd plaids, lawns, cambrics, fancy checked ginghams and percales, including all the latest new French suits, Buster Brown effects and sailor suits. Prices are exceedingly from 25¢ and upward. THIRD FLOOR.

FURS REMODELED—REPAIRED—STORED

and at smaller cost to you than at any other time. Latest styles for next season are being shown. ALL FURS REPAIRED AND REMODELED NOW STORED FREE OF CHARGE

Ours, the largest and best-equipped Fur Factory on the Coast, enables us to repair and remodel fur garments now better remembered, won the pole vault

John D. Bennett, a nephew of H. C. Bowers, who spent the past year here, has returned to his home in New York

Mrs. Julia Marquam arrived in New York on April 28, after two years of travel and study in Europe. She will visit for a month with relatives in the East before returning to Portland. Mrs. Lansing Stout will entertain with bridge Wednesday evening in compli-ment to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cronan.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Plagemann leave this week for a tour of California. An account of the Povey-Plummer nup-

The Alumnae of the University of Oregon gave a large luncheon yesterday at the Y. W. C. A. building. This is junior week at the University of Oregon was the Compact of the Younger Miss Margaret Wiley, the bride-elect, has had several affairs given in her honor. Mrs. Samuel Archer was the hostess at a bridge and plate shower on Monday. Mrs. John Burgard on Thursday entertained with bridge, and a bridge luncheon was given for Miss Wiley yesterday by Mrs. William House.

gon, and a number of the younger set are planning to go down for the fea-tivities, which will terminate Saturday night with the junior prom. A pretty tea on Wednesday after-noon to which about 75 were bidden was given by Mrs. Fielding S. Kelly for Miss Bruce, of New York, a sis-ter of Dr. Gustave Bruere, who is plan-E. C. Roser gas a theater party

EXCLUSIVE STYLES

SUITS

DRESSES

WAISTS

PETTICOATS

ETC.

Drake&SwanCo.

New lot of Pongee and

Linen Suits arrived this week; one, two and three-

415 Wash. St., Cor. 11th

Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Hazel Dolph,

Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Maida Hart, C. H. Davis, Joseph Bradley and Raymond Pelevanian Prominent visitors at the Hotel Portland last week were Sir Graham and Lady Hammond, of England, and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain.

Mrs. William Gleason and Mrs. James Gleason enterfained on Wednesday with lunchoon and bridge in honor of Mrs. Ward and Miss Sadle Ward, who are to leave in the near future for Fairbanks, Alaska. The guests were Mrs. Kent, Miss Louise Kent, Mrs. Thomas Lighter, Mrs. Howard Russell, Miss Mantelle Sey—mour, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Van Rhem, Miss Cornelius, Mrs. Frank Douglas, Mrs. Frank Douglas, Mrs. Frank Douglas, Mrs. George P. Henderson gave readings in negro dialect. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. George P. Henderson gave readings in negro dialect. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Alaska Full Mrs. John W. McGregor celebrated their crystal wedding on the evening of April 19 at their home on Cherry street. Over 69 of their friends gathered, each bearing a tribute in cut glass. The rooms were beautifully festooned with two and decorated with carnations, dog-mrs. Howard Russell, Miss Mantelle Sey—mour, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Van Rhem, Miss Freeman, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Greiffin, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. George P. Henderson gave readings in negro dialect. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Josiah Howell, Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jagger, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martyn, Roseburg: Mrs. Josiah Howell, Oregon City; Mrs. J. E. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richmond, Mrs. J. H. Richmond, Mrs. J. H. Richmond, Mrs. H. Mrs. Mrs. Sadie McGregor and a vocal solo of the evening the provided Mrs. Sadie McGregor and a vocal solo of the service and Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. George P. Henderson gave readings in negro dialect. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Acknowledge of the evening of the evening of the cere. Oregon City; Mrs. Josiah Howell, Or mour, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Van Rhem, Miss furnished throughout the evening by

If Seeking the Newest You'll Find It at the "Style Store"

It is not the number of clothes that distinguishes the wearer but the style that goes into themno danger over-stepping good taste at the "Style Store."

The long protective coat is an essential, so practical is it. These new 52-inch serge coats give the figure so much grace yielding it to their persuasive tailoring. We've a fine selection of white and colored serges, pongees, rajahs and linens; all with good dust shedding qualities. The serges and linens have large black jet buttons and black silk collar and cuffs. Also a very new assortment of three-quarter length white serge coats with straight lines, others with the modish threebutton cut-away effect, trimmed with braid and fancy military collar. We want you to see the new 52-inch light-weight coverts, all in the late mode shades; the beautiful tailored lines of this garment give that mystic touch called smartness. Prices range from $12.50 to $32.00

Alteration Free

Where garments require extra fitting we offer you free the expert tailoring of our alteration department.

Charge Accounts Solicited

It is optional with you to pay cash, or to have your purchases charged; remitting weekly or monthly.

COR. WASHINGTON & TENTH-THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

AND FLORAL DESIGNS

CLARKE BROS., FLORISTS

287 Morrison St.