DR. AND MRS. WILLIAM O. FLACK.

On Wednesday evening, May 5, Dr. and Mrs. William O. Flack, of the Colonial, were delightfully surprised by their friends, the occasion being the anniversary of their marriage, which occurred 25 years ago in Kirksville, Mo. Dr. and Mrs. Flack have resided in Portland for seven years. Not the least happy circumstance incident to the gathering was the complete mystification of the doctor and his charming wife who, having been spirited away by their nephew, W. E. Flack, had not the slightest inkling of the event arranged in honor of their quarter of a century of married bliss until they were ushered into the presence of their friends. After some time spent in happy reminiscences the party withdrew to the spacious dining-room, which had been prettily decked with flowers by Mrs. L. O. MacMahon and others. Here luncheon was served. After toasts and pledging of the health of the bride and groom, Miss Luella C. Maybee, on behalf of those assembled, and as a token of their esteem, presented to Dr. and Mrs. Flack a silver fruit dish of unusual design. The gathering numbered Dr. and Mrs. William O. Flack, Mrs. A. D. Cramer, Charles Cramer, Mrs. A. W. Zimmerman, Miss Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wood, Mrs. Charles W. Hine, Miss Hine, W. E. Flack, W. T. Powell, A. W. Miles, Miss Luella C. Maybee, Miss A. E. Rogers.
