

SULLIVAN DIES; NERVE WEAR DEATH

Woman Who Caused Fatal Duel at Gates Is Mother of Two Children.

THREE DOCTORS ATTEND

San Francisco Relatives of Herve Come to His Aid and Hard Fight for Life Will Be Made—Mrs. Reynolds Remains at Mines.

ALBANY, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—With a bullet wound clear through his abdomen, William Herve, who fought a pistol duel with Henry Sullivan at Gates yesterday noon, is making a game fight for life tonight. Sullivan already lies dead in the little mountain town on the North Santiam.

With death facing them every minute, both men lived all yesterday afternoon and through the night. Sullivan died at 7:30 this morning.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

Doctors Pratt and Ransome, of Mill City, worked with him all last night, and Dr. Eyrd, of Salem, hastened to Gates in an automobile this afternoon.

of the Canby Canal Company, with his auto, accompanied by M. J. Lee, secretary of the Fair Association; W. H. Blair, treasurer, and C. N. Wait, recent owner of the grounds, left Canby for Oregon City, picking up George Laselle, president of the Fair Association, at his "Mountain Ash Farm," and going to the office of Judge Thomas F. Ryan in Oregon City, where the deeds were already prepared, which were immediately signed by Mr. Wait and the Fair Association officers, and the money paid over.

Very little time was consumed in this transaction. Mr. Moore made the run with his auto from the office of the Canby Canal Company at Canby to Oregon City, including the stop at President Laselle's, in 23 minutes. On the return trip 25 minutes were used in getting back. The first part of next week to be held in the fair, which will be held on the grounds in this city September 29, October 1 and 2. Inquiries are already being received for space in the exhibitors' pavilion.

Arrangements are being made for the erection of a grandstand, which will have a seating capacity of 2000. Bleachers will also be erected to accommodate about 2000 more. The lower part of the grandstand will be fitted up as a restaurant, with a seating capacity of 300.

This grandstand will be erected in time to accommodate the people who attend the first horse meet of the season, which will be held at this place Saturday, May 22.

CLARK EXHIBIT READY

WALNUTS FEATURE OF COUNTY'S DISPLAY AT SEATTLE.

Booth Tables Constructed From Walnut Tree Planted in Clark County 50 Years Ago.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 8.—(Special.)—The Clark County exhibit for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition is being boxed and crated and will be shipped the first part of next week to Seattle.

A unique sign has been made to be placed over the entrance to the booth in which the exhibit will be placed. On the sign are the letters "Clark" made out of English walnuts.

Among relics which will be on exhibition at the Clark County booth will be two tables, a chair and a walkingstick made from the oldest English walnut tree on the Pacific Coast.

In addition there will be grasses, grains, wheat, barley, corn and other cereals, and all kinds of small fruits and berries preserved in glass jars.

INLAND EDITORS ORGANIZE Eugene Lorton Chosen President of Press Association.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 8.—(Special.)—At a large and representative gathering of the newspaper men of Eastern Washington, Western Montana, Northern Idaho, Oregon and British Columbia this afternoon, an organization to be known as the Inland Empire Press Association was formed with the following officers:

President, Eugene Lorton, Bulletin, Walla Walla; secretary, Arthur Hooker, Chronicle, Spokane; treasurer, C. A. Foreman, Teller, Lewiston; vice-presidents—British Columbia, T. A. Love, Pioneer, Phoenix; Montana, J. S. Conroy, Republican, Hamilton; Idaho, J. C. Peterson, Enterprise, Deary; Washington, W. D. Smith, Journal-Herald, Riverview; Oregon, E. D. Aldrich, East Oregonian, Pendleton.

The constitution adopted declares that the objects of the association are to promote the interests of the journalistic profession, and to unite, closely the agricultural, industrial, commercial, financial and other mutual interests in the Inland Empire.

INNOCENT, HIS PLEA

Ortis Hamilton Not Able to Give $10,000 Bond.

STILL REMAINS PRISONER

Hazel Moore Telephones to Attorney and Is Told Her Letters Will Be Delivered to Hamilton as Directed.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 8.—(Special.)—Before Police Justice Milton Gies, Ortis Hamilton this afternoon pleaded not guilty to the charge of embezzling $1188 state military funds. He waived examination and was held for trial at the Superior Court, bonds being fixed at $10,000, which he so far has been unable to secure.

Hamilton did not spend last night behind the bars, as the Sheriff announced he would. Instead, he was given the use of the jailer's room on the second floor of the Courthouse, where a Deputy Sheriff remained with him.

MRS. MOORE QUITS SEATTLE Woman Who Caused Hamilton's Downfall Deserts Prisoner.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Florence Moore, the woman of mystery, whose entanglements with ex-Adjutant-General Ortis Hamilton have caused that young man's downfall, has shaken the dust of Washington from her feet. She has gone to her mother in Oakland.

Seven drays were needed to pack the plunder from her rooming house, believed purchased by money belonging to the state. When she arrived at the depot she found seven anxious draymen waiting for her to load. She did not have enough to pay them and returned up town to replenish her purse.

ALL SCREENS BANISHED Grants Pass Soft Drink Parlors Must Observe New Law.

GRANTS PASS, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—Following up the vigorous examination conducted by the recent grand jury in ferreting out crimes, the city government has begun to tighten up its belt, and by provisions of ordinance No. 347, recently passed, all cigar stores, billiard and pool parlors, soft-drink parlors and restaurants and like places selling soft drinks must close at 12 o'clock and not open until 5 A. M., and must remove and keep removed all blinds, screens and other obstructions from all windows, doors and entry, so that the whole of the interior shall be at all times subject to the plain view of persons passing.

STUDENTS GET DIPLOMAS Lebanon Graduating Class Is Addressed by President Homan.

LEBANON, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—The first graduates from the 12th grade of the Lebanon High School were given their diplomas last night. The presentation was made by State Senator M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

GRAIN IS GROWING FAST Wheat at Dufur 12 and 14 Inches High—Prospects Bright.

DUFUR, Or., May 8.—(Special.)—The past few warm days have put new life into the growing crops in this vicinity. The cold backward spring retarded the crops very materially, but they are now growing nicely. Wheat in some places here, is 12 and 14 inches high, and growing fast.

NEW TRAIN SERVICE The new train de luxe is the new Canadian Pacific train running via Spokane. This is the finest equipped transcontinental train in America.

MRS. FORTIER ALSO DIES Murderer Says Revenge Was Motive. Feared to Take His Own Life.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 8.—Mrs. Mary Jane Fortier, who was shot by her brother-in-law, Jean Fortier, after he had killed his brother Michael yesterday, died in the Green Lake Hospital this evening.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by Washing With Wintergreen Compound.

Sole Agents KNOX HATS

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

for M. A. Miller, the chairman of the school board, President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University, delivered the address to the class, which was an able effort.

Correctly Styled Business Suits. The New York business man is noted the world over for the grace and style of his clothes. The Benjamin Lafayette and Poole suits are being worn today by the best-dressed men in New York. Their style is authoritative. The Benjamin label guarantees that, for it means they were made in the Benjamin workroom by the leading tailoring organization in the fashion center of the world for men's clothing. The prices are very modest. Suits, Topcoats, Cravenettes

Buffum & Pendleton 311 Morrison, Opp. Postoffice

PIONEER IS 82 YEARS OLD Mrs. Hathaway Celebrates Anniversary at Son's Home in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Isabel E. Hathaway, one of the early pioneer residents of Clark County, celebrated the 82d anniversary of her birth at the home of her son, O. B. Hathaway, in this city yesterday.

TACOMA SEES U. P. COMING Expects Trains to Reach That City by January, 1910.

TACOMA, May 8.—Union Pacific trains will be running into Tacoma by January 1, 1910, according to statements made by officials in charge of construction of the Oregon Washington Railroad who were in the city today.

FALL LINE OF SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES Ready-made clothes for young men and men who stay young. May be seen either at the main salesrooms in Chicago, 317 Franklin Street, or through our traveling men in their respective territories.

SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES rank today as the best known, the best tailored and the most fashionable line of young men's clothes. Our immense advertising campaign planned for this coming fall will bring forth thousands of additional calls from the public, and every up-to-date merchant should be prepared to meet the demand.

WRITE OR WIRE FOR APPOINTMENTS ALFRED DECKER & COHN 317 Franklin St., Chicago Chicago, May 9, 1909

Splendid Opening for Business. A good location for some kind of business exists at corner of Front and Gibbs streets, where we have a store room, with living-rooms in rear, for rent. It would be suitable for a barber shop, dry goods or notion store. Apply for particulars to I. Gevurtz, 173-5 First street.

A. W. BOWIE, OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY, AND EQUIPMENT THAT HAS BEEN PURCHASED. That the work of the American Bible Society in Oregon is to be carried on a larger scale was the announcement made by Rev. A. W. Bowie, of San Francisco, secretary of the society, who was in Portland last week.