EUGENE, Or., May 15.—(Special.)— Word reached Eugene today that strongly indicates that A. A. Ford. of Eugene, has perished in the Cascade Mountains, probably in the vicinity of Pall Creek

Pall Creek.
On April 24, Ford left Eugene with Dr. J. Christie for the latter's mining claim in the Fail Creek mining district. On April 28, Ford started back over the trail with the pack horsen. Two weeks hater one of the animals was found straying about with his pack intact. Ford has not been heard from.

Two men are searching for him, and another party will probably he organized here by Dr. Christie, who is expected in Eugene tonight.
