FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

BEAUTIFUL NOB HILL HOME.

$14,000 buys one of the most modern and convenient homes in the city; 9 rooms, with full concrete basement and finished attic, all hardwood floors on first floor, 2 fireplaces, elaborate chandeliers, plate and leaded glass windows, tile flooring in bathrooms; in short, no expense was spared to make it strictly up to date; full-size lot, choice location west of 23d st.; this dwelling has just been completed and was built for a home; if owner were not obliged to sell it could not be had at this price; investigate this. It's a snap.
JAMES J. FLYNN,
512 Chamber of Commerce.

$160,000—Quarter block in center of retail district; better than place that sold for $150,000 on 6th st., recently.
$260,000—Half block on 7th st; see this.
$60,000—100x100, Washington st.; income $5060.
$20,000—100x180, Grand ave.; some income; good future.
$12,500—Corner Grand ave. and Main st.
$14,000—2 block in Sellwood, 2 acres waterfront. Better see this.
$10,500—100x100, on United Ry., North Portland; cheapest to be had in that neighborhood.
$4000—100x100, 25th, near Nicolai.
$26,000—100x100 on 12th st., south of Morrison, with fine large 12-room house; best location for apartments in city.
$20,000—Corner Park and Pine sts., with 12-room house; no more left.
THOMAS M'CUSKER, 205 Couch Bldg.

ROSEMERE SECTION ROSE CITY PARK.

$75 under company's present prices, 1 or 2 choice lots in this growing district, only ¼ of 1 block from car; payments only $10 per month, price $15; almost every home in this growing district has been built the last year; count the hundreds of houses. The improvement of Ladd's Hazel Fern Farm will still further push this district to the front.

And the assured cut-off carline down the Sandy road will give it as quick car service as Irvington and quicker car service than Piedmont, and its higher altitude makes it preferable; you will lose money if you don't buy property in this growing residence district now; would rather hold every lot, but must sell a couple.

LITTLE TALKS TO LANDSEEKERS.

WONDERFUL WHEAT LANDS!

You wonder, because they are producing the most extraordinary yields of the world's highest standard White Fife wheat. For a limited time only these choicest of all lands—where one crop usually pays for the land—will be sold by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company

ON CROP PAYMENT PLAN.

LET THE LAND PAY FOR ITSELF.

Your choice of the irrigated lands at $22.

Your choice of non-irrigated lands at $15.

A million acres to choose from—and nearly all can be steam-plowed. Titles to these lands and perpetual water rights guaranteed by the Government—absolutely no possibility of future litigation regarding either land or water. Sunny Southern Alberta is the Colorado of Canada—no cold waste. Produces not only grain, but sugar beets, alfalfa, apples, etc. By joining one of our Saturday excursion parties you get a low rate. Purchases are being made there by men who started with less than you have today. Go and see what others are doing. You can do what any other ordinary man has done, can't you? Are you not willing to trust your own judgment? Can't you believe your own eyes and ears? Go to Alberta and see for yourself. Write to us today for free booklets. Hunter Land Co., General U. S. Agents, Land Seekers' Guide Co., District Agents, 628 New Lumbermen's Bldg., Portland.
