Enforcement of Spokane Decision Postponed.

WILL TAKE EFFECT JULY 1

Railroads Given Another Month to Argue Case, Prepare and Submit Tariffs, Making Reductions Ordered.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—As a result of several conferences, the Interstate Commerce Commission today announced a postponement from June 1 to July 1 of the time for taking effect of its decision in the Spokane rate cases. A further hearing of the case will be had on June 2.

The commission recently had postponed until June 1 the time when the new rates ordered by it should go into effect, but as a result of conferences within the last few days with the representatives of the Hill and Harriman lines it was decided today further to postpone the operation of the order until July 1. The railroads involved are the Northern Pacific, the Great Northern, the Union Pacific, the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, the Oregon Short Line and the Chicago & Northwestern, and were today notified of the decision and also of the assignment of the case for hearing on June 2.

The railroads will, on July 1, put into effect, in accordance with the decision of the commission, what are known as "class" rates from Pacific Coast points to Spokane, which are 16 to 23 per cent lower than the present rates. They also will put into effect at that time commodity rates from the East to Spokane, which are much lower than the present rates, but not as low in proportion as those ordered by the commission.

via Japan, Honolulu and San Francisco, on the next transport. At Honolulu he will make an inspection of the new coast artillery installation in that island and when he reaches the Pacific Coast he will visit the artillery post on Puget Sound.

Mr. Roosevelt has found time to visit parts of the McMillan estate and to discuss the prospects of sport with S. P. Selous, the well-known English hunter and his host. WOMAN IS PUZZLE

Actions of Mrs. Krauss Keep Bay City Guessing.

HUSBAND SAYS DERANGED

Wife of Yellow Fever Expert Insists She Is Probing Alleged Mining Fraud and Registers Under Many Different Names.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—A bewildering network of conflicting allegations surrounds the departure from this city late yesterday of Mrs. Daisy Turner Krauss, wife of Dr. William Krauss, a prominent yellow fever expert of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Krauss has gone to Los Angeles. Mrs. Krauss, who, it appears, has been living for some time in various parts of California, in search of health, accuses Franklin H. Griffith, a prominent mining promoter, of delivering to her blank paper for alleged stock in the Pennsylvania Consolidated Mines Company, which properties are near Redding, in Shasta County, California. Meanwhile, Mrs. Krauss had lived for two weeks at the St. Francis Hotel, this city, as "Mrs. F. H. Griffith," and more recently she spent some time in a Redding hotel under the same name. In each case she was alone. She said yesterday that she had registered under the name of Griffith in order to facilitate inquiries that she was making into Franklin Griffith's alleged operations.

MAN STABS SELF WITH RIB

Patient in Hospital Commits Accidental Suicide in Agency.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 15.—According to the surgeons of the receiving hospital here, George Turner, a teamster, who was crushed beneath his wagon and a hitching post, committed accidental suicide while he was on the operating table. Suffering awful agony from his terrible injuries, Turner, disregarding the surgeon's warnings, railed over in an effort to relieve his pain. In moving he drove the jagged ends of a broken rib into his heart and lungs, and a moment later expired. The last of Turner was particularly pathetic, as he had been married only a week.

HOMES NOW RUINS

Suffering and Death in Wake of Kansas Tornado.

OVER FIFTY ARE INJURED

Virtual Cyclone Follows Deluge of Rain on Prairies, and Towns Are Laid Waste—Many People Buried in Debris.

KANSAS CITY, May 15.—A re-creation of last night's storm, general over Northwestern Missouri and Eastern and Central Kansas, and extending into Oklahoma, and which in places reached the proportion of a tornado, shows three known dead and 50 injured, at least half a dozen of the latter seriously hurt. The principal damage was done at Holle, a town of 150 inhabitants, near Concordia, Kas., and at Mount Washington. A suburb eight miles east of Kansas City. In both of these places practically every house was either damaged or demolished, and dozens of persons injured. The dead:

FREDERICK JEARDOR, a boy at Holle, Kas. WILLIAM ELLIOTT, a carpenter, blown from a derrick at Chilwood, near Joplin, Mo. WILLIAM ACKLEY, engineer of Santa Fe Railway bridge gang, working near Great Bend, Kas. List of Injured. Mount Washington, Mo., 23, three perhaps fatally. Near Great Bend, Kas., 20, mostly members of a crew on a Santa Fe work train, which was blown from the track. Four of these are in a serious condition. Holle, Kas., three. Rosedale View, Kas., a suburb of Kansas City, two. In the vicinity of Holington, Kan., four. Ford Creek, Okla., four. The most serious damage was that which laid waste a district 100 yards wide and a mile in length through the heart of Mount Washington, a sparsely settled suburb to the east of Kansas City. There 20 frame buildings, mostly cottages and the Christian Church, a wooden structure, were demolished, huge trees were uprooted and telegraph and telephone poles blown down.

Five members of the Eckstrom family, supposed to have been killed in their home near Holle, Kan., in last night's tornado, and Charles Quance, a ranchman, who was believed to have succumbed near Larned, Kan., succumbed to the storm. The fact that the storm followed a terrific downpour of rain. The wind came up suddenly, swept down with but little warning, and striking the small territory described, wiped it out almost completely. Frame houses were crushed, the sides apparently being forced inward, while others were toppled over and carried from their foundations. In some cases sides of buildings were carried away, leaving the roof and a few small articles to mark the site. There were many miraculous escapes from death. The 8-month-old baby of Mrs. H. E. Bodmann was blown out of the woman's arms as she was hurrying to cover, carried across the railroad tracks and deposited on a vacant lot with no other injuries than a few slight cuts. The mother was thrown down and badly cut by flying missiles. Charles Greer, 19 years old, was pinned beneath the timbers of the wrecked Greer home. It required a motor car, jack and a number of men to release the boy, who was taken to Independence, near by, suffering internal injuries. He cannot live. Mrs. Josie de Bernardini, aged 41, sustained a broken arm while fleeing to a place of safety.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Quinn, an aged couple, were caught in the wreckage of their home and injured, the woman fatally.
