George Lawrence, Jr.-Prom my point of view the greatest benefit de-rived has been in seeing the country with which we are doing business, meeting our customers and inviting others to come to this city and give us the benefit of their trade. I was par-ticularly impressed by the wonderful development of the Yakima country, while the growth of Grays Harbor was a surprise and that of Raymond seemed phenomenal. phenomenal.

Streets in Smaller Cities. A. H. Averill-I was impressed by the good streets of such cities as Centralia and North Yakima. They would be a creat to Portland. In that respect Ta-transform Portland and this was the most from Portland and this was the most auccessful. after it. F. C. Wasserman-The journey opened After it. F. C. Wasserman-The journey opened my eyes to the resources, developed and undeveloped, in the country tributary to Portland, and to the extent of the bing centers. In the eastern part of the state I was assured that all we had to do was to make the effort and the business would be ours. The ex-curation gave the people of the sections visited the knowledge that we wanted their trade, and gave us the knowl-edge that they were anxious to trade with us.

H. W. Mitchell-The benefits from H. W. Mitchell-The benefits from the excursion will be almost incalcu-table. Many in the party were wholly lable. Many in the geography of the lable. Many in the party were wholly uninformed as to the geography of the country until they traversed it, and did not understand its resources and possi-bilities. I was most impressed by the possibilities for the future of the Yakima Valley.
