Abordeen with a safe hit to the in-field. Despite this handleap. Pinnance was not the least feazed and pitched the game out without the runner advancing any farther than the first sack. The "Chief" was all to the good and his pitching was easily a bright fea-ture of the contest. "Red" Mullin pulled down several high throws with one hand, besides scooping one or two out of the dirt, and otherwise distinguished himself, whil Phil Cooney's all-around work was highly pleasing to Mike Don-lin, who picks him as the best short-stop he has seen this season. Tom Seaton will pitch the final game against Aberdeen in this series, which will be played this afternoon, and Manager Rowland will use Wilder or Seiver for Aberdeen.
