MISS MARY ADELE CASE OF OREGON CITY & PORTLAND WHO IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION MUSICALLY IN PARIS

MISS SUSY SMITH, A DAUGHTER OF MRS. PRESTON CARTER SMITH, WHO WITH A QUINETTE OF OREGONIANS IS OCCUPYING APENSIUM IN PARIS.

A NUMBER of prominent June weddings are scheduled, with three for the week just entered, the Castlemans-Shea, Gostinsky-Jacobs and the Daly-Wiley nuptials. Later in the month will be that of Miss Frances Lewis and Charles Fairbanks, of New York, and Miss Helen Rosenfeld and Rabbi Joseph B. Wise.

The Rose Festival and the Portland automobile road races are prominent events of the near future. Thus early the boxes for the automobile races on June 12 have been much in demand.

Cards are out for a large reception to be given Monday night, June 7, at the Hotel Portland, by the Japanese Consul and Mrs. T. Numano, to meet Rear-Admiral Licht and the officers of H. I. J. M.'s cruisers Aso and Soya. The guests are requested to appear in either full dress or uniform, the reception to begin at 8:30 P. M.

The picture on today's page is that of Miss Mary Adele Case, whose engagement to Claus Spreckels, the San Francisco capitalist, has been persistently rumored. A letter from Paris tells of the flattering reception that greeted Miss Case upon her recent concert at the Theater Fernina. At that time Mr. Spreckels and his father, Adolph Spreckels, occupied one of the boxes, while in the other boxes were seated many of the exclusive members of the old French nobility. Among those in the audience were Princess Odescalchi, Countess de Gramont, Countess Peraglini, Mrs. Theodore Shonts and her daughter, the Duchess de Chauvines, Mrs. Hamilton Payne, Mr. and Mrs. King Clarke, Ambassador and Mrs. White, Consul-General and Mrs. Mason, Charles G. D. Roberts, and many others well known in the realm of music, literature and art. Miss Case was said to be in splendid voice, and was warmly congratulated by her teacher, the celebrated King Clarke.

It will be interesting to Portlanders to know that Francis Richter, the blind pianist, of Portland, is also to be introduced soon to the Parisian critics. His last appearance was in Vienna, and was an occasion to rejoice the hearts of his friends. Leschetzky has said of Richter that he is the greatest genius of the age. This lad, whose eyes have never beheld the light of day, has nevertheless a beautiful gift of vision. Young Richter arrived in Paris in time for Miss Case's concert, and played in her salon to a small but distinguished coterie. He will later appear with her in concert. Whether the rumored engagement will interfere with Miss Case's Fall tour with Harold Bauer, the pianist, remains to be seen. However, in the meantime day and at the Golf Club last night at the completion of the tournament. On Wednesday their guests included Mr. Fender, of Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. Thomas Scott, Brooks, Mr. Rodrick Macleay and Mr. Erskine Wood. At the Golf Club their guests were Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Andre Foulhoux, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr, Miss Sally Lewis, Miss Kathleen Burns, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Miss Caroline Flanders, Miss Frances Lewis, Rodrick Macleay, Rodney Glean, Jordan Zan, Dr. H. C. Jefferson, Erskine Wood, Andrew Kerr and Thales Linthicum.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster leave tomorrow for a few days' visit in Seattle, going over for the opening of the fair.

Miss Dorothy Morrison, who has been residing at the Oak Hill ranch, near Hillsboro, for the past fortnight, returned on Tuesday. Over the week-end she was joined at the ranch by Miss Frances Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Andre Foulhoux and Miss Susan Clarke.

Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett on Monday morning entertained in a novel way, being the hostess at an aquatic party, which was followed by a luncheon. The new Y. W. C. A. natatorium was used and the luncheon was served in a private dining-room of the association. Mrs. Corbett's guests were Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. William Warren, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Caroline Flanders, Miss Ernestine Fink, Mr. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. William Biddle, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Ise Koshler, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Caroline Burns and Miss Margaret Montgomery.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot was the hostess at a luncheon on Friday in honor of Mrs. Scott, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Talbot's guests were Mrs. King, of Harold Wells, and Mrs. King, of Toledo, O., the mother of Edmond King. Both Mr. Wells and Mr. King are comparatively new bachelors who are popular. Both are Yale men and are residing at the Waverly Golf Club. Mrs. Wells and Mr. Scott will remain for a fortnight, during which time they will be at Alexandria Court.

Mrs. H. A. Hogue arrived Thursday from Boston and will spend the Summer visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hogue at the Norrons.

Mrs. Sherman Hall, of Kansas City, (Miss Cecelia Lewis) will arrive Saturday to act as the matron of honor at the Fairbanks-Lewis wedding on June 22.

The dinner danced at the Golf Club, inaugurated recently, are gaining in popularity. Over 145 reservations were made for dinner last night, and much enthusiasm was manifested. It being the completion of the four days' tournament, and Mrs. S. B. Linthicum were dinner hosts, entertaining for Miss Lisa Wood and her friend, Miss Barrow, of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shewitt gave a dinner party, as did Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham. The MacMaster dinner of 31 covers was the largest. Miss Van Robertson was the hostess at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dolph and their bridal party.

For Mrs. Draper, of Charlotte, South Carolina, and Miss Louise Bruere, of New York, Mrs. Gustave Bruere gave a luncheon on Thursday, which included Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Miss Henrietta Elliot, her cousin, Miss Gahin, of Sacramento, Miss Frances Wilson, Mrs. William Biddle, and Miss Claire Houghton.

Mrs. Carl D. Lewis, of Seattle, with her small son, who came to Portland upon the death of her father, the late Colonel William Henry Jordan, returned home on Thursday.

Dr. J. C. Elliot King's sister, Mrs. Marion Allen, of Minneapolis, and Dr. David L. Kieble, father of Dr. Frederick A. Kieble and Mrs. King, arrived from St. Paul last Thursday to spend the Summer. Dr. Kieble will be a guest of Dr. Frederick Kieble at Alexandria Court.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Shea and William Castlemans is to take place on Tuesday morning. They will then leave at once for Louisville, Ky. Mr. Castlemans' former home, where they will visit the members of the famous Castlemans family, going thence to Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., New York, and calling June 12 for Paris. Miss Shea has many friends in Portland, and is greatly missed. She is the possessor of a most pleasing contralto voice and has been the soloist for some years at the White Temple. Mr. Castlemans who has been teaching singing in New York this past Winter was formerly a protegee of Jean de Reszke and has sung with great success in the musical centers of Europe. During his three years' residence here, Mr. Castlemans has never sung in public but he has achieved a flattering reputation since from both the artists and managers of New York and has no doubt a brilliant future in store. On Tuesday of last week a luncheon followed by a bridge and a miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Shea at the Golf Club by the following most cordial girls: Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. George Willard Brewster, Mrs. Oscar Overbeck, Mrs. Otto Prael, Mrs. Arthur MacCorm, Mrs. Harry Humphrey, Mrs. John Francis Shea, Mrs. Irving Stearns and Mrs. George Barber. On Tuesday evening Miss Marguerite Wiley gave a dinner in honor of Miss Shea and Mr. Castlemans, and on Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr entertained in their honor.

Mrs. G. G. Gammons was the hostess at two bridge parties last week. On Tuesday and Friday afternoons. At the former affair the prizes were won by Mrs. F. H. Allison and Mrs. Thomas Gray, and on Friday Mrs. J. C. Robinson and Mrs. Leroy Parker.

Miss Emile Frances Bauer, the well-known musical critic of New York, and Miss Flora Bauer, arrived on Thursday from the East to spend the Summer with their mother, Madame Julia Bauer.

One of the largest of the Spring receptions was that given by Mrs. A. D. Charlton on Thursday afternoon, at which time she entertained jointly with her sister, Mrs. Y. B. Howes, and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Comstock. The handsome Charlton residence on Portland Heights was decorated in flowers of yellow color, with the exception of one drawing-room, which was arranged with quantities of pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern. The living-room and the reception hall were in gold, with roses and Scotch broom, and the dining-room table covered with a Venetian embroidered cloth, had as a centerpiece a great brass bowl filled with carnations and poppies. The early portion of the afternoon was devoted to nine tables of bridge, while a large reception followed from 4:30 to 6. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. J. M. Berry and Mrs. Charles W. Noon, Jr., assisted by Miss Cara Mastick, Miss Maud Mastick, Miss Dorothy Mastick and Miss Wilma Flake. Punch was served by Mrs. Frank Hickemper, while assisting in receiving were Mrs. A. C. Panton, Mrs. Samuel Herring and Mrs. Maud Comstock.

Mrs. T. B. Wilcox entertained on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Ruth Coburn Noyes, of Boston, giving a number of interesting readings.

Mrs. George W. Staver, formerly of Portland, but who for the past nine years has taken up her residence in Williamsport, Ill., arrived Friday to be the guest of Mrs. A. W. Goddard, 80 Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Watkins will return today from a three weeks' visit in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Byron R. Nicholas (Miss Nancy Voorhies) has sent out cards for a tea Friday, June 4, in compliment to Mrs. Draper.

Mrs. John E. Bingham entertained informally at bridge on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her sister, Miss Frances Lewis. Additionally there were present Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Miss Louise Flanders, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. M. L. Linthicum, Miss Amy Hellahn, Miss Kathleen Burns, Mrs. Herbert Nicholas, Mrs. Peter Kerr and Mrs. Harry Shaden.

Samuel Emory, of Astoria, entertained with a theater at the home of Mrs. Wednesday, followed by a supper at the Portland grill. His guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, William Loucks, of New York; Rufus Schuber and Henry Kimberly, both of Oakton, Wis. The latter two, who came to Portland for the Scribner-Kiebles, left Wednesday evening for California, where they will spend a few days at Coronado with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scribner.

Mrs. Max Levinson and daughter, Miss Leah Levinson, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. N. J. Levinson.

The first public concert of the Apollo Club, which will be given at the Heald Theater on Monday night, will be a climactic and unusually good musical season and undoubtedly will be a great artistic and social success. The club is under the direction of W. H. Boyer and the 30 active members will be accompanied by a selected orchestra of 30 musicians. Three of the numbers which were received with the greatest favor at the invitation concert given earlier in the month will be repeated. Miss Harvess, who has recently returned from Italy, where she has been singing in opera, has been engaged as the soloist, and in the big closing number of the program, "Farewell to Hiawatha" by Arthur Foote, the baritone solo will be rendered by Paul Weisager, whose splendid voice has not been heard for a long time at any public affair.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. David Honeyman, Nancy Honeyman, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Margaret Walter and Mrs. Barrows, of St. Paul, returned on Tuesday from a week spent at Mr. and Mrs. James Honeyman's beach residence at Gearhart Park. Over the week-end a large dinner party was augmented by Miss Alta Smith, Miss Josephine Smith, David Honeyman and Maxwell Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierke entertained last Saturday night at dinner in honor of Modest Altschuler, conductor of the Russian Symphony Orchestra, and I. Goldberg, manager of the Russian players. Additional guests were Jacob Altschuler and Mr. and Mrs. L. von Halle, of Berlin.

Miss Ruth Mitchell, of Los Angeles, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chapman (Miss Agnes Hill) have been entertaining a house party of Portland and California friends at their ranch on the Lewis River. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will go to St. Paul, Minn., to spend the week during the Rose Festival with Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hill, Mrs. Walter Gadsby (Miss Beatrice Hudt) and Mrs. E. C. Shewitt. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will be guests of the Chapman's upon their return to the ranch.

Mrs. W. Knighton entertained at bridge Wednesday afternoon, asking Miss Edith Nicholson, Mrs. Mark Gill, Mrs. Carl Knudsen, Mrs. A. A. Kyer, Mrs. Gustave Bruere, Mrs. Louise Bruere, Mrs. C. W. Hudson, Mrs. W. E. McCook, Mrs. W. E. Stine, Mrs. Thomas Gray, Mrs. A. L. McCully and Mrs. P. A. Nitcheby.

An extremely pretty tea was given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. S. W. Church and her two daughters, the Misses Ruth and Genevieve Church, at their residence on Twelfth and Clay streets. The room presented an attractive appearance with the guests in picturesque Summer gowns. Great bouquets of dogwood, American beauties and snowballs were used as decorations. In the dining-room presided Mrs. W. D. Panton, Mrs. Anna B. Thompson, Mrs. H. H. Parker and Mrs. Luther R. Drott. Helping punch were Mrs. W. E. Crane and Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. J. J. Murphy, formerly of Salem, received with Mrs. Church and her daughters, while assisting were Mrs. F. W. H. Hinton, Mrs. A. B. Crossman, Mrs. A. L.
