Notes of Portland High Schools

Lincoln. COMMENCEMENT is in the air. There is but another week of recitation. The various societies are getting their pictures taken for the class Cardinal. The classes and societies are planning picnics. The event of the week was the Memorial day exercises Friday afternoon. Members of the school and veterans detailed from the Grand Army of the Republic contributed to the programme. The High School Glee Club and the orchestra furnished the music. These organizations have practiced to such good purpose of late that they are a credit to the school and to their leaders. Miss Downs and Professor Clifford Milton Hunsan sang the armorer's song from "Robin Hood." Mr. Runyan has a rich, resonant voice. He was so well received that he responded with an encore, "A Song From May." Leah Elusar sang the "Star Spangled Banner" to the accompaniment of the Glee Club and orchestra. Mr. Hunsan's singing was far more meritorious than is usual with singers of High School age.

In the literary portion of the programme the school was represented by Beale Anderson and Walker Paddock. Miss Anderson's recitation, "The Blue and the Gray," received hearty applause. Mr. Paddock, in an original oration on "The Man in the Rank," held the closest attention of his large audience.

Washington. Of course the school is thoroughly saturated with the result of Thursday's game with the Columbia team. This game gives the Washington team first place in the Intercollegiate League, so the race for the pennant is over. The team will play its last game this week, the second game with the Columbia team. While it is expected that this game will be won as easily as the others, the team sees the danger of over-confidence and will play hard. However, whether the game is won or lost, the percentage of the team will still be higher than that of any other team and the pennant is in no danger.

One of the attractions of Thursday's game was the school band, which played, though in a rather haphazard manner. The Philatheans seem to be getting a fair, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman will continue to make their home in Portland.

The Rev. Thomas Crear, of the United Free Church of Scotland, at Leith, is a visitor in the city, the guest of John McIntyre, of Messrs. Baileys, Guthrie & Co. After his visit to the Pacific Coast he goes to New York to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian Alliance next month. Mr. Crear will preach in the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow forenoon.

Piano Exhibit

The Rose Festival week will afford an excellent opportunity for you to come to see our magnificent display and extensive variety of the world's best pianos. FROM MASTER HANDS. Below we give a brief description of an instrument which ranks among the very best in all that is grand and lasting in musical excellence; an instrument in which time, skill and money have gone into the making of what is conceded to be one of the highest expressions of piano craftsmanship.

EXCLUSIVE STYLES THE A. B. CHASE PIANO

The A. B. Chase Piano has character of its own. Constructed of the best procurable materials, adjusted by men of talent and years of experience. The exquisite finish, the solidity, the richness and plainness of architecture, eloquently indicates the superiority of workmanship in every detail of its construction. Tone is its chief characteristic; so sweet and pure that you marvel at its source. From the lowest to the highest note, there is remarkable equality, continuity and smoothness, in the singing quality of its tone. From the beginning, the principle was fixed to give the utmost quality in every feature, at a certain price, high enough to allow for the best of skill and materials, and low enough to be within the reach of all true lovers of music. The above piano is style "L," price $475. Delivered to your railroad station, with stool, seat and instruction book. If desired, you may pay $47.50 cash and the balance in small monthly payments. Beautiful catalogue descriptive of this piano sent on request.
