DRYING DIBNIRAG STARTS FIRE—Fire, which caused about ME worth of damage, broke out at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the lodging-house of Mrs. O. Marstad, at 3i North Park street. The property is an old dwelling house and has been used as a rooming plage. J. N. Berndchau is the owner. The blaze started in the kitchen while the landlady was on the second floor. A dishrag, which had been hung over a hot-water pipe, ignited and fell to the floor, setting fire to the woodwork. A chemical engine put out the fire.

William M. Botts Elected Presiding Eider of Portland District, Succeeding Coffee.

Having read of the action taken by ne General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in scaion at Denver, Colo. on the tobacco question, the Free Meth odist Conference yesterday forences in the First Church, East Mill and East Ninth street, Bishop Sellew, presiding, adopted the following congratulatory dispatch and ordered the secretary to send it to the Presbyterian Assembly.

dispatch and ordered the secretary to send it to the Presbyterian Assembly.

The Oregon Conference of the Free Methodist Church of North America, now assembling in the city of Portland. Or. and presided over by Bishop Watter A. Sellew, of Jamestown, N. Y. desire to extend to your honorable body most sincers and cordini fraternal greetings. We wish to congratisfate you on the stand you have taken in prohibiting the use of tobacco on the part of ciergymen and the lay members as well who are members of your great organization. In taking this fearless stand you do yourselves and your denomination great honor and credit and have strengthened the cause of a cleaner Christianity throughout Christendem. As a denomination we have stood for this and many kindred reforms for years, and we hall with unspeakable pleasure and peculiar delight the strong and locreasing sentiment that is being awakened among all lines of consistent Christian life habits.

ten itself, but the optimistic webfooter usually notices that it may be depended upon to do the right thing at the right time.

It can be depended upon to bring strawberries, roses, cherries, apples, peaches, pears, melons and grapes in persistent regularity and profusion.

Particularly is this true of the great Yambili section, and in this connection recent reports from these parts show large and abundant crops. We old Oregonians are pretty enthusiastic over the future of Oregon as the farming center of the Northwest. It is bound to be the psychological center of gravity for the thousands of colonists arriving over the various roads during the low rate periods.

Gradually the large farm holdings are being broken up and divided into 5 and 19-sere tracts. A striking illustration of this is the famous old Broadmead farm, located in Yambill and Polk counties on the Bouthern Pacific and the projected McMinnville branch of the Oregon Electric road.

It may be said that this Breadmead farmsite is to become the pivetal point in this great productive country.

At the present time the townsite of Breadmead is being laid out by the Columbia Trust Company, at the junction of the two converging lines, and great activity is shown over the entire tract of 2006 acres. Intensive farming on a 5 or 16-acre tract is the true solution of the agricultural problem in this great Northwestern country, and we find in the Yambill section centering around Breadmean the greatest possibilities for the future.
