

David Honeyman is accredited with the most faithful impersonation of a country maiden. She was attired in a vivid blue cotton skirt, a striped eon jacket of a decidedly passe mode, pink stockings, tan shoes and a bizarre leghorn hat tied under the chin. The lot was profusely decorated with ferns, flags and lanterns.

Mr. and Mrs. James McL. Wood recently began the construction of a residence on Portland Heights on Prospect Drive, north of Mr. and Mrs. David Honeyman's handsome home of colonial type. Mr. and Mrs. G. Reed are also planning to build this summer in this immediate neighborhood. The Wood residence is to be built of white shingles, with sloping gables, while the interior will be finished in Oregon woods.

Mrs. Edward Griffith, of Ross Valley, Cal., who has visited in Portland on several occasions, is the guest of Mrs. William McKenzie. Mrs. Griffith is a cousin of Mrs. James Coffin, of California, who is popular here, where she lived some years ago. Mrs. Coffin is a granddaughter of the late General Allen, of Allen & Co. Friday, Mrs. Griffith and Koehler gave luncheon in Mrs. Griffith's honor, at which were present Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Mathey, Mrs. Arthur Minott, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. William Ladd, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, Mrs. T. R. Wilcox and Mrs. William McKenzie.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Hannah Adair and Lausant Richter Rogers, of New York. The ceremony will take place Saturday afternoon, June 12, at 3 o'clock, at the pro-cathedral of Saint Stephen the Martyr. Miss Adair is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickinson Adair and a granddaughter of the late Bishop B. Wistar Morris and Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. J. G. Gauld entertained with four tables of bridge, Wednesday for Mrs. Griffith, of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. William McKenzie. The guests were Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. Fred H. Page, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. Gordon Voorhes, Mrs. Draper, of South Carolina, Mrs. S. B. Lintoun, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mrs. Daniel Shindler, Miss Ernestine Failing. Tea was poured by Mrs. William McKenzie and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot were dinner hosts Friday evening, entertaining for George Barclay Moffat, of New York, who is one of the owners of the Oregon Electric Railway. Accepting Mr. and Mrs. Talbot's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. W. M. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin. Mr. Moffat is a guest at the Portland Hotel, where he will remain for a week.

Captain Elliott, U. S. N., who has been appointed Lighthouse Inspector of the Thirteenth District, returned last week by Mrs. Elliott, who is popular socially in California. They have taken apartments for a month at the Guillaume, and will leave then on a lighthouse tender for a trip to Alaska. Upon their return they will make their home in Portland until further orders are received by the Captain. The Misses Elliott are visiting friends at the Hotel Coronado.

Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Miss Laura Smith and Margaret Ayer are passing a fortnight in Paris before leaving for Switzerland, where they will spend the remainder of the summer. While in Paris they met Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Burns, who have been at the capital during the time their daughter has been attending a French school.

A dinner-dance at the Golf Club last night was given by Kurt Koehler, who asked the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Doolittle, Miss Carolyn Burns, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Miss Ida Wilson, Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Freda Dolph, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Becky Biddle, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Ida Koehler, the hostess, Maxwell Wood, Erskine Wood, Maurice Dooley, Kenneth Beebe, Elliot Corbett, Charles Holbrook, Irving Webster, Thomas Scott, Brooks Joseph Bradley, Floden Stott, Raymond Wilcox and Harry Failing.

Mrs. E. C. Mears and her daughters, Antoinette and Georgianna, with Mrs. C. H. Prescott, are spending the month of June at Hood River.

Miss Celeste Moore has been entertaining Miss Louise Pierce, of Grand Rapids, Mich., whom she met on a steamer en route to Europe. During her several days' visit a number of informal things were done in Miss Pierce's honor. Miss Pierce left for the East Wednesday, visiting at the Seattle exposition en route.

Cards have been received announcing the wedding of Miss Marion Blakely, of Tacoma, and Bruce Honeyman, son of Mrs. Jessie Honeyman, which took place Wednesday evening in Tacoma. Elliot Corbett acted as the best man.

Miss Luella Clay Carlson, dean of women and professor of English at the University of Oregon, is visiting Mrs. Martin Winch. Miss Carlson came to attend the alumnae meeting of St. Helen's Hall.

The wedding of Miss Ruby Jacobs and Philip Gossinsky, of San Francisco, which took place at the Jacobs' residence on West Park street, Wednesday evening, was confined to the immediate relatives. The ceremony, which was read by Rabbi Joseph B. Wise, was followed by a reception and supper. A canopy of roses and greens was erected as an altar, while the entire home was profusely decorated with pink bridesmaid buds. Parson's orchestra furnished the music. The bride's gown was an exceptionally handsome one of hand embroidered chiffon over satin, with a great shower bouquet of lavender orchids. She carried a big bouquet and wore a superb necklace and lavillar rubies and diamonds, the groom's gift. Miss Hilda Jacobs, the maid of honor, and Misses Frances and Miriam Gossinsky, the bridesmaids, were attired in imported gowns of pink chiffon and carried Duke of Richmond roses. Samuel Gossinsky, of San Francisco, was the best man.

Among the out-of-town relatives, who attended were Mrs. E. Gossinsky, of San Francisco, Mrs. Foster, Banner, of New York, Mrs. Harriet Meyer and Julius Brownstein, both of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips, of Honolulu and their two children.

Mrs. Ralph Jacobs appeared in a handsome gown of black chiffon and lace. Mrs. L. Lang wore a striking de-collette gown of brown sequins. Mrs. L. N. Fleischner, in a gown of apricot satin and a necklace of pearls. Mrs. Gossinsky in black lace and jet, and Mrs. Phillips in a Paris gown of embroidered chiffon of a cherry shade. Mr. and Mrs. Gossinsky left for a trip to Banff Springs.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Helen Holbrook, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Philo Holbrook, to Dr. Thomas Wynne Watt, which took place on Monday, May 31, in New Orleans. The bride, who has many friends here, attended school at Chevy Chase, near Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vial, with their small children, left last week for Butler, Wash., where they will camp during the summer. Mr. Vial has purchased considerable property at Butler, which is opposite Multnomah Falls and is contemplating building there later. The two cunning Vial children, Clarice and Herbert, were born in Paris, have a French nurse and converse entirely in the court language.

Mrs. Lena McCoy, formerly of Portland, has now returned to her home in San Francisco after a four months' tour of the Orient.

Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell was registered last week at Hotel Chalfonte, Atlantic City.

Mrs. Rose Courson Reed left Wednesday for Marshfield, Or., where she sang the final concert of the Chalmers Club. She will return this evening.

Mrs. Caro W. Jacobs and Miss Carolyn Lowengart left last Wednesday evening for San Francisco.

Mrs. I. Frohman has returned from a several months' visit in Florida and New York. Miss Stella Frohman, who is expected soon, is now visiting in Elberon, N. J. She has also been a guest of Miss Helen Bates, at Smith College.

Miss L. Bernard called Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II for Europe.

Over 300 guests attended the Portland Heights Club's promenade concert on Tuesday night, which marked the closing of the season. The pretty clubhouse was decorated with roses and ferns, while the gallery, adjacent grounds and trees were hung with myriads of brightly colored lanterns. A musical programme was given by a dozen members of the Portland Symphony Orchestra under the direction of David Rosebrook. Dancing followed, though there were a number of howling and bridge devotees. Supper was served on the gallery. The patronesses, Mrs. F. H. Page, Mrs. M. B. Houser, and Mrs. John A. Keating, were the hostesses. A number of prominent girls assisted in serving.

Miss Ethel Chamberlain, who leaves later for New York, gave a dinner on Thursday to which she asked Miss Dorothy Rittinger, Nell Willis, Carrie Short, Cora Wohl, Clara MacEwan, Ralph Charlton, T. H. Anderson, Walter Gleason, Richard Jones, E. Scott, Laure Harold Chamberlain. The centerpiece was a toy motor car formed of roses.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas entertained with a musicale Tuesday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Bruere, of New York. The guests included the majority of prominent Portland musicians.

The annual commencement hop of Hill Military Academy occurred Friday night, 200 guests being present. The dancing was in the Academy Armory, supper being served in the schoolrooms. The grand march was led by Miss Ethel Chamberlain and J. W. Hull.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Smith are in Washington, D. C., where Dr. Smith went to attend the American Medical Association. They have also visited in Atlantic City.

An elaborate wedding was that of Miss Marguerite Wiley and John Francis Daly on Wednesday noon at St. Mary's Cathedral, the ceremony being performed by Archbishop Christie and the mass read by Father Thompson. Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, who had charge of the music, sang a solo as did Miss Katherine Lawler and Dom J. Zan, while Father Dominic, of Mount Angel, presided at the organ. The church decorations were palms, daisies, ferns and white peonies. Mrs. Frank Dooly, the matron of honor, appeared in a gown of Princess lace, and Miss Charissa Wiley, the maid of honor, wore white chiffon trimmed with tulle, a dour velvet, and a striking hat covered with willow plumes. The bride wore a lovely gown of director's satin trimmed with both rose point and duchesse lace, a full-length veil, and she carried bride's buds. Walter Daly was best man and the ushers were Frank Longenecker, James Flynn, Charles V. Galloway and James Cole. The bridesmaids were Miss Cecile Wiley, Miss Irene Daly and Miss Nan Stack, of Chicago. The former two wore sheath gowns of pink chiffon with coronet wreaths of Cecil Bruere roses in their coiffures. Miss Stack wore an Empire Dresden gown, while the entire bridal party carried bouquets of Cecil Bruere buds. Two hundred guests attended the reception at the Montgomery street residence. The music room was in pinks and pink carnations, the library in marguerites, and the hall and living-room in greens and bridesmaid roses.

Assisting were Mrs. J. F. Wiley, in white lace, Mrs. Daly, in wistaria satin, Miss Luella Dooley, Mrs. Samuel Archer, Mrs. Emma Galloway, Mrs. Irene Calbraith, Miss Zephia Galloway and Mrs. J. P. Kavanaugh. Mr. and Mrs. Daly left for Del Monte and will sail soon for a trip to Honolulu.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Louis R. Barras entertained a few friends at a Rose tea in the grillroom of the Portland. The table was beautifully decorated with white roses and maiden hair fern. Those present besides the hostess were Mrs. Fletcher Lin, Mrs. George Nicholson, Mrs. J. J. Pantan, Mrs. A. W. Payne and Mrs. W. F. White.

Robert Sears, son of the late Judge Sears, will graduate this month from West Point. Mrs. Sears and her daughter, Miss Minnie Sears, have gone to witness the ceremony.

Mrs. James Dougherty, her son Jack, the Misses Dorothea and Ankelea Kinney, of Salt Lake, returned last week to their King's Heights residence after several months' tour of the Continent.

In honor of Miss Frances Lewis, Mrs. Zera Snow gave a luncheon at the golf links Friday. Mrs. Snow's guests were: Mrs. John Effering, Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. David Lewis, Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. W. S. Biddle, Mrs. Walter Burrell and her guest, Miss McC

Mrs. John Drew is accompanying her husband on his present tour of the Pacific Coast. This is Mrs. Drew's first trip West, and as her husband is a great favorite in Portland and California, a number of affairs are being planned in their honor. Their daughter has just made her debut in London as a member of Billie Burke's company in the production of "Love Watches."

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A novel and charming evening was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Montrose M. Ringler on Tuesday evening, June 1, when they celebrated their tenth anniversary by giving a tin wedding at Ringler's Hall. The walls were banked with masses of Scotch broom, while tin plates and dishes of all sizes and shapes were hung from the mouldings and in long garlands across the hall. Tin hanging baskets of field daisies added grace and beauty to the tout ensemble. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Ringler were Mrs. R. E. Jones, mother of Mrs. Ringler; Miss Helen Jones and Mrs. Charles Ringler. Mrs. Montrose Ringler wore her wedding gown of cream lace over silk and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Jones was in gray silk with touches of black. Miss Jones in white and Mrs. Charles Ringler in blue. Many of the guests were at the wedding ten years ago. Tin was the feature throughout the entire decoration, and even the refreshments were all served on tin plates. In the dining-room Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, in white lace, and Mrs. Gwendlyn Jones, in pale pink, presided, assisted by the Misses Abby Lamberson, Alice Collier, Adele Dyott, Madeline Berry, Bertha Masters and
