ALICE MAUDE FORBES, POPULAR PORTLAND GIRL, GRADUATES AT OSSINING.

Alice Maude Forbes, the daughter of Rev. W. O. Forbes, of this city, graduates from Ossining School, New York, Tuesday, June 8, and on the following day will leave for Portland with her sister, Lula Dahl Miller. They will visit at Washington, D. C., en route, and also in Indiana, Chicago and St. Paul, arriving in Portland the first week in July. Miss Forbes is a Portland Academy alumna, and a popular girl at Ossining, graduating with honor.

Mrs. George W. Stapleton was selected to make arrangements for a club picnic and trolley party to be given in the near future. Mrs. J. B. Hosford was requested to pay over to the Flower Mission the money now in the treasury of the club. An interesting letter from Mrs. G. B. Collins was read, in which she thanked the members for a beautiful palm which they had sent her while she was detained at the Good Samaritan Hospital after undergoing a serious operation. The members were much pleased to learn that she was rapidly gaining strength and would soon return to her home. After the business session of the club cards were played, the prizes being won by Mrs. George F. Bree and Mrs. J. B. Hosford.

The friends and members of the Sorosis Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. J. S. Malchester, 243 1/2 Grant street, Tuesday afternoon to hear a lecture on "Allusions to Music in Shakespeare," given by Frederick W. Goodrich. Mr. Goodrich was thoroughly familiar with his subject, and brought out many points that even close students are liable to miss. After the lecture Mrs. E. E. Jesse, president of the Sorosis, presented Mrs. H. Donivan, Mrs. A. Grossman, Mrs. Walter Holt, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. T. H. Minard, Mrs. J. G. Nichols, Mrs. G. P. Phillips, Mrs. S. Phelps, Mrs. I. Shub, Mrs. L. Sherrod, Mrs. M. B. White. The club's guests were: Mrs. F. E. Jesse, Mrs. F. W. Dana, Miss Florence Dana, Miss Priest, Miss Sherman, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. George H. Thomas, Mrs. J. M. Lane, Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mrs. E. C. Fety, Miss Mabel Fety, Mrs. H. A. Cushing, Mrs. E. O. Clark, Mrs. Lathaw and Mrs. George D. Rushmore.

The parlors of the First Presbyterian Church were thrown open for the enjoyment of about 200 young people, who assembled Wednesday evening to honor the winning section of the Warren Bible class. Miss Iva Teter, captain of the crusaders, who won the victory, received the congratulations of each guest as she passed through the line receiving. The guests were cordially met by a bevy of young ladies, most becomingly attired, who entertained in a charming manner. The refreshments, beautifully decorated in red and white, with large bouquets of ferns and red roses. The refreshment table was presided over by young ladies. The Warren orchestra rendered an excellent programme which was thoroughly appreciated and the musical programme received a gracious response. Miss Irene Utter and Miss Mabel Vantress assisted Mrs. Warren and Miss Teter in receiving.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church held its regular monthly meeting, June 2, in the church parlors. It was the last meeting prior to the summer vacation and presented a most novel attraction in the singing of William Lai, a native Oregonian of Chinese parents. Mr. Lai has a tenor voice which was shown to best advantage in "When You'll Remember Me," "Thou Art Like a Lovely Flower," and in duet, "Oh, sat We Two Were Maying." Mrs. Marie Whitman sang "Ave Maria," "My Mother Bless Me," "You, Dear and I," crowning the whole with that charming old favorite "Annie Laurie." Light refreshments were served and a social hour followed. The hostesses were: Mesdames Sabin, Taylor, Thompson, Turner, Walker, Walton, Warren, Lathrop, Griswold and Cross.

Tuesday evening, June 2, the final meeting of the Pilekth Five Hundred Club was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Trent at Mount Taber, the guests being conveyed to and from in automobiles. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. L. Du Puy and Mr. Cobb, the consolation prize being carried off by J. L. Kincaid.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Clerin, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Du Puy, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harburt, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kincaid, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Trent, Mrs. F. Smith and Earl Cobb.

The birthday tea, given by the Women's Auxiliary of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Hartman at Washington last Wednesday was a successful one. More than 100 guests attended. The large attendance was undoubtedly due to the excellence of the musical programme given by the following: Mrs. J. W. Beveridge, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Mrs. J. C. Crook, Mrs. Daisy, Mrs. F. H. Fleming, Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Miss Comillie Herz, H. H. Griffin, Miss Nona Lawler, Mrs. Arthur Mills and Mrs. Potts.

The Christian Church benefit entertainment given last Wednesday evening was a splendid success. The playing of Eva and Pearl Vore, child pianists, bore testimony to a brilliant future for them. Marguerite Debert, monologist, was enthusiastically received and encored repeatedly. Miss Susie Jones, soprano, was one of the pleasing attractions of the evening. Others assisting on the programme were Florence Wuest, a clever pianist, and Irene Brandes, Helen Pearce, Annet Larson, Marie Sandercock, Lucile McCorkle, Frances McGill, Ruth Sellwood.

On Friday last the senior class of the Lincoln High School spent a very enjoyable day at Oswego. The officers of the class are: President, Walker Pedersen; vice-president, Ada May Bigger; secretary, Keren Davis; treasurer, Carl Martzloff; sergeant-at-arms, Judith Bernstein.

Oriental Rugs

There is hardly anyone who will question the fact that the ORIENTAL RUG is one of the greatest factors in making the "HOME BEAUTIFUL," and yet the name "ORIENTAL" alone is never a guaranty of such a result.

It requires years of experience, thorough knowledge of the different weaving districts and a special study of colors and designs in order to bring together a collection from which an average purchaser can safely select. It needs a visit to our store to convince anyone that our large display measures up to that requirement.

Our new importations have all arrived, making our collection by far the LARGEST and BEST in the whole Northwest.

Let us show you. OUR PRICES ARE NO HIGHER, although the SELECTION IS MUCH CHOICER.

We invite inspection.

Miss Moffett leaves for San Francisco the middle of the month.

The entertainment and sociable given last night at the Fourth Presbyterian Church was one of the most enjoyable ever given in South Portland. The star attraction was a juvenile string orchestra, and as this was its first appearance in public a great deal of interest was shown in this organization, which consists of 15 young boys and girls.

The Misses Ethel Wilson, Dorothy Biles, Constance Davis and Marion Hills, assisted by Mrs. G. A. Rogers and Miss Lucille Hills, gave an enjoyable programme of readings, musical numbers and sketches at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Allen Althoff, 711 Multnomah street, Thursday evening, June 3. Many friends were present.

Miss Hannah Haglund, a bride-elect, was entertained with a shower from a party of girl friends Thursday evening. The bride was the guest of honor. The prize was won by Miss Annie Donovan.

WEDDINGS.

Smith-Faber.

A wedding of much interest was celebrated on Thursday, June 3, at the Church of the Ascension, in Montavilla, when William L. Smith, and Miss Marie Annia Faber were married by Rev. Father James B. Fitzpatrick. The services were read at the hour of high mass, Rev. Father L. A. Brosseau assisting in the wedding ceremony. The first to be held in the new church. The bride who is an attractive brunette, was gowned in ivory crepe de chine.

entraine, and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses. Her sister, Miss Josephine Faber, was maid of honor, and was charming in a white lace gown with which she carried white carnations. The bride was given away by her father, Nicholas Faber. The groom's attendant was his brother, Steven Smith, and the ushers were Tom Johnson and E. W. Schlueter. After the services at the church, a reception and wedding breakfast followed at the bride's home, 1904 East Washington street. The decorations in the home were especially effective of white bell flowers, combined with ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have gone to Seattle for a fortnight, after which they will reside in Portland.

Hurburt-Richmond.

Last Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richmond, 145 East Thirty-third street, 90 guests witnessed the marriage of Miss Frances E. Richmond to Rodney A. Hurburt. The rooms of the residence were tastefully decorated with Oregon wild grape and the bride wore an empire gown of white messaline silk. Miss Marguerite Geisler, dressed in white and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, acted as maid of honor, while the groom was attended by his brother, Raymond P. Hurburt, William J. Richmond, brother of the bride, and Marshall Case were the ushers. Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, rector of St. David's parish, performed the ceremony. Refreshments were presided over by Mrs. A. J. Nees and Mrs. R. A. Phelps and assisted by Miss Marjorie Hurburt, Lois Richmond and Marion Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Hurburt left for a visit to the Sound country.

Cooke-Wicke.

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wicke, 738 Corbett street, Tuesday evening when their daughter, Anna Marie, was married to Fred A. Cooke, Rev. J. A. Leas officiating. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of white carnations, roses and sweet peas. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Ida Erdmann, who also at the close of the ceremony played the bridal hymn and festal play from "Lohegrin." During the reception refreshments were served, while Miss Myrtle Hummel rendered a vocal solo, "Oh, Promise Me." The bride was tastefully gowned in white liberty satin. Her sister, Marguerite, acted as maid of honor and wore a gown of white lace. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke left for Puget Sound for a short wedding trip.

"BEAUTIFUL FACE AND NO MORE WRINKLES"

FREE BEAUTY COUPON

Arrangements have been made with Harriet Meta, world's famous Beauty Specialist, of Paris, London and Syracuse, N. Y., to furnish free particulars to all in regard to what is believed to be the most remarkable method of removing wrinkles which has ever been discovered. Harriet Meta has been awarded nine gold medals by Paris, London, Brussels, Rome and other international exhibitions on her great beauty discoveries. The French government has honored her with a patent on her wonderful new process for removing wrinkles, and patents are also now pending before the United States Government at Washington. Harriet Meta is herself a living example of the great power of her remarkable beauty-making discovery. She is considered the most beautiful woman in all Paris. She took her own wrinkles out in three months by her new discovery over three years ago, after face massage, masks, steam and steaming pots had failed to remove them, and her skin today is still soft and smooth; her face beautiful, and she has no more wrinkles. But, best of all, her discovery not only succeeded in her own case, but it seems to have worked even more astonishing results in the cases of others. Mrs. Mary J. Davis, of East St. Louis, Ill., says: "My wrinkles were very deep and of long standing, so you can imagine my surprise when, after only two applications, they entirely disappeared." Mrs. L. E. Haskell, of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Cal., writes: "I am 50 years old, consequently my wrinkles were of long standing, and I had not thought it possible to erase them, but now, when I view my changed reflection in the mirror, I can scarcely realize the transformation that has been wrought." Mrs. M. A. Edwards, of Raleigh, N. C., says: "I look younger than I did 25 years ago." Mrs. Nelson W. Hoyt, of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Your treatment has removed every mark and blemish from my face, and filled out the hollow places, giving it the most natural tone. No other Beauty Specialist living or dead has ever been honored by gold medals from international exhibitions and patronized by Countesses and ladies of high title and rank to the same extent that Harriet Meta has done. You will never again have the opportunity of consulting a Beauty Specialist of such world-wide reputation as Harriet Meta. Therefore, be sure to cut out and send me this Beauty Coupon today. You need not send any money, not even a postage stamp, but merely enclose the following coupon in a letter addressed to Harriet Meta, Suite 1021, M. Syracuse, N. Y., and you will receive an answer in a plain sealed envelope.
