OREGON CITY, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Dependent over the death of Mrs. Garrett set on a charge of dynamite, killing himself, his wife, their 4-year-old daughter and fatally injuring Miss Villa Brown, Mrs. Garrett's daughter by her first husband, Miss Brown is terribly injured and is not expected to live through the night.

FIRES RAGE IN TIMBER

FORESTS BLAZE IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Desperate Effort Made to Check Flames Before Valuable Trees Are Burned.

FOREST GROVE, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Word reached here this morning that forest fires are raging in the timber neighborhood, in the northwest part of Washington County. The fire is burning in section 32, 3 N., 5 W., and has started in section 33. The territory over which the flames have been sweeping has been once burned over. At 1 o'clock the fire was still burning fiercely and owners of the tracts, living in Portland, had been notified a few days ago, and Washington State College, looked upon as probably

RAGING COLUMBIA CARRIES OFF WOOD

Flood Conditions Prevail at Vancouver, With Water 18 Feet 2 Inches.

RISES INCH EVERY HOUR

Government Docks in Danger and Are Weighted Down—Pittcock & Leadbetter Mill Forced to Close.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—The Columbia was 18 feet 2 inches above low water tonight, having risen 12 inches in the last 12 hours. The Northern Pacific dock is two feet under water, and the upper dock, about 15 feet above the lower dock, is being used by all steamers. Little, if any, damage, however, will be done to the Northern Pacific dock by the high water.

WALLOWA WITHOUT WATER.

WALLOWA, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Wallowa is without water and has been since yesterday morning. High waters in Bear Creek, the source of the city's water supply, have piled sand and gravel deep over the intake of the system and have filled the pipe for a short distance with fine sand.
