

MRS. L. S. FRINDELL, OF NEW YORK, FORMERLY MISS ANTOINETTE MONTGOMERY AND HER DAUGHTER, ANTOINETTE, WHO WILL SPEND THE SUMMER HERE.

EVENTS par excellence were the reception at the Hotel Portland on Monday night, which was given by the Japanese Consul at Portland, Y. Numano, and Madame Numano in honor of Rear-Admiral Licht and officers, and the reception on Friday night, at which Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph entertained for the French Ambassador and Madame Jusserand, while civic entertaining incidental to the Rose Festival usurped the major portion of the week. In the near future excellent theatrical attractions are booked, first and foremost being the engagement of the long-deferred presentation of the popular "Merry Widow."

The French Ambassador and Madame Jusserand were the honor guests at a handsomely appointed dinner given on Friday night by Mr. W. D. Wheelwright. The dinner was served in one of the private dining-rooms of the Portland Hotel, which was a veritable bower of brilliant general Jacqueminot buds. Mr. Wheelwright's guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, General and Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster and Miss Elizabeth Peale, of New York, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis.

Mrs. J. S. Malloy, wife of Colonel Malloy who has been in command at Governors Island, New York, is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson Reed, on Williams Heights. Mrs. Malloy's stay will be necessarily brief, as she and her two sons, Jack and Harry, will leave soon for San Francisco to join Colonel Malloy, sailing thence for the Philippines.

In honor of the French Ambassador and Madame Jusserand, one of the largest receptions of the year was given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph at their handsome West Park street residence. The spacious grounds were brilliantly and picturesquely lighted with hundreds of Japanese lanterns, while two great American and French flags were draped from the front gallery and held in place by red, white and blue electric lights. The decorations for the various drawing-rooms, library and music-room were the greatest profusion of beautiful roses. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Dolph and the Ambassador and Madame Jusserand were Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, while an assistant hostess was the recent bride, Mrs. Marion Dolph. In the dining-room presided Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. C. F. Beebe and Mrs. Warren F. Houghton. Assisting in the drawing-rooms were Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mrs. George Davis, of Vancouver Barracks. Icees were served by Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. John C. Alsworth, Mrs. W. B. Ayer and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell. The garden, which was canvased in, was arranged with table-sets, chairs and an attractive Japanese bower, where a punch was served by Miss Kathleen Burns. Assisting in receiving

Smith, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Marjorie Barrow, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Claire Houghton and Miss Grace Warren. The reception was a most representative and distinguished one, and the gowns and jewels were exceptionally handsome. Madame Jusserand appeared in a décolleté gown of shadow satin of an old rose tint, with handsome lace about the corsage, and wore with a necklace of pearls and diamonds. Mrs. Dolph was in cloth of silver, embroidered, and wore a tiara and splendid necklace of diamonds. Both Mrs. Dolph and Madame Jusserand carried exquisite red roses, which were grown and presented by Frederick Holman. Mrs. Wilcox was strikingly handsome in white satin and necklace of diamonds. Mrs. W. B. Ayer wore white satin with a suggestion of turquoise. Mrs. Alsworth, in a gown of white satin, the corsage composed of silver beads; Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, in director's gown of apple green satin; Mrs. Allen Lewis made a striking appearance in an empire gown of oyster gray satin, trimmed with pearly velvet of a warm cherry tone; Mrs. Marion Dolph appeared in her wedding gown, of Japanese crepe embroidered in Japanese

Miss Smith is an unusually charming girl, of a blond type of beauty and a most gracious manner toward both young and old. Mr. Corbett is the second son of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, a grandson of Mrs. H. S. Ladd and the late Senator Corbett. He is a Harvard man of the class of '07 and is connected with the First National Bank. Miss Smith is a daughter of Mr. A. T. Smith, who has lived in Portland for many years. Miss Smith is a graduate of Smith College, where she was a decided favorite. During her junior year she was president of the class and later, a signal honor was conferred upon her when she was elected to the presidency of the council. A distinguished party from San Francisco and Burlingame that passed through Portland yesterday in Miss Jennie Crocker's private car was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Frances B. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, Mrs. Mountford Wilson and Miss Jennie Crocker. Miss Crocker is the well-known California heiress who has lived much abroad, where she has been presented at courts on several occasions. Incidentally it was she who lost the famous pearl necklace which mysteriously disappeared in San Francisco at the ball at the St. Francis Hotel last winter, and which has never been traced. Mrs. Crocker was formerly
