

Martin is a son of the distinguished Mrs. Eleanor Martin, of San Francisco, who, by the way, gave an elaborate entertainment last week in honor of the French Ambassador and Madame Jusserand.

Rear-Admiral Sebree, Commander of the Pacific Squadron, with Mrs. Sebree, was a guest for some days last week of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reed. Mrs. Sebree, who is a handsome woman, with a gracious manner, was formerly an Army girl, being the daughter of General Bridgman, and she and Mrs. Reed have been friends of many years' standing. At the reception given by the Japanese Consul and Mrs. Numano, Mrs. Sebree was distinguished in a princess gown of silk of London smoke shade cut on princess lines. On Tuesday Mrs. Reed entertained informally at a luncheon at the Golf Club for her guest, Admiral and Mrs. Sebree are now in Seattle for the fair, but will return again to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Brigadier-General James T. Smith, Governor-General of the Philippines, who succeeded General Luke Wright, passed through Portland on Tuesday with Mrs. Smith, en route to California, from the Philippines. Their presence was the motif for a dinner at the Hotel Portland the same evening by W. D. Wheelwright, at which were also present Rear-Admiral and Mrs. Sebree, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilson, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Lieutenant Holmes, U. S. N., and Major Noble, U. S. A., of Vancouver Barracks.

Mrs. Sydney Dillon Ripley, of New York, a sister of Miss Helen Hyde, of New York and Paris, passed through Portland the first of the week en route to the Seattle Exposition, with her daughter. On Tuesday Mrs. Ripley and her daughter were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett.

Much sympathy is being expressed for the Joseph D. Grants, of San Francisco, who returned recently from a motor trip to find their beautiful Burlingame home in ashes. An temporary storehouse of all the art treasures and tapestries which the Grants had gathered abroad for their splendid San Francisco home, which is to be ready for their occupancy in the Fall, so the loss was a serious one. Parker, the latter formerly Miss Kate Woolsey, are receiving congratulations over the birth of a daughter a fortnight ago at the residence of Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolsey, in Tacoma. Since Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker's marriage two years ago they have been stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas. Lieutenant Parker has a two months' furlough and is now with Mrs. Parker in Tacoma.

At a luncheon on Thursday given by Mrs. J. G. Gaud for Miss Frances Lewis there were among the 11 guests present four brides-elect, Miss Alta Smith, Miss Edith Macleay, Miss Carolina Kamm and Miss Lewis. Additionally there were present Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. John Edwards, the Misses Frede and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Herbert Nichols and Mrs. David T. Honeyman.

Mrs. E. H. Brooke and the Misses Margretta and Genevieve Brooke, formerly of Portland, but now of Washington, D. C., are spending the month of June at West Point, where the girls are receiving much attention.

Guy W. Talbot entertained at luncheon Wednesday at the Arlington Club for George Barclay Moffatt, president of the Oregon Electric. Mr. Talbot's guests were Judge C. H. Carey, C. E. S. Wood, T. E. Neilsen, John F. Carson, G. F. Nevin, Edward Fox, C. A. Turner, C. A. Coolidge, J. Couch Flinders, William M. Ladd, Francis B. Clarke, H. W. Scott, F. Siggett, C. S. Jackson, W. D. Wheelwright, Henry Ladd Corbett, J. B. Kerr, C. E. Adams, B. S. Josselyn and John C. Ainsworth.

In honor of Miss Hannah Adair, whose marriage to Laussat Richter Rogers, of New York, will be celebrated Saturday at St. Stephen's Cathedral, a luncheon was given by Miss Kathleen Burns on Friday at which were Mrs. John E. Bingham, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss Grelle, Miss Freda Grelle, Miss Rhoda Fanning, Nan Robertson, Miss Amy Heitsch and Miss Caroline Burns. At the wedding Bishop Scudder will officiate, Miss Mary Adair will be the bridesmaid, and Mr. Rogers will be attended by George T. Toffin, of Washington, D. C. Miss Adair is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Adair, a granddaughter of Bishop and Mrs. B. Wistar Morris, and also of General Adair, who was an Oregon pioneer of '49, and the first Collector of Customs on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Rogers is a prominent architect of Philadelphia, where they will reside.

In honor of Miss Frances Lewis' approaching wedding, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster will be dinner hosts on Thursday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols will entertain at supper Tuesday evening and a luncheon will be given on Tuesday by Mrs. David T. Honeyman and Mrs. David C. Lewis.

In Tuesday's paper of last week appeared a description of the brilliant reception at the Hotel Portland, given by the Japanese Consul at Portland, Y. Numano, and Madame Numano, in honor of Admiral Ijchi. Over 1200 cards were sent, and the assemblage was a distinguished one. The guests were especially handsome, and contrasted effectively with the full-dress uniforms of the Army and Navy officers. Never before has the court of the hotel been an attractive, being screened and illuminated by many-colored electric lights, with a playing fountain on the roof, while Turkish rugs and divans metamorphosed the court into a picturesque drawing-room. The presence of the Japanese Band of 30 pieces, in scarlet uniforms, added a striking color effect.

More than the usual interest attaches to the forthcoming annual benefit baseball game to be given for the Fruit and Flower Mission, of which Mrs. Hamilton Brooke is president and to whom much of the credit of the past year's success of that eminently useful charity is due. The particular feature of this year's game between prominent lawyers and bankers will be the appearance of Fielder Jones, last year leader of the famous Chicago Americans and one of the best-known baseball players in America. Mr. Jones recently retired from active playing and has located in Portland, where he is in business. His former position with the Chicago team was right field, but it is not known positively what place he will occupy at the benefit game.

Neither has it been decided on which side the distinguished athlete will play. The bankers' team is under the management of Thomas Brittain Foster, and Doctor James Zan is at the head of the players.
