COUPLE MARRIED IN PORTLAND CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

MRS. THOMAS WHALEN THOMAS WHALEN

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whalen were given a surprise party by their friends at their residence, 548 Everett street, on Saturday evening, June 12, on the anniversary of their golden wedding. They were the recipients of many presents and all had an enjoyable time during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whalen were married on June 12, 1859, in the little Catholic Church that stood at Third and Stark streets, by the Rev. Fathers Macken and O'Reilly.

Mr. Whalen came to Portland in 1856. Their son, Joseph Whalen, is a resident of San Francisco.

Green, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schaefer, to Ralph Malcho Sutherland, of Duluth, Minn., took place at the United Presbyterian Church Wednesday, June 15, at 10:30 A. M. Rev. Mr. McGaw officiating. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Norris B. Greag sang a solo appropriate to the occasion. The bride wore a blue linen suit of a pastel shade and picture hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Myrtle Schaefer, who wore a lingerie gown, with white Milan hat covered with plumes. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents, in Irvington. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left in the afternoon for their new home, Malcho place, on Lewis River.

The San Francisco and Burlingame party that arrived on Saturday in Miss Jennie Crocker's private car were guests on Monday of Roderick Macleay, who took them in his motorboat up the river and for luncheon at the Golf Club. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, Miss Crocker, Mrs. Montford Wilson, Harry Simpkins and Francis B. Carolan, all of California. Additionally, there were present Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. L.

DAUGHTER OF STEAMBOAT CAPTAIN WEDS.

Mrs. Joseph O. Denzel.

Mrs. Joseph O. Denzel, who was married to Joseph O. Denzel, of this city, Tuesday, June 8, by Dr. Benjamin Young, was prior to that time Miss May L. Lakin, a daughter of Captain E. C. Lakin, a pioneer steamboat captain of this city. Her grandparents crossed the plains in early days. Mrs. Denzel is a popular and accomplished young woman. Dr. Denzel is a member of the Portland fire department, in which he has made an enviable record.

Allen Lewis and Miss Caroline Burns. Upon their return to town Mrs. Lewis took the guests motoring and for tea at her King's Heights residence. Mrs. Lewis was formerly a San Franciscan and a devoted belle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong celebrated their silver wedding on Tuesday evening at their Irvington home. Miss Margaret Claire, one of the young guests, caused much amusement by appearing in the wedding gown worn by Mrs. Bushong at her wedding, 25 years ago. The style was decidedly quaint, with tight-fitting basque and dolman, the skirt cut with voluminous panniers. Stiff low collar and broad gold-band bracelets completed the costume.

Miss Leonore Fisher, who for the past two years has been the organist in one of the leading New York churches, has returned for the summer. While in the East Miss Fisher studied with Clarence Eddy, and did most efficient work.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Jr., are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter. Mrs. Wentworth was formerly Miss Lucy Sitton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Fieschner, Minnie and Elise Fieschner are at their beach cottage for a week, and have a house party, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Phillips, of Honolulu, and their two children, and Mrs. Harriet Meyer, of San Francisco. Later they are planning a trip to Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock were dinner hosts last night at the Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Lamont, of Seattle, were guests during the Rose Festival of Mrs. Lamont's father, Mr. Henry Hahn.

Mr. A. L. Craig, general passenger agent for the Great Northern, with Mrs. Craig, is visiting in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Craig formerly lived here, and their presence is to be made the signal for informal entertaining.

A cablegram on Tuesday announced the marriage of the handsome Miss Hazel Blumauer and Mr. Harry Litt. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Blumauer, and has been traveling through Europe since last December. Mr. Litt is a Stanford man, and has played on the football team of the M. A. A. C. of California. Mr. Litt will continue his travels abroad before returning to Portland to make their home.

Mrs. J. P. O'Brien returned Tuesday from a visit in the East, and was accompanied by her handsome daughter, Miss Lillian, who has been at a New York finishing school.

Miss Louise Mesick is the guest for a fortnight of Lieutenant and Mrs. Farnsworth at Fort Stevens.

Miss Minnie Elton, of the Mount Tabor School, accompanied by her young sister, Ruby, and Ruth, leave for Seattle tomorrow to spend a few weeks at the Exposition.

Mrs. George T. Hastings, of San Francisco, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken at their beautiful country place near White Salmon. The ranch, which resembles an English estate, comprises 1500 acres, 90 acres bearing apples. The home, which will be the scene of a number of house parties this summer, is an exceptionally artistic place, which was built by Mordca Jones, a Welsh capitalist, who lived there for 12 years. Mrs. Jones was an enthusiastic sports-woman, who left each morning on horseback with a bag thrown over her shoulder for game, a shotgun and fishing rod, and through her prowess supplied the table the year around. Three small sons were also taught by their father the mysteries of hunting and upon his return from a bear hunt and three little lads took out their knives and skinned the animal with unerring hands. An English tutor, and English artist, numerous servants, and a Japanese trainer were included in the household. The house is built of matched fir logs, 40 feet in length, oiled, peeled and calked with oakum. The ranch abounds with beautiful woods,
