

Homes for the Newly-Wed

In case you are contemplating taking a wife this Summer we suggest that you call upon us now and ascertain just what we will do in the way of furnishing a little home for you. That will remove much of the doubt which may have some bearing on your plans. You will know just exactly where and how you stand and you will have some practical information to give the young lady which will aid her in making up her mind. Possibly this seems like making business out of romance, but the young lady will feel more like entering the married state if she knows what she has to look forward to. We are making a specialty of preparing homes for young married people, and we have studied out the matter from the standpoint of the average salary drawn by young men. The result is that we know just what kind of a proposition will suit you and how to arrange the purchase so that it will be the least possible burden to you. We are not operating a matrimonial bureau, but we are making many marriages possible that could not occur if the intending groom was obliged to pay cash for all the household goods he needed.
