

INSURGENTS MAKE REGULARS SHIVER

Beveridge Forces Close Vote on Reducing Duty on Cash Registers.

HARVESTER TRUST WINS

Attempt to Make Agricultural Implements Free Defeated—Products of Petroleum Taken Off Free List.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The Senate today failed to conclude its debate on the schedules of the tariff bill, though a number of provisions were disposed of.

Probably the most exciting incident of the day was the vote on Beveridge's amendment reducing from 39 per cent ad valorem to 15 per cent ad valorem the duty on cash registers. The insurgents were enabled to force a vote on the bill today with comparatively little discussion. The vote resulted: 31 ayes and 33 noes.

Stating, after the vote was announced, that several Senators had informed him that they had voted against his motion in the Senate, Beveridge said he would renew it at a later date.

Wood Pulp Admitted Free.

The wood pulp provision also received attention, and it was supposed it had been finally acted upon until Clapp, taking exception to the retaliatory provision of the schedule as amended, stated that he would make an effort to have that provision entirely eliminated before final action should be taken on the bill.

No Free Farm Implements.

A motion by Bacon to place agricultural implements on the free list was rejected by a decisive vote of 24 to 45. Other changes made during the day were as follows: Increasing to 2 and 4 cents a pound the duty on hemp; providing for the free importation of 100,000 lb. of linen manufactures; increasing to the extent of about 10 per cent over the present law the duties on newsprint and other printed matter; imposing a duty of 50 per cent on engraved lithographic plates, slightly decreasing the duty on jute yarns; striking from the free list the products of petroleum and eliminating the House retaliatory provision regarding wrapper and filler tobacco.

Rejects Free Lumber.

Davis offered an amendment placing lumber on the free list and in the face of a protest from the insurgents, a vote was taken. The amendment was lost, 18 to 37. A duty of 5 cents a square yard was placed on trading cloth. The duty on borax was increased from 15 cents to 2 cents a pound. Other schedules were fixed as follows:

On woven glass composed of asbestos, 40 per cent ad valorem; on yellow prussiate of soda, 3 cents a pound, and on chlorate of soda, 2 cents instead of 1 1/2 cents a pound. A duty of ammonia was placed on the free list.

Stone Jabs Harvester Trust.

In support of Bacon's amendment placing agricultural implements on the free list, Stone of Missouri asserted that a number of companies had been merged together to constitute the International Harvester Company, a trust; declared that it was conducting 90 per cent of the business of the country in supplying agricultural implements and contended that it was a trust and monopoly, notwithstanding the denial of Aldrich. Stone said that he was interrupted by a statement from Davis of Arkansas with a statement that the company had been driven out of his state by legal proceedings under the state anti-trust law.

Stone read a statement from Attorney-General Major saying that in testimony recently given in New York by George W. Perkins, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., in the Missouri ouster proceedings, Mr. Perkins had admitted that through him Morgan & Co. controlled the entire business of the company. Stone also read from a speech made by a former Senator from North Dakota (evidently referring to Mr. Hansbrough), who said that the International Harvester Company had attempted to control the delegates who were to elect his successor.

"If they were after his scalp," continued Stone, "they got it. It is dangling in the monopoly's belt."

Attorney-General Blind.

"The Department of Justice is asleep or blind," continued Stone in referring to the failure of the Attorney-General to prosecute the International Harvester Company for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. "This is a case in which justice is too blind—blind and dumb and senseless. The Department of Justice sits with palsied hands, but the United States Senate at least should take notice of this great criminal corporation."

Stating that his inspection of consular reports had shown volume of exports from Harvester Company sold its products abroad cheaper than at home, Beveridge said this extraordinary claim was in itself a confession of the harm done to agriculture by the Harvester trust.

Davis Goes on Warpath.

Davis, of Arkansas, in opposing the pending tariff bill, found general fault with the measure. Contending that the Republican party had failed to keep its promise to lower the tariff, he said if that party had possessed the manhood to state boldly that it intended to increase the tariff, "the places that know them today would know them no longer, for they have been his and a byword in the land, their destruction inevitable." He continued: "They are turning their backs in hopefulness and glad acclaim to the great Middle West, where a small cloud has arisen, which is gathering in strength and volume the insurgent Republican forces in this body, that assures the downfall and destruction of the Bourbon element."

Declaring that the tariff bill is virtually the product of Aldrich, and asserting that Aldrich had been elected to the Senate by a Legislature chosen by 11 per cent of the votes of the small state of Rhode Island, Davis declared that the supporters of the bill had shown subservience to Aldrich.

Still Swears by Bryan.

Indirectly, Davis criticized Democrats who had declared their lack of allegiance to the Democratic platform, which he said he was willing to "swallow from 'kiv' to 'kiv'."

Davis defended Bryan as the reputed author of the Democratic platform. "I wish Bryan might not be a candidate," Davis expressed the hope that he would "never circumscribe the field of his usefulness, the field of his eternal glory, by accepting a seat in the United States Senate."

WOOD PULP PUT ON FREE LIST

Aldrich Accepts Brown's Amendments With Retaliatory Provision.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The Senate today revised its previous action on the print paper and wood pulp schedule, agreeing upon amendments relating both to pulp and paper in place of amendments hitherto adopted. The amendments accepted were those proposed by Brown of Nebraska. When the Senate reverted to the pulp and paper provision, Aldrich stated that he was prepared to accept the amendments proposed by Brown.

The Brown amendment for the pulp provision is a complete substitute for House paragraph 402. It provides for the free admission of mechanically-ground wood pulp, but authorizes the imposition of a duty of one-fourth of a cent per pound, dry weight, upon proclamation by the President declaring that any country or province has unduly discriminated against the United States by the imposition of an export duty upon wood pulp, pulp wood or printing paper exported into the United States, or has forbidden or restricted the exportation of any of these articles, directly or indirectly.

On chemical wood pulp a duty of one-sixth of a cent per pound is provided on the unbleached article and one-fourth of a cent per pound on the bleached article, and in case of discrimination by the exporting country, these duties are to be doubled.

The amendment to the paper paragraph consists of a provision authorizing the doubling of the duty on newsprint paper in case of discrimination by the exporting country, these duties are to be doubled.

CLOTHING GOES SKYWARD

Dealers Advance Prices and Say Tariff Bill to Blame.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Anticipating the effect of the present provisions of the Aldrich tariff bill, the prices of men's clothing have been sent skyward at a rapid rate. Clothing dealers report that suits that could be bought a week ago for $20 are now being marked to $35. Staple worsteds and woens have all taken a 25 per cent rise in the last few days. Coupled with this, the anticipation is the increased cost of scouring woolsens which a year ago cost 40 cents a pound and which are now quoted at 75 cents. Clothing sellers look upon the situation with much satisfaction, their position being much stronger than it has been in many years.

RECONSIDER PETROLEUM DUTY

Aldrich Wants Some Products Taken Off Free List.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—An extended discussion took place in the Senate today when Aldrich reported an amendment to strike out the words "and the products thereof" from the tariff occurred in connection with petroleum, crude or refined oil on the free list. He said 500 or 600 articles might be designated as petroleum, if so desired, and with that understanding the amendment was adopted.

ROOT TO DEFEND NEW SCHEME

New York Senator Will Advance Taft's Plan During Debate.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Senators Root, of New York, and Flint, of California, were at the White House conference with President Taft in regard to the reconsideration of the Senate of the Administration's corporation tax amendment. Senator Root will take the lead in defending the amendment, which comes up for debate probably on Monday, and Senator Flint will speak briefly in favor of it. Senator Flint estimated today that the Senate would dispose of the corporation tax question within ten days.

Cordova Man Is Suicide.

CORDOVA, Alaska, June 25.—Fred Lind, a laundry proprietor, formerly of Nome and Katalla, was found dead with a bullet through his brain and a revolver in his right hand yesterday. He leaves a widow and four children in San Francisco. He was a member of the Eagles.

CHAUFFEUR TURNS SUITOR

And, Falling to Win Bride, Shoots Her and Her Mother.

ROME, June 26.—(Special.)—The story of a remarkable love tragedy comes from Treviso. A lady and her daughter, named Bandefini, hired a motor car and went on an excursion. Not far from Treviso the chauffeur picked up the car at a deserted spot. Removing his goggles, he faced the two women with a revolver in each hand.

LOOKING TOOK TRUNK TO NEWARK

Tried to Leave It at Chinese Restaurant, Then Took It to New York.

ANXIOUS TO GET RID OF IT

Murder Not Premeditated, but on Frenzied Moment—Reputed by Chinese Masons, Who Aid in Search for Him.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The New York police confirmed tonight the plan of the Sigel murder case brought to light in Newark, N. J., today—that Leon Ling was in Newark early in the afternoon of the murder, with a heavy oval-topped trunk like the one in which the body was found, and with a pressing anxiety to get rid of it.

The mystery of just how Elsie Sigel was killed was cleared up to some extent today with the announcement of the reports from the coroner's autopsy supporting the belief that the murder was not premeditated, but that it was committed on the spur of the moment by the jealousy-crazed Chinaman.

There is no confirmation of the statement made to the police by a clerical friend of the Sigel family that Elsie ever married Chu Gain, Leon Ling's rival. The District Attorney's office questioned One Fung, an English-speaking Chinaman. Ong Fung said that nothing was known in Chinatown to connect Leon with either of the Chinese tongs and that apart from his membership in the Chinese Masons (which the Masons deny) the only other society to which he belonged was the Four Brothers, which embraces all the descendants of the four demi-gods, who lived before Chinese history began.

ATTEMPT TO GET RID OF BODY

Leon Tried to Leave Trunk at Newark Restaurant.

NEWARK, N. J., June 26.—Evidence that Leon Ling brought the trunk containing the body of Elsie Sigel to this city on the day after the murder, and attempted to leave it in a Chinese restaurant has been discovered. Leon Ling, a Chinese waiter in the restaurant, was discovered carrying the trunk back to his room in New York City.

This information was obtained from Li Sing, a Chinese waiter in the restaurant conducted by Sam Palmy at 64 Market street, and from James Halstead, the hackdriver employed by Leon. Halstead says he drove Leon and the trunk to a place on First avenue, between Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth streets, New York City, near Leon's room.

BLOT ON CHINESE MANHOOD

Head of Chinese Masons Says All Will Help Catch Leon.

EL PASO, Texas, June 26.—Wong Sing, head of the Chinese Masons in America, now visiting here, declared that every Chinese society in America will help locate Leon Ling, wanted for the murder of Elsie Sigel. Ack terms Ling a "blot on Chinese manhood." He sent orders broadcast today to all Chinese Masons to cooperate with the police in detecting the alleged murderer.

SUSPECT ARRESTED IN SOUTH

Chinaman Thought to Be Leon Is Picked Up in Tennessee.

JACKSON, Tenn., June 26.—That they have in custody Leon Ling, the slayer of Miss Elsie Sigel, is the belief of the local authorities. The suspect, a Chinaman whose facial expression and general appearance tallies with the published descriptions of Leon, came to Jackson June 16. Today he purchased a ticket to St. Louis and was about to board a train when arrested.

DETECTIVE STARTS ON TRAIL

Goes to Unknown Place With Chinese Interpreter.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The police look for important developments in the search for Leon Ling as the outgrowth of the out-of-town trip undertaken by Detective Michael Galvin, in company with Quon Yek Nam, the Chinese interpreter. The pair left yesterday for an unknown destination.

KILLED BROTHER WILFULLY

Verdict Against Cecil Hopkins Gives District Attorney Task.

MODESTO, Cal., June 26.—That Cecil Hopkins, the 12-year-old boy who shot his six-year-old brother, Theodore, last Thursday and then buried him in a pig pen while still alive, killed the child with wilful intent, was the verdict returned this afternoon by a coroner's jury. The self-confessed slayer was present at the inquest, but was not put upon the witness stand to repeat the story of his horrible crime.

The result of the examination was communicated to the Pope, who was greatly affected.

BIG FLEET NOW AT ROADS

Atlantic Maneuvers This Year to Embrace 50 Ships.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—With two months of hard work before it, the Atlantic battleship fleet is assembling in Hampton Roads, Va., for the summer maneuvers, which will be extensive and exhaustive. The fleet may be divided into two squadrons and fight against each other, and a dozen torpedo-boats will make attacks on the big battleships, whose officers and men will be required to exert extreme vigilance also to guard against the stealthy submarine torpedo boats, four of which, with parent ships, are attached to the fleet. Under Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, commanding-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, the fleet consists of nearly half a hundred ships of war, ranging in size from the big 16,000-ton flagship Connecticut to the 11-ton submarine.

Tactical drills and exercises, involving tactical problems and battle evolutions, will be held in New England waters during the latter part of July and the early part of August. Then the fleet will proceed to the southern drill grounds off the Virginia capes, for record and battle target practice. This shooting will occupy about two weeks, beginning August 15. At its close the vessels will return to Hampton Roads, and go thence to their home yards for any repairs necessary before winter maneuvers in West Indian waters.

While at Rockport, Mass., July 7, or later at Provincetown, President Taft may find it convenient to review Admiral Schroeder's fleet from either his small yacht Sybil, or from his big yacht Mayflower.

FAIRBANKS PRAISES JAPS

Says Their Rule in Corea Gives Promise to Future.

TOKIO, June 26.—Before leaving Seoul for the northern part of Corea today, former Vice-President Charles Warren Fairbanks prepared the following statement giving his impressions of the Japanese rule in Corea. He said: "The political, social and industrial conditions of Corea are improving, and this improvement commenced with the establishment of the Japanese protectorate. Much of this progress was made under the far-sighted statesmanship of Prince Ito. The regeneration of this country has been well started, and I find everywhere evidence of the high purpose of the Japanese toward Corea and these Koreans. Foremost among these was the establishment of a judicial system, next the introduction of good schools. I find that the Japanese are establishing excellent public medical, legal and agricultural colleges, and this means everything to the people of Corea. Foremost among these are now working in full co-operation and with the utmost satisfaction. The influence of the missionaries upon the natives is excellent. The instruction has completely subsided, and good order has been generally established throughout the country. The Japanese are devoting their energies to the development of the natural resources of Corea, and in this connection I was glad to find that seventy-five per cent of the mineral products are controlled by Americans. Japan has a delicate task and one that will doubtless tax her statesmanship, but I have every reason to hope for the full success of her present policy."

HAVE CONFIDENCE IN COOK

Friends of Arctic Explorer Think He Has Reached Pole.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Word is expected almost any day from F. A. Cook, Arctic explorer, who is now believed to be awaiting transportation home at Etah, North Greenland, and geographers in the Arctic Club here, which sent him North, have the strongest belief that he has reached the pole. The Arctic explorer's journal he sent home from Cape Hubbard last year, from which point he made his dash for the pole. Arctic geographers note that the route he planned to take would lead him directly to the North Pole, providing that there were no unfavorable conditions. Considering this indication with the fact that there have been more icebergs floating down into the Atlantic Ocean this Spring the scientists believe that the explorer is now at the pole. Dr. Cook was not hampered by unfavorable ice conditions, and that he therefore reached the pole.

WRANGLE ENDS CONTEST

REFEREES UNABLE TO AGREE WHO WON MATCH.

Jiu Jitsu Struggle in California Between Jap and Yankee Ends Without Decision.

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—A difference of opinion between the Japanese and the American referee over the decision in the Jiu Jitsu match between Shoetsu Yokoyama, said to be the Japanese world's champion, and Eddie Robinson, a former prizefighter here tonight, resulted in no decision being given, though it was the opinion of a majority of the spectators that the Japanese had the better of the contest.

The American referee announced that Robinson had won, but the Japanese referee vehemently claimed a victory for his countryman. The general opinion was that the American contestant did not confine himself strictly to the rules of the game and used his clenched fists to great advantage, when he should have struck with the open hand. The affair was announced as being for the championship of the world.

NO Concession to Jap Strikers.

HONOLULU, June 26.—The sugar plantation managers on the island of Hawaii have unanimously denied the demand of the Japanese laborers for an increase in wages. On this island there is no change in the strike situation. The strikers and the planters both remain firm and there seems little prospect of an early termination to the trouble.

The change was recommended by the board, headed by Rear-Admiral Sperry, appointed to reconcile differences in the naval regulations. The decision is a victory for the line officers of the Navy.
