SPOKANE, Wash., June 26 .- (Special.) Reports from the Upper Locksaw, 50 miles above Kooskia, where the surveying partles of the Northern Pacific and Harriman roads are making the mad race for the occupation of Lolo Pass, indicate many dangers encountered by the engi-neers. Pack horses are disabled by roliing over trails, supply boats are swamped in the treacherous waters of the Upper Locksaw, and members of the parties have had many narrow escapes in scal-ing precipitous bluffs. As Israel outlines the procedure in the Senate. Schively should be given at least ten days to prepare for trial. The constitution and statutes make no provision in this matter, and Israel bases his contention on precedent in congress and in impeachment trials in other states. SEATTLE, June 26.-While seated in a corner of the lobby of the Butler Hotel in the heart of the business district this afternoon, Victor C. Colby, a real estate man aged 50 years, who came here with his family from Quincy, Fia, six months ago, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head, using a revolver. The hotel lobby was filled with people and the shot created a paint. In Colby's pocket was found a letter entitled "To He says that in the United States and upbraided them for Parents," giving him an education. This letter follows: "To Parents: The secret of my failure lies in the fact that my parents did not value education, and I went to school until I was between 19 and 11 years old. My brother never went to school, and my sister. I think, went about two terms, and we were raised in Chicago too.
