

BOURNE NOTED AS GREAT ABSENTEE

Oregon Senator Not Present on Two-Thirds of Votes on Tariff Bill.

ALWAYS FOLLOWS ALDRICH

Apostle of High Tariff Had Meek and Lowly Disciple in Bourne When Latter Not Chasing Festive Golf Ball.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 10.—In a speech which he read in the Senate last week—a speech remarkable in its frankness in an open senator—Senator Bourne made a statement on a par with Senator Aldrich's confession of his true reasons for supporting and pressing his corporation tax amendment to the tariff bill.

Personally, I attach but little importance to the accuracy that may be enacted by Congress in this tariff bill. Because I have felt that the committee on finance had better opportunities for collecting data, far greater experience as to how the tariff can best be applied to produce greatest good for the greatest number, and myself having neither the experience, information nor means of obtaining data, I have voted almost without exception in support of the committee's recommendations.

Seldom Cast His Vote.

Mr. Bourne would have spoken with absolute accuracy had he said that he voted with Mr. Aldrich on every occasion but one when he did vote on any tariff proposition. That once was when Mr. Bourne opposed the second motion made by Mr. Aldrich to postpone consideration of the income tax amendment. The motion carried.

Chased Festive Golf Ball. The absence of Mr. Bourne from the Senate chamber has become proverbial. It was much remarked during the last regular session and even more marked during the special session. In part it is accounted for by his golf game with the Presidential party on the Chevy Chase links.

But the fact that Mr. Bourne missed 48 of the 104 votes does not correctly measure the extent of his absence. During the special session from August 19, when the tariff bill was called up, until July 2, when the last schedule was out of the way, and the corporation tax amendment adopted, there were 97 roll calls intended to produce a quorum.

Had Only One Excuse. In order to do Mr. Bourne no injustice it must be said that he was called away from Washington by the fatal illness of his mother, and he should not be charged with his failure to respond during that period.

JUDGESHIP FOR HUGHES? Taft Reported to Be Considering Place in Supreme Court for Him.

CHICAGO, July 10.—A Washington special to the Tribune today says: There is a strong impression in New York and Vermont that President Taft will offer Governor Hughes the first vacancy that occurs in the United States Supreme Court.

AIR MACHINE EXPOSITION Wright Aeroplane Will Be on Exhibition at Frankfurt.

FRANKFORT, Germany, July 10.—The International Air Navigation Exposition, which probably is the most important of aeroplanes of every type pertaining to aeroplanes, is being held here today and will continue for 100 days.

Neglected Vital Interests. To complete the record, attention is called to some of the important votes which Mr. Bourne missed, not including votes taken while he was away because of the illness of his mother. He is not recorded on a single one of the metal or mineral schedules, meaning not only ores, but manufactures of iron, steel and other metals. When the first attempt was made to put lumber on the free list and later to reduce the duty to 50 cents a thousand, Mr. Bourne was absent.

To round out his record, after reading a speech in advocacy of the Aldrich amendment imposing tax upon the net earnings of corporations, Mr. Bourne was away from the Senate when the four votes were taken sidetracking the income tax and adopting the Aldrich substitute.

Followed Lead of Aldrich. Mr. Bourne's record on the tariff is absolutely consistent with his professed belief. He was willing to leave everything in the hands of Mr. Aldrich, and that is what he did; supporting Mr. Aldrich when he was present, as doubtless he would have done had he been present, for he "had no means of obtaining information or data" which would justify him in voting otherwise.

It may be argued that on many, if not most occasions, Mr. Bourne was "paired" during his absence from the Senate. But after witnessing a manner in which the party lines were ignored throughout the tariff fight, it was impossible to arrange intelligent "pairs" for the man paired with might on many occasions, held the same views as the Senator asking the pair.
